GIRL SCOUTS IN MILITARY DRILL

Members of Dogwood Troop to Raise Funds For Little French Orphan

Members of Dogwood Troop, No. 2, Girl Scouts, will give a military drill this evening on the lawn of 2025 North Front street, under the direction of W. Ray Chapman, recreational director at the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church. The proceeds will be devoted to the support of a little French orphan, Marguerite Doussoul, whom the troop has adopted, and to the troop's camp fund.

The program promises to be a most interesting one. Miss Almeda Herman, acting captain, will be in charge of the opening exercises, including a salute to the flag and the scout promise. W. Ray Chapman, drillmaster, will then take command, and a series of drills will be given. The Farmette Chorus, which scored such a hit at the Skyark, will be present to present the same clever stunt, with Miss Elizabeth Ross as soloist, assisted by Miss Almeda Herman, Miss Cherry Westbrook, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Alice Decevee, Miss Maude Stamm, Miss Sara McCulloch, Miss Emily Sites and Miss Martha Fletcher. Moonlight dance by Miss Emily Sites, Miss Florence Frank, Miss Ellen Harris, Miss Virginia Watts and Miss Mary Harris. Miss Grace Mentzer will be at the piano. During the evening cake, candy and ice cream cones will be sold, and there will be dancing to the music by the Honey Boy Jazz Orchestra. For this a small additional fee will be charged.

General dancing on the veranda will close the evening. Each member of the troop has worked hard to make the affair a success, and has served on some committee. The committee heads are as follows: Mary Harris, finances; Elizabeth Harris, Ellen Harris and Elizabeth Darby, publicity; Emily Sites, Mary Emma Fisher and Sigrid Hansen, ice cream; Grace Mentzer and Dorothy Rankin, cake and candy; Dorothy Paul and Margaret Jacoby, tickets; Katherine Lytle and Margaret Ruth Bamey, dancing.

Every Woman When Selecting a Hat Should Consider
The Outline it forms with all of her figure. So many women examine a hat before a small mirror in which they can see only head and shoulders, forgetting that the real effect of a hat is in its relation to the whole form. A hat can add to or detract from the height or slimmness of the figure.
The Occasion for which the hat is to be used. Another common mistake among women is made when they buy a hat because they like the color, shape, or material, utterly disregarding the clothing with which the hat must be worn. A hat often loses its becomingness if it does not suit the gown with which it is combined and the charm of a beautiful hat may be gone if inappropriately worn.
Select your Summer Hats' here, where their entire effect will be considered and a choice can be made to fill your requirements.

Eye Glass Talk

I am always glad to talk "Eyes" or "Eyeglasses." If you have reason to think that your sight is anyway defective or if the glasses you are wearing do not seem satisfactory, come in and let us talk the matter over. Perhaps the trouble is of a minor character and can be quickly remedied at little or no expense. Frequently a little adjustment of the mountings or change in the way glasses are worn will make the biggest kind of a difference. I give you the benefit of my twenty-five years' experience as an optometrist and will only recommend glasses or new lenses when they are actually required.

"I Was a Fright—" really a fright — to think of going to Cousin Esther's wedding in those togs of mine. So said Madge; and I know Madge's taste's as true as a plummet.
"But there I was: I couldn't run over to Philadelphia or New York for my finery — of course not. Hardly take the time to run downtown, even. But I did.
"And, say, passing Mary Sachs' store, I saw this bonnet in her window.
"Isn't it a dear? Just exactly suits my color and contour.
"Do you know, it was really a pleasure to select there. Big stock. And I felt, too, Miss Sachs was so anxious to suit me I just resigned myself to her.
"Now, isn't this a beauty? And so reasonable, too!
"Well, Mary Sachs' for mine, hereafter."
