"IT CAN'T BE BEAT," IS SHARP'S VERDICT

C. F. Sharp, 1243 S. 49th st., Phila., a contractor and builder, said: "I suffered from stomach trouble, gastritis and indigestion. At times I would so fill up with gas that I could hardly get my breath. My heart would seem to stop—then would begin to hammer. I saw where a man similarly affected had used Tanlac to advantage. I bought some and the symptoms I had passed away quickly under the Tanlac treatment."
The genuine J. I. Gore Co. Tanlac is sold here by Kramer's, Steevers' and other leading druggists.

Great chiefs who died during the year were eulogized last night at the annual memorial services of the I. O. R. M. of Pennsylvania, held in the Penn-Harris hotel auditorium. The program was marked with impressive features. This session was presided over by Great Tokakon and Past Great Sachem Charles Pass, County Prothonotary, who is a member of Complanter Tribe No. 61. Members of the various local tribes acted as ushers.

The musical features included selections by the George W. Updegrave orchestra, and singing by a selected double quartet, under the leadership of Harry A. Boyer. The interesting and impressive ritualistic service of the Improved Order of Red Men, was in charge of the great chiefs with Great Sachem Samuel W. Williams, Jr. of Scranton, presiding, and he was assisted by Great Junior Sagamore Norman L. C. Troxell, of Allentown, and Great Prophet T. C. Beswick. Prayers were offered by Rev. Samuel Dower, of Olivet Presbyterian church.

Memorial Address
Past Great Sachem William H. Long, of Hanover, delivered the memorial address. His theme was "To Our Departed Brothers." He referred to many comforting words found in the Bible, and urged still greater efforts for the good of mankind.

In his eulogy and tribute to the memory of Past Great Inchoonee, Joseph Farrer, Past Great Sachem Samuel H. Walker, of Philadelphia, referred to the deceased great chiefs as the "Little Peacemaker." He said in part, "Joe Farrer gave to his fellowmen the best that was in him, good things and great things. He interested himself in the welfare of his fellowmen."
Glowing tributes were paid to the memory of Past Great Inchoonee Thomas K. Donnelly, of Philadelphia, by Past Great Inchoonee John W. Cherry, of Norfolk, Va. He said, "He filled a noble position in life for which he was born. He was a friend of the needy. He died a poor man, but those who knew him, knew that his mission in life brought great good."

First Great Prophet
"He was 80 years old and for 58 years a member of the order. For 53 years he was active and was the first great prophet in Pennsylvania and the United States. He became a member of the Great Council in 1844 and up to the time of his death missed not more than two sessions. He was a teacher and men who needed help and advice received it. He became a great sachem in 1882 and was made Great Inchoonee in 1890. He sacrificed his business for the success of the Improved Order of Red Men. He was one of the greatest men in Pennsylvania Red Men circles. Keep his memory green. Remember his good deeds and his honesty and loyalty to man."
The concluding address was by

Have Nerves Like A Soldier

Says Margo Nerve Tablets Makes Weak Nerves Strong With New Energy and Life
Be strong and full of spirit at middle age or past. Be ambitious to meet the joys of life with steady steel-like nerves. Don't waver away like a shivered up old rabbit. Get flesh on your bones—vitality in your body, and cheerful thinking thoughts in your brain. Margo Nerve Tablets put men and women at their best—use them to dispel gloom, brain-fog and peevishness and revitalize weak, overwrought nerves. With your old nerve-vigor revived, you get a new lease on life. You feel so much better that you join in the social "high links" and nobody realizes you're growing old.
Margo Nerve Tablets have direct and specific action. They go right at weak nerves and quickly set them right. You feel their good work right away.
H. C. Kennedy, Geo. A. Gorgas and good druggists everywhere sell Margo Nerve Tablets on a guarantee to refund the full price of the bottle purchased in any case if they fail to give satisfactory results. This makes the test an easy matter and men and women who are feeling old or have not their grip and ambition should surely give them a trial.
One delegate kicked loudly to-day because of the lack of decorations and welcome signs for the Red Men. "We got a welcome all right from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and others at yesterday's meeting, but there is a notable absence of decorations in the main thoroughfares."

State Senator Frank A. Smith, with his chief of staff, William M. Hargest, Deputy Attorney General, were on the job until the finish of to-day's parade.

