METHODISTS IN BIG CAMPAIGN

Eight Big Congregations t Raise Their Quotas by Wednesday

In eight Methodist churches in the yesterday, a campaign started for the Methodist Centenary Fund, the after-war work in the United States and abroad. Canvassers in each church will visit every member and meetings will be held during the week at which reports will be made. Special services were in order and prominent speakers reports will be made. Special services were in order and prominent speakers were present.

At Stevens Memorial Church Bishop William F. Anderson, who was a Y. M. C. A. worker in France, was the speaker of the day. He is prominent in the Methodist Centerary reliefship work. He expects to sail for France July 1.

At Grace Church

At Grace Church it was reported that $6,140 had been raised, which brings the total up to $8,000. The drive will continue through Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and those in charge of the canvass are sure that Grace Church will go "over the top" in raising its quota. The apportionment that Grace Church is to raise in the national financial drive of the Centenary campaign is $15,268. There will be meetings on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Grace Church and the canvassers of the eight Methodist churches of Harrisburg will come together to give their reports and to hear reports of other churches.

ches.

is anticipated that the quota for risburg will be raised by Wednesevening and all the prayer meetof the Methodist churches will be urned to hold a union victory and the meeting in the auditorium of co-Church. The final reports of financial canvass will be made at the content of the c ace Church. The man reports of the financial canvass will be made at is meeting, and the special feature will a World War reconstruction lecture ama by Bishop Anderson.

Announcement was made yesterday the Centenary of the Cent

Announcement was made yesterday by the canvassers in the Centenary drive at St. Paul's Methodist Church that the quota, $1.645, would be reached to-day, During the services yesterday afternoon a total of $1.534.50 was raised. Special services were held throughout yesterday. An address was delivered in the morning by the Rev. Dr. Heckman, district superinferior.

Festerday saw the finish of the Ceneary campaign at Epworth Methosist Church. The services all through the day were of an impressive nature, eximing with a record-breaking of tring in the morning, when the first entenary offernig in the Sunday chool was taken. A sermon by the ev. Homer Knox followed. The surch unit leaders and assistants met the church at 1.45 p. m., many offernig mythout the usual Sunday nner to be in on the task. After a fort time spent in instructing the ams who were to make the canvass, d a brief prayer service that the intenary offernig in the shool was taken. A sermon by the shool was taken. A serior was the shool was taken. A serior was taken. A ser

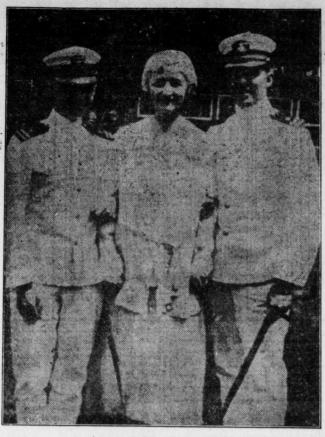

"and do all of the stunts I have seen you do with others.
Stinson did as she requested. He looped the loop with her ten times, did the Immermann turn, the nose dive, the tail spin and finally the shimmy, a new stunt invented at the snimmy, a new stunt invented at the aid port, which consists of making the machine act as if it were skipping through the air.

"It was simply wonderful," said Mrs. Wilcox, when she came back to earth. "Now I can really say that I have lived."

Courthouse Notes

Petitions For Attorney. - Lawr-

Author of Soldier Letters

MISS LILA HAMIL

SOLDIERS THANK General Pershing's HER FOR LETTERS

[Continued from First Page.]

