RED MEN MARCH IN COLORFUL PAGEANT

Thousands in Brilliant Uniforms of Old-Time Chiefs and Wapaint of the Trailing Indian Join in the Big Parade

BLARE OF MANY BANDS ENTERTAINS CROWDS

Overhanging clouds had no effect on to-day's parade of Red Men, the big feature of the seventieth annual meeting of the tribes. Nearly two score tribes and several thousand visitors took part in the pageant or on the reviewing lines.

Prizes offered for the largest tribe, finest costumes, best float and for the tribe coming the longest distance won a large retrospective of Red Men. They came from the four corners of the State, most of the tribes bringing their own bands.

Pageant Well Handled Arrangements for the big event were so well looked after that there was no delay in formation of the parade and the big procession moved promptly. Heading this great pageant was a platoon of police.

Warrior Chiefs in Line The Great Chiefs division, included the Great Council of the United States, Board of Great Council, Chiefs and the Great Council of Pennsylvania. They rode in automobiles and included the largest number of Great Chiefs of the Great Council.

There were four divisions, each with its own band of music, and a marshal and aids. The costumes ranged from the elaborately beaded and spangled chieftains to the wapaint of the aborigine. The Harrisburg tribesmen made a splendid showing.

PENROSE WOULD SEPARATE LEAGUE FROM PEACE PACT

Senate Has Power to Declare War at End to Resume Business

Senator Penrose to-day heartily indorsed the action of Senator Philander C. Knox in introducing a resolution in the United States to sever the League of Nations from the Peace Treaty.

The Senator said he believed the resolution would receive the support of a majority of the Republican members of the Senate.

He took the stand that the United States should make "no entangling alliances" with European nations, but should keep itself free to act at any time in "defense of civilization."

"I emphatically indorse the proposition set forth in the resolution introduced yesterday in the United States Senate by Senator Knox," said the Senator.

"I have always taken the ground that the proposition of the League of Nations should not have been permitted to get mixed up with the proposition of peace terms.

"By all means let it be eliminated from the treaty. Then let the Treaty be further amended if necessary and promptly acted upon by the Senate.

"If necessary the Senate can pass a resolution declaring that the war is at an end and re-establishing trade relations with the Central Powers.

"It is sufficient for us to declare as set forth in Senator Knox's resolution that in the event of a recurrence of conditions that caused the United States to enter the war the United States will join with its present Allies in fighting for the defense of civilization."

SENATOR FRANK A. SMITH Chief Marshal of To-day's Parade of Pennsylvania Red Men from the elaborately beaded and spangled chieftains to the wapaint of the aborigine. The Harrisburg tribesmen made a splendid showing.

Each tribe tried to outdo the other in an elaborate display of Indian costumes, and the judges found it difficult to decide the winners of prizes. They viewed the parade at three different points on the route.

FINAL PLANS ARE BEING MADE FOR SCHOOL OUTING

Harrisburg Telegraph to Be Host to Thousands of Youngsters

Mr. Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., co-Harrisburg Telegraph, Harrisburg, Pa. My Dear Mr. Stackpole—At a meeting of the Board of School Directors the Board most heartily endorsed the proposition of the school children of the grammar grades on Friday, June 20.

In endorsing the proposition, they expressed their thanks to the Telegraph for its kindness and consideration in arranging this event, which, without doubt, will give a great deal of pleasure to the children attending. Very truly yours, D. D. Hammelbaugh, Secretary.

June 20 will be a big day for the young and old in Harrisburg, for the Telegraph picnic to Paxtang Park beginning to be dotted with all kinds of news and uncommon features which are sure to contribute to a delightful recreation.

Prizes! Go! Go! There will be all kinds of trophies, from a china chocolate set for the lady teacher who makes the best sewing record to a huge Teddy bear for the small prizewinner. To the champion in track and field events alone there is a purse ready to buy $100 worth of rewards, and exactly what will be the premium for the best speller in Harrisburg has not yet been decided. The old-fashioned spelling bee will be under the management of Prof. J. J. Brehm, who aims to make it a greater success than the one projected at the last Telegraph picnic.

Dinner was served to the men at the Penn-Harris Hotel, where speeches were made by Preston Crowell and George F. Lumb, of this city, and Guy Gundecker, of Philadelphia.

