The police department may not know how to handle a pulmotor but in the national pastime some are proficient. There's Big John Hess, who gave the fans at the West End Twilight League a spanking run for their time...

Smart backing, especially by the Euker huskies and young Freddie Lightner of Marysville, helped Big John get away with his first day's trial. Lightner banged a wallop three time out of four to the plate...

It occurred in the fifth and put a little new life into the Commonwealth team. With the score 5 to 1 against them, the Travelers got next to be big copper's slants for two runs in the seventh...

Again in the fourth, the League leaders were credited with another run when W. Euker walked and went to third on Lightner's single. Eisenberger then made a wild pitch and the West End short stop trotted across the plate with the final tally...