The big tribe from Allentown, with its Indian band, was the first to reach the city last night.

Those buttons the Red Men are wearing are attracting much attention. The picture on the buttons is that of Thomas L. Frazer. He is the Great Chief of Records and is likely to hold that office for some time to come. His work has been highly commended and he is popular with the Red Men everywhere.

During the singing of "America" and other selections yesterday at the opening session, Miss Margaret Whitmoyer, of Detroit, Mich., presided at the piano. Miss Whitmoyer is an accomplished pianist. She is a niece of Rev. Samuel Dower, of Olivet, Presbytery.

C. C. Peters, chairman of the parade committee, was a busy man to-day. He appeared in his gorgeous costume and was a big attraction.

Charles E. Bell, of Philadelphia, Great Senior Sagamore, who will be exalted to Great Sachem and is popular men at the convention.

Attractive programs were a feature at last night's memorial services. The cover design is an Indian scene in many colors and showing the many things that go to make up a great chief's costume.

Charles E. Stroh, secretary of the committee, has been on duty from early morning until late at night at the local headquarters in the Penn-Harris Hotel. The committee men say he has made an efficient officer.

Women visitors are having a great time. Their trip to Hershey yesterday was a delightful feature and was enjoyed by 600 women. H. P. Burnett and J. William Rodenhaver are the committee men who are in charge of this branch of entertainment and they have scored a big hit from the start. This evening there will be an informal dance at Sumnerdale Park and to-morrow the women will be shown through the Capitol and various points of interest throughout the city.

Convicted Soldiers to Be Given New Chance

Washington, June 11.—Every soldier now serving a sentence in prison, following conviction by general court-martial is to be given a physical and mental examination by a board of officers convened by the Adjutant General of the Army. Secretary of War Baker has directed the Adjutant General to convene such a board. The board will be directed to investigate thoroughly the history of each convict and to transfer to the disciplinary barracks "in cases in which circumstances are so exceptional that there will be a large probability that a man so transferred will ultimately make a desirable soldier."

DO AWAY WITH INDIGESTION

How to Purify a Sour, Distressed Stomach in a Few Minutes
Let us talk plain English; let us call a spade a spade.
Your food ferments and your stomach last strong enough to digest the food you put into it, so the food sours and forms poisonous gases, and when it does leave your stomach it has not furnished proper nourishment to the blood, and has left the stomach in a filthy condition.
Take Mi-o-na stomach tablets if you want to change your filthy stomach to a healthy, clean, purified one.
If Mi-o-na fails to relieve your indigestion, rid you of dizziness, biliousness and sick headache, your dealer will cheerfully refund your money.
If you want to make your stomach so strong that it will digest a hearty meal without distress, and you want to be without that awful tired-out feeling, take Mi-o-na it should give you prompt relief. For sale by C. Kennedy and all leading druggists.

IF THIN AND NERVOUS, TRY PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Vigor and Nerve Force
When one stops to consider the host of thin people who are searching continually for some method by which they may increase their flesh to normal proportions, the rounding out of ugly hollows, the rounding off of protruding angles with the attendant bloom of health and attractiveness, is no wonder that many and varied suggestions along this line appear from time to time in print.
While excessive thinness might be attributed to various and subtle causes in different individuals, it is a well-known fact that the lack of sufficient phosphorus in the human system is largely responsible for this condition. Experiments on humans and animals by many scientists have demonstrated beyond question of doubt that a body deficient in phosphorus becomes nervous, sickly and thin. A noted author and professor in his book, "Chemistry and Food Nutrition" published in 1913, says: "It is that the amount of phosphorus required for the normal nutrition of man is seriously underestimated in many of our standard text books."
It seems to be well established that this deficiency in phosphorus may now be met by the use of an organic phosphate known throughout English speaking countries as Bitro-Phosphate. Through the assimilation of this phosphate by the nerve tissue the phosphoric content when absorbed in the amount normally required by nature soon produces a welcome change in our body and mind. Nerve tension disappears, vigor and strength replace weakness and lack of energy, and the whole body soon loses its ugly hollows and abrupt angles, becoming enveloped in a glow of perfect health and beauty and the will and strength to be up and doing.
CAUTION—While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.
