HER MOTHER FINDS REAL BENEFACTOR

Mrs. Jennie Sather, 139 Melrose avenue, Lansdowne, a suburb of Philadelphia, tells how her mother met a real benefactor: "Mother suffered from diabetes, stomach trouble and a run-down system. She was very much weakened and showed symptoms of gastritis. A friend of mother's on Susquehanna avenue. Philadelphia, had the same complaint and recommended Tanlac to mother. Tanlac has done my mother so much good."

INTERESTING WAR TALKS

Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 6.— Last evening in the Methodist Episcopal Church addresses were made by F. M. Ross, a "Y" man with the
A. E. F., now at the United States General Hospital No. 31, Carlisle, and Lieutenant Merle E. Coover, of Carlisle, a member of Company I, One Hundred and Twelfth Regiment, Twenty-eighth Division. The former had as his subject, "With the Boys Over There," and gave an interesting and lucit talk on the work and conditions overseas. Lieutenant Coover, who rose from private in the ranks, to lieutenant, and won his promotion by hard work and meritorious conduct, talked splendidly and held the interest of the audience with his experiences and observations while he was on foreign soil fighting the Hun.
