Governor Sproul Greet's Students; Valectictory Given by Donald Fisher Lybarger

Gettysburg, Pa., June 12.—In the presence of the largest number of alumni who have gathered in recent years, the eighty-seventh annual commencement at Gettysburg College was held yesterday morning. Twenty-seven graduates received the degree of Bachelor of Arts and twenty were given that of Bachelor of Science. Two members of the class who lost their lives in the war were awarded diplomas posthumously.

Governor William C. Sproul, who has the degree of Doctor of Laws from the college, was present and extended greetings. The address to the graduates was by Dr. J. A. Faulkner, of Drew Theological Seminary. The salutatory was given by Martin Luther Faust, of Ambler, and the valectictory by Donald Fisher Lybarger, of Harrisburg.

The following were presented for honorary degrees:

The board of trustees, after their annual meeting, announced a change of professors in one of the departments, taking the place of Dr. G. B. Fundenberg in the department of romance languages. Dr. Baxter is a graduate of Cornell University and the University of Paris, France. Dr. Fundenberg will go to Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., to occupy the chair of romance languages at that institution. Dr. Clarence Miller, of Philadelphia, was elected a member of the board of trustees.

Motor Club to Give Its Annual Picnic to Kids There has just been issued from the headquarters of the Motor Club of Harrisburg a circular letter to the membership making all kinds of sensible suggestions regarding the club's activities during the summer. Announcement is made of the fact that the annual Motor Club picnic and outing has been planned for June and the committee to arrange for this event will be announced soon.

The annual orphans' outing under the direction of the club at Hershey Park will take place in August. Secretary Myton asks the members to report to headquarters any unusual road conditions that have been encountered, to the end that the club may be as useful as possible to its members and the motoring public.
