The great mind knows the power of gentleness. Only tries force because persuasion fails.

THE RED MEN

THE Red Men of Pennsylvania are with us again—thanks, it is to be imagined, to the influence and persuasive oratory of Prothonotary Charles E. Pass, who is as popular in the order abroad as he is with the folks here at home.

THE "Y" NEEDS HELP

THE Y. M. C. A. of Harrisburg is doing a big work—much bigger than many suppose. But its field is wider than the present scope of its activities.

JUDGES, MEET LAWYERS

EX-JUDGE A. M. BEITLER is out in a statement bowwaling the pro-concentration of the activities of the Supreme and Superior Courts in Harrisburg.

REASONABLE SUGGESTION

A WRITER in the American Farm Journal suggests that the way to settle the differences of opinion between the farm and the town dweller on the subject of daylight saving, is to have city and country time legalized by Congress.

fitting up and down the State, have been so accustomed to directing the enactment of laws in their own interests and for their own convenience that they should naturally assume that what is for their interest must be for the interest of all the people.

Harrisburg is the natural and proper place for the sitting of the high courts and it is the duty of the Legislature to give the same consideration to the pending measures for the concentration of the two courts here as has been given the other bills providing for the concentration of other activities of the Commonwealth on Capitol Hill.

Politics in Pennsylvania

Mr. Beitler's most touching appeal is to the effect "that the judges should have the opportunity of meeting members of the bar from different sections of the State," because, as he suggests, "such contact probably would make them broader men than they would be if residing permanently at Harrisburg."

A POPULAR SENTIMENT

HERBERT HOOVER, just returned from abroad, voices public sentiment in this country when he says: "I do not take it we will finance any more wars in Europe, directly or indirectly, nor that I will provide money to enable the people of Europe to live with us as at present all over Europe."

LET'S HELP "BOB" LYON

LET'S help "Bob" Lyon put the Boy Scout campaign over the Harrisburg this week. All the Scouts ask 1,000 associate members at a dollar each, and the money will go to help bring Scouting to the boys who most need it.

Young Heroes at Oxford

The returning hero, fresh from battle fields, will no longer rush to Oxford with the zest of young barbarians at their play. To one who may wear the ribbon of the Military Cross or the D. S. O., the position of the tender boat in the eight canoes is a matter of life and death.

Pride of Home Owner

"That little place yonder, in the blossoms, where trees wave welcome—that's my home." It is the true home maker—the home lover—who says that.

Blessing the People

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise shall you bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

of daylight, for the reason that thereby he is enabled to have a home garden and work it after hours, and that he has time for recreation with his family by daylight when he does not wish to work his garden. He accuses the farmer of trying to grab the additional hour of daylight in order to deprive him of the opportunity of raising his own garden truck, but that is hardly fair.

LITERARY NOTES

THE limited edition of "Cynthia," the third volume in the uniform edition of the novels of Leonard Merrick which is being brought out by E. P. Dutton & Co., was practically all sold out in advance of its publication last week.

Human Kindness in Business

RISKING the danger of being classed with the sentimental sisters and oily-voiced brothers who talk tringly of sunshine and joy, and pat you on the back while doing it, we are going to use our back cover space this month to remind you again that there is human kindness in business and warm, red, human blood in the veins of corporation people.

The Suffrage Amendment

THE triumph of the suffrage amendment in the Senate yesterday does not give the women of the United States the ballot. The states must ratify the action before the amendment is complete.

One Reason

ONE reason Germany lost the war was because her government was so Krupp.

WONDER WHAT A BASS THINKS ABOUT?

GEE I'VE HAD A DULL DAY— I'M AS HUNGRY AS A WOLF TOO— I WEIGHED MYSELF TODAY AND I'M JUST THREE POUNDS

I'VE LOST A LITTLE WEIGHT AT THAT— I COULD PUT UP A GOOD BATTLE— HULLO WHAT'S THAT?!

GOSH THAT'S ONE OF THOSE FUNNY THINGS MEN DRAG AROUND IN THE LAKE ALL DAY— THEY'RE VERY VERY PRETTY— WONDER WHAT THE IDEA IS.

—WELL NOW! IF HERE AIN'T A WORM! I'M KINDA 'SPICIOUS ON ACCOUNT OF THE SHAPE— SOMETHING TELLS ME TO LAY OFF— MY SISTER GOT HOOKED ON ONE ONCE—

—THESE WORMS ARE TREACHEROUS LITTLE BEASTS— I'VE A NOTION TO TAKE A NIBBLE AT IT—

WOULDJA IF YOU WERE ME?

AH-HAH— I HEAR A VOICE— IT'S A MAN AND HE'S CURSING SOME-THING AW-WFUL—

NOT— FOR— ME!

Seven Seas and Your Day's Work

ONCE more American business possesses a great merchant marine. Our market-place becomes—the world, and we share the commerce of the world with our distant peoples and far-off lands.

THE uttermost ends of the earth come to our breakfast tables and our desks. For your table, you pay a high price because bandits in Western China have held up the supply of sun-dried food.

His day by day interests outdo the romance of Cervantes and surpass the adventures of Marco Polo. Once again, America thrills to watch a new clipper ride the waves.

The Hoodoo That Won

IN the general chorus of praise for the famous seaplane NC-4, first aircraft to cross the Atlantic, most people have overlooked or forgotten the fact that the NC-4 was a "hoodoo ship."

Angles of Modern England

On a golden shore in Lincolnshire, many miles from railway or town, a not more than a mile, she was straight, with blue eyes, tall and fair hair, and thin lips, making a firm, not cruel, mouth.

Well Known People

Representative Willis J. Hullings, of Oil City, who was a major general in the Pennsylvania National Guard, has five sons in the military service.

By BRIGGS

While a good many people are getting nervous over the appearance of the seventeen-year-old locusts in this section of the State, Professor J. G. Sanders, the State zoologist, who is in charge of the investigation of the State Plant Industry Bureau, says there is no occasion to grow excited.

When the locusts commence to jazz around, as they have been doing in some sections of this county and Cumberland, the only thing is to kill as many as possible and feed them to the chickens. As far as the researches of the folks at the Capitol are concerned, no one has ever experimented with them as an article of diet here, although such facts as announced by a Baltimore professor who ate some and declared that they were edible and not unpleasant, are well known.

There is very little time for the coal dredgers even on Sundays. The steamers and the barges have been on the jump the last three Sundays and on many occasions the dredgers have been turned out in approved Western style and the men in charge camped just as they do on the plains, although they said that the electric lights were not as soothing as the stars and the railroad trains and trolley cars more disturbing than coyotes.

Well Known People

Prothonotary Charles E. Pass is one of the few men who have attended every meeting of the State organization of the Red Men in this city. Harrisburg was the first meeting for the Red Men to meet, but the first meetings were rather long ago.
