

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

FARMERS WANT LAW REPEALED

York and Adams Agriculturists Regard Daylight Saving Hostile to Their Interests

York, Pa., June 9.—Congressman Edward S. Brooks, of this city, declares that farmers of York and Adams counties, are adding their voices to the clamor for the repeal of the daylight saving law and he has received many letters and petitions calling upon him to lend his influence in securing the repeal.

Scene at Irving College May Day Fete

CENTRAL PA. PERSONALS

Hummelstown Mrs. L. E. Broenniman, of New York City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Minnie Killough. Mrs. Lucy Fetterman and Miss Helen Seitzinger, of Fountain Springs, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Fetterman.

Change in Dedication Date of Gettysburg Monuments

Gettysburg, Pa., June 9.—For the third time the date has been changed for the dedication of the Hayes, Humphreys and Geary monuments on the Gettysburg battlefield, and by the decision not to have the ceremonies on the first of July leaves the committee without a set day for the event.

YOUNG SOLDIER DROWNED

Gettysburg, Pa., June 9.—Because he was evidently alone at the time no definite information can be gathered by the family or friends as to the cause of the drowning of Raymond Hershey in March Creek Friday evening.

RE-ELECTED SUPERVISOR

Liverpool, Pa., June 9.—Miss Puera B. Robison, formerly primary teacher of the public school of this borough has been re-elected supervisor of the Junior School and instructor in Bible I at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, which position Miss Robison has held during the past year.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Chambersburg, Pa., June 9.—Franklin County Farm Agent and Mrs. Joseph S. Oberle and young son received slight injuries in an automobile accident which occurred along the State road near Carlisle.

REUNION OF CATTLEMEN

Blain, Pa., June 9.—The annual cattlemen's reunion, composed of farmers from Cumberland, Franklin and Perry counties, will be held on Friday on the "old Sattling grounds" in Three Square Hollow, on the main road leading to Cumberland county, from New Germantown, Perry county. The picnic will be an all-day affair and a basket dinner will be served at 12 o'clock.

LATE NEWS OF CUMBERLAND VALLEY

SMALLPOX VICTIM MOTHER OF BABY

Girl Born While Mrs. Samuel Baker Is Ill With Disease at Waynesboro

Waynesboro, Pa., June 9.—A baby girl has been born to Mrs. Samuel Baker, Beck's Row, this city. Mrs. Baker is a victim of smallpox, but her condition, as well as that of the infant, is very encouraging to the physician who has charge of the case.

ORATORICAL CONTEST HONORS

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—Camp Hill and Carlisle students won honors in the freshman oratorical contest. Fifteen members participated. The judges were Dr. Edward Soper, Dr. Morris W. Prince and Dr. H. H. Montzner.

NOON LUNCHEON SPEAKER

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—William B. Colver, chief of the Federal Trade Commission, will be the speaker at the final noon luncheon of the 1918-1919 series to be held Wednesday.

AGAINST SUNDAY BALL

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—Carlisle ministers have adopted resolutions protesting against the Sunday baseball games which are being played by the United States General Hospital team and nines from other centers.

MERCERSBURG

Miss Rosa Keith, head nurse at the Mercersburg Academy, is spending the summer vacation at her home at Barre.

ANNVILLE

Master Raymond Smith, of South Bethlehem, is spending some time with his grandfather, John Bender.

EDWARD A. REDDEL BURIED

Sunbury, Pa., June 9.—Edward A. Reddel, aged 60, a Pottsville attorney, and father of Mrs. Charles W. Clement, wife of Sunbury's Chief Burgess, was buried at Pottsville yesterday.

K. of M. ANNIVERSARY

Waynesboro, Pa., June 9.—King David Commandery, Knights of Malta, will observe its eighteenth anniversary Tuesday evening.

YINGLING-MENTZER WEDDING

Waynesboro, Pa., June 9.—Paul G. Yingling and Miss Margaret L. Mentzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mentzer, were married in the First Brethren church on Friday evening.

INJURED ON SHIP

Lewistown, Pa., June 9.—Houtz Ferguson, of Milroy, has received a letter telling him that his son, George, a fireman on the George Washington, formerly the German ship Vaterland, fell down a hatchway on board the ship and was seriously injured.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF SON

Liverpool, Pa., June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wenik of Market Square, announce the birth of a son, Friday, June 6, 1919.

SIXTEEN WILL GET DIPLOMAS

Announcement of Qualified Graduates at Dickinson Is Made by Dean Trickett

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—Sixteen men will receive their diplomas from the Dickinson School of Law when the combined commencement exercises of the College and School of Law are held two weeks from to-day.

PLEASURE FOR 14 SOLDIERS

Convalescents From Carlisle Hospital Guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Grant Mohler

Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. M. Grant Mohler entertained fourteen convalescent soldiers from the United States General Army Hospital No. 31, Carlisle, yesterday afternoon at their home, Sunnyside, in the eastern section of town.