The mother letter follows in part: "Son dear:

Members of West Shore Lodge, No. 681, Free and Accepted Masons, of Camp Hill, and their wives, motored to the Masonic Homes, Elisabethtown, vesterday. where they had charge of the services. This is an annual event with the Camp Hill organization. Seventy-five persons were in the party yesterday. The Rev. J. Merle Williams, pastor of the Camp Hill Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered the sermon. The party made an inspection of the various units of the Masonic Homes. Farewell Address

By Associated Press. Romagne, France, Friday, May 30 "Farewell, dear comrades. Here under the clear skies of the green hillside and amid the flowering fields of France, in the quiet hush of peace, we leave you forever in God's keeping."

peace, we leave you forever in God's keeping."
With these words General Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Force, closed his Memorial Day address at Romagne, in the Argonne cemetery where who has been serving with the British, more than 9,000 Americans who fell in the fighting are buried. General Degoutte, representing the French

Makes an Air Flight

Atlantic City, June 2.—Mrs. Ida
C. Wilcox, who is eightly, the widow of an army colonel, lives in a little tottage near the field where air men have been doing their daring performances since the beginning of the Aeronautical Convention. The fagcination tempted her until she could stand it no longer, and at last.

"When I know you are unselfish gave the most experienced aviation fans at the air port a thrill by taking a ride with Eddie Stinson, who ascended 3,000 feet.

"I want you to go as high as you can," she said to the daring flyer,
"and do all of the stunts I have seen
you do with others.

Stinson did as she requested. He

They shall not pass—
America will stand
As long as lips can answer her, Toome.'
They shall not pass
The Epworth League of the Fifth School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates to the Epworth League Conference, play entitled, "A Runaway Couple"
on Thursday evenins, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Technical High School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates to the Epworth League of the Fifth School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates
to the Epworth League of the Fifth School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates
to the Epworth League of the Fifth School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates to the Epworth League On Thursday evenins, at 8 o'clock,
in the auditorium of the Technical
High School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates
to the Epworth League On Thursday evenins, at 8 o'clock,
in the auditorium of the Technical
High School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates
to the Epworth League On Thursday evenins, at 8 o'clock,
in the auditorium of the Technical
High School. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund to send delegates to the Epworth League On Funded to the Arenaukier.
The Epworth League On Funded
The League On Funded
to the Hundle No.

The Epworth League On Funded
The League On Funded
The Leagu

This is the song that our guns keep roaring
Out through the night and rain;
This is the song with their big shells soaring
Over the battered plain—
We are taking you home by the only way.
By the only road that will get you back
To the dreams you left where the dusk was gray
And the night wind sang a longlost track;
We are bringing you rest From the bitter test,
From the pits where the great shells whir;
Through the blood loam
We are taking you home.

We are taking you home.

Metal Workers in

Paris Strike Today

Paris, June 2.—The Metal Workers in Paris, June 2.—The Metal Workers of decided to strike this morning be decided to strike this morn

RAILROAD VETS Personal--Social TO PICNIC AT MT.

HARRISBURG COM TELEGRAPH

GRETNA JULY 29

Philadelphia Division Asso ciation Will Elect William

Elmer President

The Veteran Employes' Associa

West Shore Masons

Captain T. E. Seelye

Promoted to Major

Railroad Notes

Army and Navy teams in the Rail-road "Y" drive will celebrate to-night at the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. A banquet will be one of the features. Pennsylvania railroad officials have given strict orders to give the best service possible on all excursion trains.

Broadway limited which was re

K. of C. Entertain Soldiers

tion of the Philadelphia division of Sullivan and Brown, popular selec-the Pennsylvania will hold its an-tions by the Shuey-Delone Orchestra, several stunts by a group of colored warriors, from Steelton, who have recently returned from overseas.

The following women prepared and served the luncheon: Mrs. H. Kerns, Mrs. Elscheid, Mrs. Russ, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Kaster, Mrs. McCalley, Mrs. Sheckard, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs.

the Pennsylvania will hold its annual outing and picnic at Mount Gretna on Tuesday, July 29, according to announcement of the committees to-day.

It is expected that this picnic will be the largest ever held by the association, whose membership is now more than 1,400. Veterans of the rail, from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, will attend. A band from Lebanon has been secured to furnish the music during the day.

The committee, with Charles T. Jones of this city, as chairman, is at work in completing plans to handle the crowd. H. J. Babb, the secretary of the association, is mapping out a program of entertainment, and it is expected that an aviator will be on the ground.

