PRETTY WEDDING AT HOME OF BRIDE

Miss Carrie Weller and Lewis L. Lenhart United in Marriage Thursday Evening

A pretty May wedding was solemnized on Thursday evening at 8.30 o'clock when Miss Carrie V. Weller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Weller, and Lewis L. Lenhart, 1327 North Front street, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, 660 Woodbine street, the Rev. J. Owen Jones officiating.

The bride, who was charming in a gown of flesh Georgette crepe, carried a shower of orange blossoms and orchids. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Carl H. Pegley, who wore a frock of henna Georgette and carried a bouquet of varicolored sweetpeas. William L. Weller, a brother of the bride, was best man. Following the ceremony witnessed by the immediate families of the young couple, a reception was held at the Weller home, decorated for the occasion with roses and orange blossoms, in profusion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenhart are at home to their many friends in their newly-furnished residence, 2114 Penn street. Mr. Lenhart is connected with the accounting department of the superintendent's office of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway.

PRINCIPALS IN CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

WINSTON ROMIG—MISS MARY LEWIS

Winston Romig, 680 Camp street, has been chosen as the leading man in the English society comedy to be presented by the class of 1919 of Central High school. "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh" is the play that the Central students will present this year, one that Mrs. Fiske, the famous actress, starred in both in this country and in England. It is of the highest type of comedy, and promises to draw even a larger house than "The Hoodoo," presented last year by the 1918 class. Mrs. Ewing, instructor of declamation, has had entire charge of the cast for the past few weeks, and will undoubtedly produce a play worthy of its class.

State to Aid County in Elimination of Five Dangerous Crossings

County commissioners received notice from the State that work on the elimination of five grade crossings in Derry township will be started in the near future. These crossings are between Hummelstown and Swatara Station on the Lebanon Valley branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway. They will be replaced by the vacating of two sections of highway, the construction of two subways for vehicular and one for pedestrian travel.

The cost of the improvements, which are to be completed by the summer of 1920, follows: Work on State highways, $60,720; township roads, $6,457; retaining walls at Swatara station, $11,787; pedestrian subway in Hockersley road, $8,432; Swatara subway, $44,428; Swatara Station subway, $112,169; damages to railroad properties, $25,511; estimated cost for right of way and damages, $28,547; total, $300,000.

The county will pay $14,000 toward the improvements, the Public Service Commission $75,000 from the grade crossing funds and Derry township $215,000.

Two Brothers Drowned While on Park Outing

Philadelphia, May 31.—Ellis and Herman Kirschbaum, 8 and 12 years old, respectively, only children of Charles Kirschbaum, a tailor, of No. 1721 West Venango street, were drowned shortly after noon yesterday in the Wissahickon Creek at Thomas mill road near Valley Forge.

They boys, with several other boys of the Tloga section, were on an outing. The younger boy, Ellis, was playing near the water, lost his balance and fell in. His brother, Herman, jumped in to his rescue, and both were carried into midstream.

Lee Hyland, 13 years old, of No. 1224 North Boyer street, also of the party, jumped in and saved the older brother, and a man who happened to be near by jumped in and brought out the younger brother, but both were dead.

Finds Sunspot With Aid of Small Glass

T. H. Pollock, 256 Calder street, believes the gas clouds said to be within 125,000 miles of the sun, may be seen with a good glass. Mr. Pollock makes his observations in the late afternoon when the sun's rays are not so strong.

Regret Over Death

There is general regret in musical circles, and wherever she was known, over the death of Mrs. W. E. Hamilton, wife of the secretary of the Berryhill Nursery Company. She had been ill for almost two years and died at the home of her mother, at Annapolis, where the funeral took place. The Hamilton home is at Oak Park, the delightful suburb on the Linglestown road. Mrs. Hamilton was a graduate of the Lebanon Valley College and frequently sang at the Cathedral and other churches of the city.

Trolley Cars Collide

When two Valley Railway cars collided near Lemoyne, Mrs. John A. Bessier, of New Cumberland, a passenger in one of them, was injured. Other passengers were badly shaken up. One car was following another, and quite suddenly, at Lemoyne, a change in the speed of one of them resulted in their running together, officials of the Valley Railway say.

Hawker Apologizes For Criticisms of American Flights

By Associated Press. London, May 31.—Harry G. Hawker, in an interview in the Evening Globe regarding American press comments on the speech he made at a luncheon to newspapermen on Wednesday, said:

"The Americans misunderstand my point. I was not criticizing their attempt. It is impossible to compare the two flights. We did not wish to have battleship supplied by the government along the route.

"My remarks were intended for those who were criticizing the government for not supplying them. I wish the Americans the very best of luck. Their flights have been beautifully organized jobs from beginning to end.

"I am very sorry, indeed, that the American press has misunderstood me. Nothing was farther from my mind than to criticize the Americans."