CARLISLE FAIR GROUNDS SOLD

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—Carlisle is increasing in importance as an industrial center through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce. A New York dress concern was so favorably impressed with the advantages here that they have closed a lease for a building and will begin the manufacture of silk dresses within two weeks.

YOUNGEST COUPLE MARRIED

Hagerstown, Md., June 9.—The youngest couple on record here, Miss Mattie Mae Eckstine, a schoolgirl aged fifteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Eckstine, and Roy Blickenstaff, aged sixteen, were married last evening at Chesapeake by the Rev. R. S. Ernst, pastor of the United Brethren Church.

Locusts Invade Orchards in Maryland Fruit Section

Hagerstown, Md., June 9.—The advance guard of an army of seven-year locusts due to invade the country has reached this section and are becoming a menace to the peach orchards and other fruit trees in the South Mountain fruit belt.

PHYSICIAN INJURED

Mercersburg, Pa., June 9.—Dr. B. Emerson Nevin, while leaving the home of one of his patients, slipped on a step and fractured his left leg. Dr. Nevin was recently discharged from the United States Medical Corps. He is the attending physician at the Mercersburg Academy.

PLEASURE FOR 14 SOLDIERS

Convalescents From Carlisle Hospital Guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Grant Mohler

Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. M. Grant Mohler entertained fourteen convalescent soldiers from the United States General Army Hospital No. 31, Carlisle, yesterday afternoon at their home, Sunnyside, in the eastern section of town.

CARLISLE FAIR GROUNDS SOLD

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—Carlisle is increasing in importance as an industrial center through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce. A New York dress concern was so favorably impressed with the advantages here that they have closed a lease for a building and will begin the manufacture of silk dresses within two weeks.

YOUNGEST COUPLE MARRIED

Hagerstown, Md., June 9.—The youngest couple on record here, Miss Mattie Mae Eckstine, a schoolgirl aged fifteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Eckstine, and Roy Blickenstaff, aged sixteen, were married last evening at Chesapeake by the Rev. R. S. Ernst, pastor of the United Brethren Church.

Locusts Invade Orchards in Maryland Fruit Section

Hagerstown, Md., June 9.—The advance guard of an army of seven-year locusts due to invade the country has reached this section and are becoming a menace to the peach orchards and other fruit trees in the South Mountain fruit belt.

PHYSICIAN INJURED

Mercersburg, Pa., June 9.—Dr. B. Emerson Nevin, while leaving the home of one of his patients, slipped on a step and fractured his left leg. Dr. Nevin was recently discharged from the United States Medical Corps. He is the attending physician at the Mercersburg Academy.

Constable Arrests Soldier For Old Misdemeanor

Northumberland, Pa., June 9.—Victor Koble, Sunbury's high constable, truant officer, and official dog catcher, caused the arrest of Private Albert Mengle, of the One Hundred and Third Ammunition Train, Twenty-eighth Division, for an infraction of a borough ordinance he committed when he rode a bicycle on the sidewalk more than two years ago, but found out that he could not do anything because the law says a person cannot be held for misdemeanor after two years.

Taxpayers Confer With Commissioners on Road

Waynesboro, Pa., June 9.—A large delegation of Quincy township taxpayers will go to Chambersburg tomorrow for a conference with the county commissioners with reference to the Quincy road proposition, the delegation to be augmented by a number of Waynesboro businessmen, who have a vital interest in the road.

INCREASE IN WAGES

Mercersburg, Pa., June 9.—Workmen in the W. D. Byron & Sons tanneries were given another increase in pay this week. The ordinary workmen were given an increase of one dollar a week. The hands that operate in the beam shop were given an increase of three dollars per week. This tannery employs 150 men.

PHYSICIAN INJURED

Mercersburg, Pa., June 9.—Dr. B. Emerson Nevin, while leaving the home of one of his patients, slipped on a step and fractured his left leg. Dr. Nevin was recently discharged from the United States Medical Corps. He is the attending physician at the Mercersburg Academy.

Advertisement for Bellans for indigestion and Furry's for indigestion, featuring images of the products and a small illustration of a person.

Large advertisement for Velvet Tobacco featuring a large image of a cigarette pack and a testimonial from a soldier: "We just mopped 'em up" "Those boys didn't know what retreat meant. And, pep! Say, every mother's son charged as tho' he was the whole American Army. It was the proudest moment of my life." More than 32,871,000 tins of VELVET Tobacco were sent to the boys in France—enough, if placed end to end, to reach 2340 miles, or nearly from New York to Brest. How much it helped them, their friendly letters testify. VELVET makes friends easily—because, like true friendship, it has been allowed to ripen naturally. For two years, VELVET ages in wooden hogsheads, and when it comes out it is just right—no kick, no bite, no harshness. You and VELVET—begin that friendship now. Roll a VELVET Cigarette Nature-aged mildness and smoothness make VELVET "just right" for cigarettes. 45 Cigarettes for 15c. Ligt & Myers Tobacco Co.

Advertisement for Post Toasties cereal, featuring an illustration of a boy and the text: "Keep Cool Don't Cook says Bobby What's the use when you can have POST TOASTIES"