At the business meeting in the afternoon officers will be elected. William Elmer, the new superintendent of the Philadelphia division, will succeed F. W. Smith, Jr., as president of the Association. Mr. Smith became president of the organization when he was appointed superintendent of the division and was automatically relieved when Mr. Elmer succeeded him. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Polyclinic Hospital will meet to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Nurses' Home, 1524 North Second street, Mrs. Samuel Z. Shope, the president, will preside.

Bicycle Club Members Enjoy Picnic at Park

resident of the association. In the Committee of the interest of the association when he was appointed by the mer succeeded him.

The Susquehanna Bicycle Club of the West End held their second annual picnic at Paxtang Park on Saturday. Contests, games and athletic sports were enjoyed under the direction of a committee comprising the complete of the West End held their second annual picnic at Paxtang Park on Saturday. Contests, games and athletic sports were enjoyed under the direction of a committee comprising the complete of the West End held their second annual picnic at Paxtang Park on Saturday. Contests, games and athletic sports were enjoyed under the direction of a committee comprising the committee of the West End held their second annual picnic at Paxtang Park on Saturday. Contests, games and athletic sports were enjoyed under the direction of a committee committee committee committee of the West End held their second annual picnic at Paxtang Park on Saturday. Contests, games and athletic sports were enjoyed under the direction of a committee committee

McMorris.

The club is planning to hold a three days' bicycle ride to Lancaster some time during the early part of July.

Carlisle Couple Wed at Camp Hill Saturday

The marriage of Miss Sarah Eln Kelley and Daniel Mathias Timmens, both of Carlisle, was solemnized on Saturday at 12.30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Delensy, Market street, Camp Hill, Delensy, Market street, Camp Hill, the Rev. Dr. A. P. Stover, pastor of the Camp Hill Chuych of God, officiating. The ring ceremony was used. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley, of Carlisle, and is a popular member of the younger set at that place. The bridegroom served seventeen months overseas, receiving eight wounds and spending eight months in various hospitals. He has recovered sufficiently to take a course in electrical engineering offered by the government.

VISITING IN CITY
Miss Margaret E. King, 429 Hamilton street, and Miss Hope Eyster, 515 North Fifteenth street, government employes at Washington, are visiting at their home in this city. They will return to Washington, June 8.

HERE FROM HAWAII Edward Caum, a former resident of this city, who has spent the past ten years in the Hawaiian Islands, is the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Crane, 13 South Seventeenth street.

VISITING IN WEST
Mrs. John L. Rupp and daughter,
Miss Jeanne Rupp, 1930 Bellevue Road, left on Saturday for an extended trip through the West. They will visit in Chicago and Crystal Lake, Ill.

Broadway limited which was returned recently to the Pennsyl schedule has been tunning behind time. Engine trouble has been the chief cause of the delays.

The Pennsylvania railroad block station at Alfarata on the Petersburg branch has been re-opened. It was closed several months ago when a retrenchment was ordered and freight business slowed up.

On the Middle Division of the Pennsy on Friday, 8,232 cars were hauled. Of this number, 6,732 passed Denholm, and 1,600 were interchanged at Tyrone. pennsy on Friday, hauled. Of this number, 6,732 passed Denholm, and 1,600 were interchanged at Tyrone.

John A. Keeley, a widely-known railroad contractors died Saturday at his home in Philadelphia. One of the big contracts completed under his direction was the Schuylkill Valley branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad including the tunnel at Phoenixville.

Charles W. Shoemaker, yardmaster, of the Port Richmond branch of the Port Richmond branch of the Reading, died at his home in Philadelphia. He was 49 years of age and had been with the company for 15 years.

cause of difference with the employers over the method of applying the new eight-hour law. The Temps attimates that the strike will affect more than 200,000 workers.

And the night wind sang a long-lost track;
We are bringing you rest From the bitter test, From the bitter test, From the bitter test, From the bitter test, Through the blood loam We are taking you home.

We are taking you home to her.'

