MOTIVE POWER LEADS LEAGUE

Smashes West End, 6-1, With Buck Ramsey Pitching Against Stricker

LEAGUE STANDING Table with columns: Teams, W, L, Pct, Motive Power, West End, Commonwealth, Engineers and Firemen.

"Motive Power" is the right moniker for a bunch of heavy-weight ball tossers who decimated the West End team last evening at the Fourth and Seneca street park before a crowd so multitudinous that the steel cable which protects the field nearly gave way.

The fans got so jazzed up before the battle ceased, after seven seasons, and the score 6-1, that Edgar B. La Rue, separated himself from a fine, up-to-date bicycle in order to get closer to the melee.

When Howe got stranded at third, no one having the wallop to bring him home, many wept. Isaiah Reese, former of Round House No. 2, is said to have swallowed the butt of his ten-cent cigar in the agony.
