Gain Flesh By Drinking Water With Systoxem

A very easy and pleasant method for gaining flesh and rounding out the body is now advocated by well-known authorities. Simply drink plenty of good water and take a little Systoxem after meals. This simple method is guaranteed to aid nature in adding healthy tissue, weight and strength to the human body in two weeks' time in many instances. It supplies the blood and system with flesh and strength-building substances now known to be lacking and often wholly lost in the modern foods we eat. Thousands of thin, delicate and run-down folks will naturally be benefited. One well-known writer on body building etc. says, "It is just like giving sunshine and water to a withering plant. The ordinary city drinking water here is considered pure and Systoxem is now obtainable at good drug stores without a doctor's prescription. It is not being a secret remedy."

NOTE—Geo. A. Gorgas, Kennedy's Drug Store and other leading druggists of this city report tremendous increases in the sale of Systoxem since it has become known that this compound and ordinary drinking water help the blood turn the food we eat into solid, healthy tissue, and also induce a feeling of renewed energy, strength and power of endurance.

Size of Ring For Bout Reduced to Twenty Feet

Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey will meet in their world's heavyweight championship contest July 4 in a twenty-foot ring instead of 4 in a regulation twenty-four-foot ring. This announcement was made by Tex Rickard last night after he had obtained the consent of both men. Rickard said that reducing the size of the ring will enable him to save 400 square feet at the ring-side to install additional press seats, the demand for which has exceeded all expectations. "You can make it fifteen feet square for all I care," was Dempsey's reply to Rickard's proposal. When Willard heard of the challenger's remarks, he said: "It doesn't make any difference to me what size you make the ring. The smaller it is, the harder it will be for Dempsey to get away from me."

"Playing For Willard," Says Champ's Manager, Speaking of Dempsey

Toledo, O., June 14.—Three hundred special trains will be run to Toledo for the Willard-Dempsey fight. Tex Rickard said today 167 had already been arranged and expected about an hour or more. Willard expects to weigh within two or three pounds of what he scaled when he won the championship from Jack Johnson in Havana recently. Ray O. Archer, business manager of the champion, is of the opinion that Dempsey will be a plaything for Willard. "It is my honest opinion that he will be unable to hit him at all," Archer said. "Hitting Willard hard enough to sting him will be vastly different from knocking over the class of heavyweights Dempsey has defeated."

New Telephone Rates. Local Service Rates. The costs of telephone operation have been rising steadily during the past few years. And now, despite the fact that every possible economy has been introduced, a point has been reached where telephone revenues in Pennsylvania are not sufficient to meet expenses and to provide a reasonable return upon the investment. The situation compels an increase in telephone revenues. The Company prepared and submitted to the United States Telegraph and Telephone Administration a revised schedule of rates for local service in Pennsylvania, which, after careful consideration, was approved by the Federal Authorities and will become effective June 16, 1919. Accordingly, all rates for local exchange service in Pennsylvania (except local messages originating at public telephones) will be increased 20% June 16, 1919.

The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania. Toll Service Rates. On January 21, 1919, new schedules of toll and long distance rates were established throughout the country by order of the Postmaster General. The application of these schedules to messages originating and terminating within Pennsylvania was set aside on January 29, 1919, by order of a Pennsylvania Court. The Supreme Court of the United States, on June 2, confirmed the authority of the Postmaster General to regulate all telephone rates. Consequently, the Pennsylvania Court on June 11, 1919, dissolved its injunction of January 29, 1919. The new rates, therefore, will be applied to all toll and long distance messages from and after May 21, 1919, the beginning of the current toll billing period. All telephone directories issued since January 1 contain the new schedules and an explanation of them. Please consult the front pages of your directory so that you may be familiar with the various classes of toll service that we offer.