MRS. RACHEL DARE BAILEY Mrs. Rachel Dare Bailey, aged 27 years, widow of the late Ray Bailey, aged 27 years, widow of the ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Honored by Osteopaths

MRS. CHARLES E. MYERS
Mrs. Katherine Myers, aged 44 years, 125 Currant street, died last evenings. The survivors are a husband. Charles E. one son, John, and her mother. Mrs. Louisa Neis. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 1.30. Services will be in charge of the Rev. Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, of which the denamed in East Harrisburg cemetery.

JAMES THOMPSON James Thompson, of Wormleysburg, died at his home on Friday, aged 63 years. Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from y Musselman's Undertaking Parlors, Lemonth of the Derry Street United Brethern Church. Burial will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethern Church. Burial will be in the East Harrisburg cemetery.

Held MEMORIAL SERVICE At Fourth Reformed church yesterday morning, memorial services were held for ten members who died during the year. Two of their members grover C. Hain and I. W. Showers died during the World War, the latter was killed in France. The leath its also included George Hagy, a Civil War veteran. Other deceased members included, Mrs. Jonnie Martin, Mrs. Percy Flurie, George T. Burk, Veterans of three wars attended the services, Special music was a feature and the decorations were in keeping with the services. Each soldier who returned from France was given a large red rose, and for those still in France a rose was given to their respective families.

RETURNED FROM RACES. Harry M. Fairchilds and L. M. Showe both of Millaceburg.

rge red rose, and for those still in ance a rose was given to their receive families.

RETURNED FROM RACES
Harry M. Fairchilds and L. M. eep, both of Millersburg, remed to their homes after witness the auto-races at Indianapolis.

GET SAFELY HOME
Lieutenant John W. E. Phillips of the 33rd Division, and his brother, Private Samuel E. Phillips of the rivelenge to the private Samuel E. Phillips of the 3rd Division, and his brother, Private Samuel E. Phillips of the 3rd Division, and his brother, Private Samuel E. Phillips of the 3rd Division, and his brother, Private Samuel E. Phillips of the 3rd Division are home, each having the private Samuel E. Phillips of the 3rd Division are home, each having the private Samuel E. Phillips of the 3rd Division are home, each having received his discharge. Both were in the World War. They are sons of Dr. C. R. Phillips of the 3rd Division are home, each having received his discharge. Both were in the World War. They are sons of Dr. C. R. Phillips of the 3rd Division are home, each having received his discharge. Both were in the World War. They are sons of Dr. C. R. Phillips and Dr. C. R. Phillips of the private Samuel E. Phillips of the privat

RENNER COMPLAINS OF DELAY IN PACT

[Continued from First Page.]

At North Street Hall

Fifty of the convalescent soldiers from the United States General Hospital, No. 31, Carlisle, were the guests of the Knights of Columbus at the K. of C. Hall, North street, on Saturday. A luncheon was served at noon and the afternoon's program included a "Man and Piano," act by Sullivan and Brown, popular selections by the Shuey-Delone Orchestra, several stunts by a group of colored warriors, from Steelton, who have recently returned from overseas.

The following women prepared to the chateau where the various automobiles halted. Two squared such such colleges on the sidewalk. The conference hall was reached over a drawbridge war reached over a drawbridge war. A lied nations. Two narrow flights of stairs were mounted thence to the cremonial chamber. A few privileged spectators looked out upon the scene within the courtyard from the windows of the apartments occupied by James II after his determinent and flight from England.

Room Small For Ceremon Room Small For Ceremony
The room selected for the ceremony, known as the Stone Age or pre-historic hall, was almost entirely occupied by the conference table, arranged in a hollow rectangle, leaving scant room for the tables of the secretaries crowded against the wall and cramped space for a limited number of correspondents.

ents.

Chairs were placed for President Wilson and Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George at the head of the table, flanked on either hand by places for the other delegations which ran around three sides of the rectangle as in the ceremonial at Versailles when the peace terms were handed to the Germans. The foot of the table was reserved for Chanceller Renner and his six colleagues.

