NOON WEDDING IN THE CHURCH

Miss Mary Catharine Heikes Becomes Bride of George Harold Gilbert Today

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place at high noon today in the Derry Street United Brethren Church, when Miss Mary Catharine Heikes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Y. Heikes, 1626 Chestnut street, was united in marriage with George Harold Gilbert.

The Rev. J. A. Lotter officiated in the presence of the families and a few personal friends.

Ferns and summer flowers decorated the church, a color scheme of pink prevailing. Miss Rhoda Desenberg, of New Cumberland, played the usual wedding marches, and after the services a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dainty frock of flesh-colored Georgette crepe, large white hat with Georgette draperies and a corsage bouquet of bride roses and Victory blossoms.

Miss Margaret Heikes was maid of honor for her sister, wearing pink crepe de chine, broad Leghorn hat with pink trimmings and a corsage bouquet of pink orchid sweet peas. Martin E. Miller was best man.

Following an eastern wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will make their home at 1829 Resina street.

The bride has been a stenographer with the Royal Typewriter Co. for the past three years and Mr. Gilbert, a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Gilbert, and former Tech man, is assistant chief clerk of the Ordnance Depot at Middletown.

W. F. Paul, 2319 North Third street, left the city yesterday on a business trip to Boston.

Mrs. Jane Hartkopf, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis, 624 Ross street.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY THIS EVENING AT ORPHEUM

WILLIAM K. MCBRIDE MISS MARGARET E. GOOD

Everything is set for the presentation of "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh," by the class of 1919 of Central High school, this evening at the Orpheum theater.

The final touches were put on the production yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Charles P. Ewing, instructor of declamation, who has had the cast under her constant supervision for the past five weeks.

The rehearsal yesterday proved very satisfactory and there is every reason to believe that the play to-night will be of the finest quality.

Among the most amusing characters in the play are Miss Margaret E. Good and William K. McBride, who take the parts of two bashful lovers. Miss Good, as Violet DeSalle, and William McBride, as Geoffrey Rawson, are an inspiration to all young people afflicted with this strange malady.

The seat sale will continue up until 8:15 to-night. Although many of the best seats have already been sold, there are still some choice ones to be had.

Give Little Party on Daughter's Birthday

A delightful party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rineers, 29 North Fifteenth street, in celebration of the ninth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Pearl Rineer.

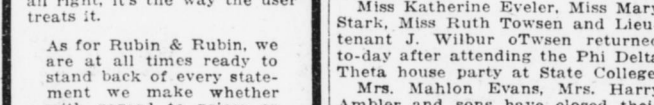

Those present were: Marie Turner, Dorothy Eastinger, Ruth Shank, Cora Shenk, Grace Hickes, Marion Pasmacht, Zora Fasmacht, Margaret Wolfe, Kathryn Zeiders, Marion Zeiders and William Rineer.

LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH

Mrs. A. T. Chappelle and Miss Lenora Yarbeth, of Richmond, Va., have returned to their homes after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Keister, of Washington Heights.

Accompanying them were Miss Sara Keister and Alfred Keister. Arthur Keister, who was spending a brief furlough with his parents, returned to Camp Lee.

Optometry Practice and Truth

Optometry is a scientific manner of examining eyes without the use of drops. And optometrists are registered to practice in the State of Pennsylvania. They must know their business to get a license.

Optometry doesn't fit every case—there are those where medical treatment alone can help. The truthful optometrist in that case recommends or sends his patient to a physician specializing in the eye.

As for Rubin & Rubin, we are at all times ready to stand back of every statement we make whether with regard to prices or treatment, satisfaction or service.

Tinted lenses absorb the harmful rays of the bright summer sun and relieve the glare that causes squinting, eyecache and headache. If your eyes are weak, if you are engaged in work that subjects you to strong artificial light, or strong sunlight, you will find wonderful relief by wearing tinted lenses. They are also ideal for motorists, traveling and for the seashore. Many people wear them the year round, in preference to white lenses. I can make them up in your regular prescription.
