

DR. ROLLER CRACKS A RIB IN DEFEAT BY DRAAK; ROSEWOOD AND ENGINEERS-FIREMEN WIN

Dr. Roller Cracks a Rib in Tom Draak Defeat

It was a rattling, rattling wrestling match that Promoter Max Bauman presented at Chestnut Street Auditorium last night where the Netherlands-Belgian champion, Tom Draak, got the better of the eminent physician, Dr. B. F. Roller, who may have done his last bit of grappling, although celebrities such as he find it hard to quit public life. The occasion was marked by a number of odd features, some of them quite unpleasant, like the hissing of the big fellow, Tom Draak, who was sitting together within the wrestling rules when he fastened upon the Doctor an insidious crotch and head chancery hold, picked him up literally and tossed him down. The fact was that Draak, much younger than Roller, was in the very pink of condition, while the brave physician suffered a lacerated foot in the last time he wrestled here. It is likely that Roller will not appear again for a long time, although in the dressing room after the fray he promised to meet Draak if he wanted another go.

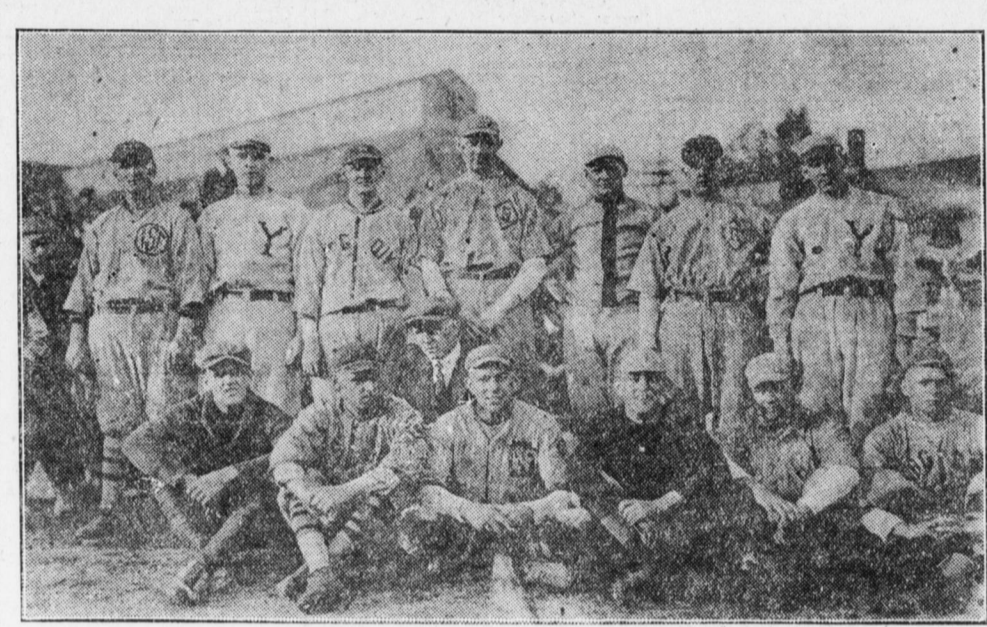

The big auditorium had much the appearance of a surgical clinic in session, for nearly a score of prominent physicians were at the ringside long before the wrestling started, all greeting Dr. Roller with great enthusiasm. The medical men noted included Dr. Douglas, Dr. Bowman, Dr. Parks, Dr. Culp, Dr. Green and Dr. Ridgway, of the State Hospital; Dr. Nissley, of Hummelstown, Dr. Galen Hayne, dentist, Dr. A. E. Ritzman, and others. Just before the big match started, Dr. Roller cast a glance of warm recognition at the arrival of Col. Edward Martin, head of the state Department of Health, who was a surgeon at the University

ROSEWOOD BEATS GALAHAD IN "STUNT" GAME

Rosewood and Galahad crowded a mixture of good and bad baseball into seven innings of play at the Allison Hill contest last evening that kept the fans heated up at all times, and when the contest was finally decided Rosewood was leading by a run. Score, 6 to 5. Some of the most remarkable stunts were pulled off at intervals. With two men on base in the last inning and two out, with Klerner at bat, Eph lifted a Texas leaguer back of third. "Snaps" Emanuel raced out to left field with his back to home plate and by some remarkable sprinting managed to clutch the ball for the close of the game. Had the Tech athlete muffed the fly it would have meant victory for Galahad. Lutz, the Galahad catcher gave the best exhibition of pegging to second, that has been seen on the Hill in many a day. Five times he made perfect throws to second to catch runners try to steal. He was the life of the Galahad crowd.

INDOOR SPORTS BIG FEATURE AT RAILROAD "Y"

Preliminary Plans Under Way For Basketball and Bowling Contests. Aspirants for basketball championships, and star bowlers will get all they look for next fall. It is yet too early to talk about these indoor sports, but none too soon for those interested in sports at the Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association. "Preparedness" is the slogan at the Railroad "Y," and they have started something.

Preliminary plans are already under way for the organization of basketball and bowling teams. There will be no offers for contests turned down once these sports are underway, except there be a scarcity of open dates.

To Meet All Corners. The Railroad "Y" sport backers have already served notice that when the cage teams are ready and the bowlers have stiffened up for the fall and winter work all corners will be met.