New Republic

May Delay Peace

the hills of the Sarre. This Province contains vast fields of coal and iron, great industrial cities and the cen-ters of the most important textile manufacturies in Germany.

American Ambassador to Japan, has reached Omsk and he reported to President Wilson. It appears that various Russian factions object to the terms said to have been proposed to Admiral Kolchak by the Peace Conference, and advices indicate that the head of the Omsk regime may ask for a modification of the conditions.

New Pastor in Charge;

Frankford Church Green Rev. Milton O. Petroc assumed his das pastor of the Frankford Research tions.

Ignace Jan Paderewski, Polish Premier, who is in Paris, has asked that an American commission investigate recent reports of mistreatment of Jews in Poland.

Germany Has Until June 25 to Accept or Reject Peace Treaty

Paris, June 2—(Havas).—The reply of the Allied and associated governments to the German counterproposals, the Echo De Paris declares, will be handed to Count Von Brockdorff-Rantzau on Friday. It will constitute a refusal of the German proposals. The Germans, the paper adds, will be told they must either accept or refuse the Allied conditions before June 25.

Miss Martha Fry Weds Vay Buterbaugh Friday

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Friday morning at 8 o'clock, when Miss Mart*a Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fry, 22 Seneca street, and Vay Buterbaugh, of this city, were united in marriage, at the parsonage of St. Matthews Lutheran Church, 2317 North Fourth street, the Rev. E. E. Snyder officiating. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit, with hat to harmonize, and a corsage bouquet of bridal roses. The bridegroom is a graduate of Central High School, class of 1908, and of Millersville Normal School. He is employed as a railroad mail clerk May Delay Peace

A situation which may affect the peace settlement with Germany has arisen through the proclamation of an independent republic of the Rhine Province, stretching along the frontiers of Holland, Belgium and Luzemburg and extending from the lowlands along the Dutch border 12 the hills of the Sarre. This Province manufacturies in Germany.

Expert on Express to Speak Before C. of C.

Announcement that such a declaration was to be made has been forecast for several weeks, reports from Belgium, Holland and Berlin reflecting the imminence of a move of great importance. Last week a statement was issued at Berlin denouncing those who were behind the movement and declaring them to be traitors to the fatherland. It was charged that the French were active in propaganda work in the Province, it being alleged that General Mangin, French commander at Mayence, was the prime mover.

If the Khineland Province becomes independent, a buffer state

Russ Recognition

Waits Upon Morris

Recognition of the all-Russian government at Omsk, headed by Admiral Kolchak, is expected to be delayed until Roland S. Morris,

TRANSFERRED TO CALIFORNIA Chambersburg, Pa., June 2.—
First Lieutenant Guy P. Asper, who before entering the army was a practicing physician here, has been transferred from Fort McPherson, Georgia, where he has been stationed for several months, to Camp Leatherman, California. He expects to be at Camp Leatherman for several weeks.

Frankford Church Greets Rev. Milton O. Peirce

I Charles de la

Philadelphia, June 2.—The Rev. Millard O. Peirce assumed his duties as pastor of the Frankford Baptist Church yesterday. Large congrega-tions welcomed him at all the serv-tions welcomed him at all the services. Mr. Peirce succeeds the Rev. Thatcher Smith, who was pastor for about two years and was compelled to return to California on account of the illness of his wife. The Rev. G. J. Burchett is pastor emeritus of the church.

The new pastor was born in Wilmington, Del., and received a public school education in that city. While pursuing his normal school training he took up the study of law. He entered Leland Stanford University and completed his training for the ministry at Colgate University. In 1916 he was chosen pastor of the Tabernacle Eaptist Church of Harrisburg and while there the membership of the church was almost doubled, while the Sunday school tripled.

