

CARRANZA GAVE U. S. WARNING

Had Been Told Twice That New Revolt Threatened His Power

Washington, May 31.—Although the Carranza government of Mexico was warned nearly a year ago by the United States of preparations for the present revolutionary campaign, which has resulted in the proclaiming of General Felipe Angeles provisional President and Francisco Villa Secretary of War, little attention was paid to information given by this country.

Specific warnings of the threatened menace to his power were given President Carranza by the United States last October and again last November 27, it is learned authoritatively.

It was learned to-day that inquiries have been made of the Mexican government regarding a report circulating in the United States that Carranza had been informed by the United States of the preparations for the present revolutionary campaign, which has resulted in the proclaiming of General Felipe Angeles provisional President and Francisco Villa Secretary of War, little attention was paid to information given by this country.

SCOUTS THANKED FOR PART IN MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Youngsters With Water-Filled Canteens Do Splendid Service For Aged Veterans

Boy Scouts of the city to-day were generally commended to-day for the part they took yesterday in the Memorial Day parade. The youngsters acted as escorts to the aged veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and did splendid work. They were thanked by the several posts to which they took part in yesterday's exercises.

A Scout marched on each side of each line of four veterans. Each boy carried a canteen of water which was greatly appreciated because of the excessive heat of the day.

The youngsters re-filled their canteens at the cemeteries, where the water was in good condition during the exercises in the heat of the sun.

The boys did a double-quick to the Harrisburg cemetery just before the veterans arrived there. The youngsters cleared the crowds away from the seats reserved for the Grand Army. Women who carried parasols were invited to sit near the veterans so that much shade was provided.

PENNA. GIRL WANTS TO FLY OVER ATLANTIC

Asks to Be Carried Overseas as Passenger; Plane Only Built For Two

St. Johns, N. F., May 31.—While the Vimy-Vickers, Handley-Page and Martinsyde entries in the London Daily Mail's $50,000 trans-Atlantic high speed contest labor to get their machines in shape for "hop off," the aviators were startled by receipt of a request from a 19-year-old American girl that she be carried overseas as a passenger on the Vimy-Vickers bomber to be piloted by Captain Jack Alcock.

The girl is Miss May Kitson, of Eindhoven, Pa. With her application she volunteered the information that she had three brothers in the American Army and that although she had been rejected by the air corps because of her sex, she wished to prove that an American girl is not afraid to brave the dangers of a trans-oceanic flight.

Alcock announced he would have to disappoint Miss Kitson, as his plane was only a two-seater.

BROTHERHOOD LODGE LOSES ITS CHARTER

Firemen and Enginemen, who handled most of the investigation in his statements, charges misrepresentations in the circular sent out from Harrisburg and says:

"The twenty-seventh convention of this Brotherhood went on record very forcibly against members undertaking the destruction of this organization by slanderous statements, and that part of the circular when you refer to 'the flimsy and precarious position we occupy' is an insidious attack upon not only this Brotherhood but our sister organizations which cannot be passed unnoticed, and the offenders are amenable to the law of our organization and subject to expulsion.

"I feel confident that the members of our Brotherhood will make up Lodge 673 have not been parties to this slanderous attack, neither will they tolerate such attack upon this organization or our sister organizations."

"I wish to direct your attention to Section 25, Article 17 on page 103 of the constitution reading as follows: 'A lodge failing without good cause to comply with the provisions of this constitution may be suspended and its charter may be revoked by the international president.'"

Officers of the defunct lodge are ordered to return their charter and all moneys, dues, etc. to the international president, and distribute local funds among the members. Loyal members, it is said, have been taken care of already.

COURT ORDERS SALE OF PLANT

That the corporation had defaulted in the payment of interest on a mortgage bond issue of $125,000 and that a public sale of the property should be held, and the mortgage foreclosed.

It was alleged by the Trust Company that the Water Company failed to pay interest on bonds when it came due April 1 and October 1, 1918. As a result a majority of the bondholders formed an organization it was said, and with the Trust Company as agent, brought the action to foreclose the mortgage for failure to pay interest.

Many Local Points A number of legal points about service of the action and other similar disputes were raised during the arguments and hearings held during the last year or more, and after the property was sold, the case for consideration reserving his decision until to-day.

In the decree the court rules that the mortgage is a lien against all the property, franchises, rights of way and other holdings of the Water Company; that default was made in payment of interest, that the mortgage should be foreclosed and disposed of at a public sale, all interest in the property which the Water Company or its receiver may hold, to be discharged with the sale.

After the original proceeding had been instituted counsel for holders of another mortgage bond issue intervened and filed a demurrer to stop the company's proceedings to stop the mortgage bonds. This demurrer had not been settled yet.

Cummings Arraigns Republican Leaders For League Issues

St. Louis, May 31.—Speaking in support of the League of Nations and against the proposed amendment for a public meeting attended by Democratic party leaders of Missouri, Cummings, chairman of the Missouri Democratic National Committee, arraigned Republican leaders for attention to the League of Nations.

"The dying spasms of Republican liberalism have ceased and the reactionaries are in possession of the Senate and House," he declared. Mr. Cummings recited a long list of Republican committee assignments which had voted against war measures. He threatened revocation of seven Progressive Republican appointments, he declared, adding: "The choice of committee assignments go to Penrose, Lodge and Warren."

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Charges of Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, that Edward Reynolds, formerly Cummings, chairman of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, had attempted to make Government operation of the telegraph system a failure, and an alternate director, Burleson were features of yesterday's hearings before the Senate Commerce Committee on legislation for return of the telephone and telegraph properties.

Mr. Carlton told the committee that Mr. Reynolds, at the request of Mr. Burleson, worked out a plan for co-ordination of the wires, but at the same time sent letters to officials of the Postal Company "asking them to make Government operation a failure."
