

HERMAN-DEAL CHURCH WEDDING

Scarlet and White Peonies Decorate Market Square Church For Ceremony

In the presence of a large gathering of their friends, Miss Eleanor Grace Deal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Deal, 2229 North Second street, and Edward Rouse Herman, were united in marriage Thursday morning, June 5, at 10 o'clock, in the Market Square Presbyterian Church. Scarlet and white peonies made effective decorations for the altar. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes. The bride, whose costume was of dark blue cloth with small hat and corsage bouquet of orchids, was attended by Miss Greta Brown, of Oxford, as maid of honor, wearing a frock of palest gray with hat to harmonize and a corsage bouquet of violets and roses. A wedding breakfast and informal reception at the bride's home followed the service. Pink peonies and laurels were used throughout the house with beautiful effect.

Following an eastern wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Herman will make their home at 2229 North Second street.

Mrs. Herman was graduated with Central High school class of 1911

Celebrates Birthday With Supper For Friends

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Musser entertained at their home at Washington Heights last evening a small party of their friends in honor of Mr. Musser's birthday. Supper was served on the lawn and the evening was occupied with dancing and music. It chanced that the date was also the birthday of Rudolph K. Spicer, one of the guests, and both he and Mr. Musser were remembered with automobile thermos and sandwich sets.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Reinhold, Mr. and Mrs. J. William Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Crowell, M. and Mrs. James P. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Steinmetz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Stevens, Captain and Mrs. George F. Lumb, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph K. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Dowdell, Frank E. Musser, Misses Gertrude and Cassandra Musser and Andrew Musser.

School of Spanish Ends Fourth Year

The Harrisburg School of Spanish, in Second and State streets, has just completed its fourth year of successful work, under the leadership of Mrs. Melvin Menges, president and instructor of the institution. Nearly all of the students enrolled are taking the course in preparation for the opportunities that will be opened for them in Central and South America, by the Government, when plans for closer relations with those countries have been completed.

Mrs. Menges will leave for Illinois next week, for a brief rest, and on her return will open a summer course for which registration has already begun.

Federation of Industrial Clubs of the Y. W. C. A. Holds Its Banquet Last Evening

The Federation of Industrial Clubs of the Y. W. C. A. held a banquet last evening in the cafeteria of the Association Building, with 139 girls, club leaders, and committee members present. Masses of spring flowers, filled the room with fragrance, large vases of honeysuckle, roses, and peonies, graced the tables on which sprays of green were artistically arranged, while gay butterflies, poised as for flight, gave a summer time touch to the cleverly combined menus and programs. Miss Frances Acuff headed the committee in charge of the decorations. A group of girls from the High School Club served as waitresses. They were the Misses Mary Bright, Mary Katherine Shope, Eleanor Klemm, Luella Fentz, Isabelle Smith, Helen Myers, Lyvrie Hamm and Verna Hughes. Miss Betty Brown was pianist for the occasion.

Miss White the Bride of Chester Businessman

Mrs. Howard Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. White, of Chester, was married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday afternoon, June 5, at 4 o'clock, by the Rev. Albany Sidney Smith, of Massachusetts. Only members of the two families and a few friends attended. Mountain laurel was used in decorating, and after the ceremony refreshments were served.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dainty frock of white Georgette and a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas, forget-me-nots and Victory blossoms. The attendants were Miss Effie Bell as maid of honor, and Dr. Fred Knaus, of Chester, as best man. Miss Elizabeth Hoeler, of Chester, the bride's niece, was flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer will make their home in Chester where he is stationed after a wedding trip to the seashore.

Sunshine Society Dines Soldiers From Hospital

Lieutenant Swartz, with 24 wounded men from the General Army Hospital at Carlisle, were brought to the city yesterday and were guests of the Sunshine Society at dinner in the Civic Club. One of the motor messenger corps assisted in the journey. Rutherford catered for the chicken dinner and during the feasting Miss Catharine Dubbs sang with Miss Marie Jehle at the piano and later some of the men danced.

In the afternoon the men were guests of the Sunshiners at the Majestic. After the vaudeville show they returned to the Civic Club and were laden with flowers, home-made cake, fruit, cigars, cigarettes and pretzels for the shut-ins at the hospital from the Sunshiners.

Those serving were Mrs. Frederick E. Downes, president of the organization; Mrs. Homer Black, Mrs. Joseph L. Shearer, Jr., Mrs. John S. Boas, Mrs. William E. Seel, Mrs. George E. Whitney, Mrs. Charles Dubbs, Mrs. Carrie Campbell, Mrs. E. Fred Rowe, Miss Mildred Astrich.