Pennsylvania's Oldest Odd Fellow Is Dead

NBrownsville, Pa., June 2.—Daniel Delaney, 86 years old, the oldest Odd Fellow in Pennsylvania, died here at his home. He had been a member of the Odd Fellows for 66 years, and was secretary of the Brownsville chapter for 60 years. When he had been a member for 50 years his fellow lodge members presented him with a gold watch studded with 50 diamonds. Mr. Delaney took an active interest in local politics, and served as burgess, councilman, and as a member of the school board. He was born in Leeds, Yorkshire, England.

Many Killed in Fire in French Picture Show

By Associated Press.

Valence Sur Rhone, June 2.—
Fire broke out yesterday during the performance in a moving picture house here and a large number of persons were killed or injured. Early last evening the list of dead had reached eighty, the bodies of fifty-three children and twenty-one women having been found at that hour. One man succumbed to asphyxlation. The injuries of most of those taken from the building by firemen were slight. There were about one hundred of these.

WILLIAM H. BESHORE

of great importance. Last week a statement was issued at Berlin denouncing those who were behind the movement and declaring them to be traitors to the fatherland. It was charged that the French were active in propagands work in the Province, it being alleged that General Mangin, French commander at Mayence, was the prime mover.

If the Rhineland Province becomes independent, a buffer state will be set up between Germany and France and Belgium, the Sarre region will be in the control of the new state and Germany will have lost all her possessions west of the Rhine.

Russ Recognition

WILLIAM H. BESHORE
William H. Beshore, 48 years old, already a number of reservations have been made for the meeting. Reservations can be made at the office of the Chamber of Commerce until 9 o'clock chamber of Commerce states.

Mr. Conwell's fourteen years' experience with the large express concerns of the country qualifies hi mto speak with authority on the subject which he has selected. Sidelights on the Experience and Belgium, the Sarre region will be in the control of the new state and Germany will have lost all her possessions west of the Rhine.

Russ Recognition

WILLIAM H. BESHORE

William H. Beshore, 48 years old, already a number of reservations have been made for the meeting. Reservations can be made at the office of the Chamber of Commerce until 9 o'clock in the Polyclinic Hospital yesterday. He was a flagman on the Pennsyltons can be made at the office of the Chamber of Commerce until 9 o'clock in the Polyclinic Hospital yesterday.

Mr. Conwell's fourteen years' experience with the large express concerns of the country qualifies hi mto speak with authority on the subject which he had been an employe for twenty years.

Mr. Conwell's fourteen years' experience with the large express concerns of the country qualifies hi mto speak with authority on the subject which he had selected. Sidelights on the Experience and Belgium, the Sarre region will be in the control of the country qualifies hi mto speak with authority on the

Chamion Jess Willard's "Own Story" is printed every day in "The Philadelphia Press."

Which Woman is the Happier?

The One Who Buys, or the One Who Bakes

S there any logical reason why any woman should tie herself down to bread bakin these days of bread perfection? Her neighbor, who buys bread, saves this time for healthier and happier occupation.

Aren't there a hundred reasons of health, economy and home duties that demand her release from hours at the oven?

Baking isn't saving. It is waste - waste of energy and waste of money. Waste of youth and waste of health. It is mighty easy for any woman to convince herself. Just buy a loaf of

GUNZENHAUSER'S AMERICAN-MAID BREAD

Made in a masterly way, in an up-to-date bakery, from a new recipe. Its goodness will be a revelation. Its purity a protection. There is no substitute in it-just pure wheat flour. Sealed in dustproof wrappers at the oven. Delivered fresh, crisp and clean. Toasts perfectly—Slices smoothly—Tastes deliciously.

OPENING ANNOUNCEMENT Dauphin Tire Service Co. The newest and most modernly equipped retail tire and tire service establishment in

A Real Tire Service That Motorists Have Wanted

We will have but one policy-to give the best and most complete tire service in

We Will Carry a Complete Stock of

GOODRICH GOODYEAR FIRESTONE TIRES Fabric and Cord Types, and A Full Line of Tire Accessories Tire and Tube Vulcanizing — Repairing — Retreading

We solicit your patronage and guarantee satisfaction. Dauphin Tire Service Co.

206 N. Second Street Bell

Dial