60,000 KEYMEN ON STRIKE BY NIGHT, LEADER PREDICTS

Carlton, Western Union Chief, Claims Wide Movement Is Complete Failure

500 QUIT JOBS AT CHICAGO Pickets and Workers Clash in Telegraph Offices in West Today

ONLY THREE ON STRIKE

Only three Harrisburg men joined the telegraphers in striking to-day, according to reports made by operating officials of the Western Union, the Postal Telegraph and the American Telegraph and Telephone Company.

These three were employed by the Postal. Two keymen and one clerk quit the Postal Telegraph company announced that it was getting its messages through with very little trouble.

Chicago, June 11.—Conflicting claims of union leaders and officers of telegraph companies made uncertain at noon to-day the extent of the nation-wide strike of telegraph operators, but representatives of the workers maintained that the number of strikers would reach 60,000 by nightfall.

"We are operating one hundred per cent," declared an official of the Western Union. "Two thousand seven hundred workers will be on the streets by night in this district," said E. J. Koenekamp, international president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America.

The State Employment Service is doing much to find employment for the unemployed of this city and surrounding territory, is indicated in the report of the activities of the Harrisburg office, issued to-day by Jacob Lightner, director of the employment bureau of the Department of Labor and Industry.

A total of 399 persons were placed in various positions during the week, according to the statistics issued. But 58 persons of the 457 who applied, did not receive jobs. There were 33 additional openings, but none of those who were not registered last week were qualified.

HUNDREDS GET JOBS WITH AID OF STATE BUREAU

Employment Service Places Nearly All Who Register For Work DEMAND FOR MEN HEAVY

Records For the Week Indicate the Nation Is Prosperous

The efforts of the State Service has done much to aid Harrisburg in meeting its problem of supplying work to returned soldiers. Of the 399 persons placed during the week, 241 were soldiers. But 22 of the 263 who applied during the week, were unemployed on Monday of this week. In addition to the soldiers placed, employment was found for 101 civilians and 57 women.

Employment of every kind was found for the discharged Yanks. It is a notable fact that but 52 of the soldiers were laborers, while many others were placed in highly skilled positions. Watchmakers, designers, chemists, draughtsmen and other skilled workmen were included among those who were placed. Steel workers, machinists, printers and others were found among the soldiers who were seeking work.

The male civilians were placed in positions, somewhat less diversified. Of the total, 81 were laborers. Among the women, two trained nurses were placed as were some skilled sewers.

STOCK WILDWOOD WITH GAME FISH IS SPORTSMAN'S PLEA

Plan Advanced Would Rid Beauty Spot of Worthless Carp, Which Prey Upon Young

Removal of carp from Wildwood Lake and the placing of other varieties of fish therein, would furnish unexcelled fishing waters for fishermen of this territory, according to the plans advanced by one enthusiastic Isaak Walton to-day.

The carp, contained in the lake in large numbers, prevent the propagation of other varieties of fish and are practically the only serious drawback to high class fishing in the waters of the lake. Their removal, and the stocking of the lake with other fish will meet with the hearty approval of Harrisburg's ardent fishermen, it was explained by the plan's supporter.

When Mr. Root was asked if he thought President Wilson had acted wisely in his course, he replied: "I think no damage could have been done," replied Mr. Root, "unless it was through withdrawing the attention of the Senate from the various other important matters awaiting action."

ROOT LAYS BARE TREATY LEAK TO SENATE PROBERS

Former Secretary of State Tells Committee Red Cross Chief Brought It Over

DEFENDS ITS PUBLICITY Resents Suggestion of Being Possessor of Stolen Goods; Lodge Saw Root Copy

Washington, June 11.—Elihu Root to-day told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that it was he who showed a copy of the Peace Treaty to Senator Lodge.

Mr. Root testified that he got it from Henry P. Davison of the Morgan banking house. Mr. Davison testified that he got it from Thomas W. Lamont, another partner in the Morgan house, one of the financial advisers to the American Peace Mission in Paris, but asked for it not in his capacity as a banker, but as president of the International Red Cross League which is backed by the covenant of the League of Nations.

Chairman Lodge read a telegram from Jacob Schiff, saying he knew "absolutely nothing, directly or indirectly," regarding the Treaty. He then called Mr. Root to the chair.

