Mangin Prohibits Strikes Against the Rhenish Republic. Berlin, June 6.—A proclamation by General Mangin, commander of the French army of occupation at Mayence, forbidding strikes against the Rhenish republic and threatening leaders of any such movements with expulsion, is published in the Frankfurt Gazette.

The Rhinelanders have been discussing the interests of their fatherland for the last six months without disturbing public order, the proclamation says, "but now the German government threatens them with imprisonment. They have created a republic within the German empire and have sought the right of election, in which they will have complete freedom. There is nothing in their procedure which might occasion protests or strikes, which disturb order and economic life."

BERLIN EAGER TO RETAIN HER CAPITAL STATUS. Citizens Meet and Protest Against Efforts to Strip the City.

Berlin, June 7.—A huge meeting was held here to-day to protest against the efforts to strip Berlin of its status as a capital. Mayor Wermuth and several others painted Berlin as a world city of art, a city for visitors and a city of the future. Despite its present smuttness, crime and disorder, they said, Berlin will regain its reputation as the cleanest, safest and best governed city in the world. Wermuth said that further disturbances would bring agony, and urged all to work to improve conditions.

Will Call Nation-Wide Strike of the Telegraphers.

Washington, June 7.—President S. J. Koenekamp, of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, announced last night that he would call a nation-wide strike of members of the union upon reaching Chicago to-day. He said that neither the date of the proposed walkout nor whether it would affect both the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company and the Western Union Telegraph and Cable Company had been decided.

Boys Find Soldier Drowned in Marsh Creek; Was Gassed Overseas.

Gettysburg, Pa., June 7.—Raymond Hershey, son of Mrs. Abraham Hershey, and a soldier just returned from France, was drowned in Marsh Creek about four miles from town. Hershey had been in France eight months as a member of a motor transport outfit and had been busy taking materials up to the front a few days before the armistice was signed. He was gassed and about two months ago sent back home, where he has since been under treatment at the government hospital at Carlisle.