"I have a copy of that so-called Treaty," he said, "for several weeks." Mr. Root said, "It was sent to me by H. P. Davison. I stand upon my right to have it. I assert the entire propriety of his giving it to me. He had it because of his legitimate interests in the Red Cross, involved in the treaty."

Mr. Root said he understood Mr. Davison had the copy in Paris in connection with Red Cross affairs and brought it away with him, there being at that time no injunction against bringing copies to the United States.

Mr. Root remarked that the German government had made the treaty public in detail, adding that the Harrisburg office, issued to-day by Jacob Lightner, director of the employment bureau of the Department of Labor and Industry.

"I should be inclined to resent any suggestion from anybody that I am not entitled to it and to use it as I see fit which I propose to do."

"Mr. Davison's possession was no matter of idle curiosity, but of official duty on the part of the man who is handling the great business and giving his great powers to organization and execution of the great Red Cross activities."

"I feel a sense of strong resentment to feel such a suggestion from any source," Mr. Root answered. "Nothing could be made baseless than such a suggestion."

"There was nothing material in the copy I had not seen in the papers," Mr. Root added. He said he believed secrecy was not imposed until after Mr. Davison left Paris.

"I think you will find that the men who left Paris before May 15 all brought their copies with them," he said. "Probably three thousand men, he added were engaged in drawing the complete terms."

Mr. Root said he was obliged to Mr. Davison because he was deeply interested in a topic it was more convenient to study from the printed copy. He thought the United States had 1,400 men on the payroll at Paris and of those probably 200 or 300 had copies of the treaty.

Senator Harding remarked that some newspapers were saying the treaty text did not correspond in some respects with the summary.

"I didn't notice anything which I thought especially important which was not in the summary," replied Mr. Root. The copy he saw was dated April 30 and bore the imprint of "Home Labor Organization."

GERMANY TO LEARN SHE CANNOT GUIDE HER OLD COLONIES

Powers Are Determined Enemy Shall Not Exercise Mandate As Petitioned; World Peace Appearing Nearer

FRENCH PREMIER IS FIRM FOR UNBENDING POLICY IN PACT

Paris, June 11.—The reply to the German counter-proposals agreed upon by the Peace Conference heads refuses the German request for a mandate for the former German colonies.

The reparations portion of the reply, which has reached the printer, does not fix the total sum which the Germans must pay. The text of the treaty itself is not changed, but the reply contains assurances to Germany regarding the method of the reparations process, explaining that it is a workable arrangement.

President Wilson fought strenuously to include a fixed total sum in the reparations clause and the close of the discussion leaves him unchanged, it is said, in the belief that that is the best plan.

It is understood, however, that the President said that inasmuch that Premier Clemenceau had insisted to the contrary and also that he had signed the original draft, he would sign the reply as formulated.

There is some discussion in general conference circles whether a plenary session will be called to consider the reply to the German counter proposals or whether the Big Four will send it directly to Versailles without reference to other nations.

Official announcement was made after the meeting of the Council of Four yesterday that there was hope of a comparatively early decision on the reply to Germany. It was said an agreement in principle had been reached on the reparations clauses to the effect that no definite sum to be paid by Germany would be fixed in the Treaty and that the question would be left virtually as in the original draft.

In French circles it is stated that the Treaty, as again submitted to the Germans, would be much less altered than had been generally supposed. The determination of France not to consent to any material changes in the Treaty was clearly defined after the meeting of the Council of Four.

In spite of the attempt to speed up the work of the Peace Conference reports are still unavailable from commissions dealing with Schleswig-Holstein, the eastern boundaries of Germany, the Belgian frontier and waterways and harbors. The fluid state of the proceedings makes it difficult to accept the optimistic statements of various members of delegations that an agreement on the reply to the German

PAYS PRESIDENT'S TAXES

Los Angeles—George A. Fox, convicted of obtaining money by false pretense, prevented the sale of President Wilson's farm land in Riverside county for delinquent taxes by paying them himself. GOMPERS GIVES VIEWS ON BOOZE

Atlantic City.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, said to-day, "Persons who are weak indulge in booze. People take their booze in different ways. Some take pie, or ice cream or grape juice. I have no intention of discussing the merits or demerits of booze, but I do say this: 'It has been scientifically demonstrated that two and three-fourths percent beverages are not intoxicating. Gompers was speaking on the resolution protesting against war-time prohibition."

He says it was purely in a private capacity he suggested certain names, and that his nomination is not binding.
