TWILIGHT BRIDAL IN THE CHURCH

The Jones-Mumma Nuptials Celebrated in Presence of Immediate Families

The Christ Lutheran Church at Thirteenth and Thompson streets was in gala attire this afternoon with palms and masses of gladiolas, for the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Mary Katharine Mumma and Norman Cheston Jones, the Rev. Thomas Kelsch, pastor of the church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony, performed in the presence of the immediate families and a few of the more personal friends. Tall candles, burning a soft light over the bridal party at the twilight service.
S. Paul Lynch, of Harrisburg, a cousin of the bride, played a gown of the classic prior to the ceremony, using the new and novel wedding march as a processional and the Mendelssohn wedding march as recessional. During the service he played Schumann's lovely "Traumerei" softly.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, John Harvey Mumma, wore a charming frock of white georgette crepe with beaded trimmings, over tulle, and a white Milan hat. Her shower bouquet was of orchids, Ophelia roses and Victory blossoms.
Attending the bride was Miss Rose B. Jones, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore a beautifully embroidered peach-colored georgette crepe costume, over silk and Milan hat. She carried an arm bouquet of Ward roses. Frank E. Jones, of Philadelphia, was best man for his brother.
After the ceremonies a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride, 1526 Derry street, with Ruth-erford catering. The house decorations were of roses and ferns most artistically arranged.
The young couple will motor to Blue Ridge Summit to spend the honeymoon, the bride wearing for the trip a traveling suit of navy blue tulle and navy georgette hat.
Miss Mumma is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Martin Mumma, and was graduated with the class of 1915, Harrisburg High School.
Mr. Jones is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Woolston Jones, of this city. He recently received his release from the Navy and is now connected with the war auditor's office of the U. S. Treasury at Washington, D. C., where they will make their home in the fall.

THE BORGES-HOLLAND WEDDING TOMORROW

LOUIS J. BORGES MISS HOLLAND

One of the most interesting June weddings was solemnized tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Middletown, when Miss Kathryn B. Holland, of Royalton, and Louis J. Borges, of Elmer, Calif., will be united in marriage.
The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Walter Jules Poin in the presence of many friends of the couple. The wedding marches will be played by Miss Margaret Nagel, of Middletown, while Paul C. Ackers, of Altoona, will sing the wedding hymns. Laurel and roses will make effective decorations for the church.
The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, William M. Holland, has chosen a beautiful wedding gown of white satin and tulle with panel train falling from the shoulders, embroidered in seed pearls. The tulle veil falling from a cap of Hollandaise lace will be crowned with orange blossoms from the home of the bridegroom in Southern California. Her shower bouquet will be orchids and valley lilies.
The bridesmaids, Miss Katharine Grimes and Miss Carolyn Elizabeth Holland, will be attired in dainty frocks of pink Georgette crepe with

CITY MERCHANTS DONATE PRIZES

Beautiful Gifts Awarded at Camp Hill Community Day Carnival

The Camp Hill Civic Club community day carnival was a decided success financially, and from every other standpoint. A beautiful community spirit was shown, remarkable co-operation being exhibited on all sides by the many people who worked untiringly to make the event the best of its kind ever given in this vicinity.
The carnival chairman, Mrs. Howard W. Goodman, president of the club, and her assistants, Mrs. James C. Armstrong, Mrs. Edgar H. Hess, Mrs. W. F. Kendall, Mrs. George W. Kehr and Mrs. Carl K. Deen, all members of the board of directors, thank the Harrisburg merchants for the beautiful prizes donated by them. Among those who contributed awards were C. Ross Boas, E. G. Hoover, George W. Bogar, John A. Rose and Charles M. Steff provided the piano and victrola. Credit should also be given to Howard Wireman, of Camp Hill, who hauled articles from various points to the carnival grounds.
Last evening after all the wars had been sold and darkness had fallen, the merry-makers proceeded to the Zacharias home, where they danced on the veranda to victrola music.

The eastern wedding journey will end in a residence at Royalton, where Mr. and Mrs. Borges will be "at home" to their friends after July 15. The bride, who has a host of friends here, has been connected with the revenue accounting department of the Bell Telephone Company for some time and Mr. Borges, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Borges, of California, is chief clerk of the Quartermaster's department of the aviation section at Middletown.

TELL BETROTHAL AT A LUNCHEON
Under the Wings of Butterflies It Is Found That Miss Linnie Hess Is to Wed
Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, of Steelton, announced to-day that their daughter, Miss Linnie V. Hess is to marry Earl Bowman Smith, of New Cumberland in the near future.
There was a luncheon given this afternoon at the Hess home with pink roses and honeysuckle used in the decorations. In the center of the table and at each end stood hand-made reed baskets of the same lovely flowers over which hovered gay butterflies, beneath whose wings was found the romance in betrothal announcement.
Good wishes and congratulations followed the news and several events were immediately planned for the bride-elect, who since her graduation from the Steelton High school in 1913 has been a teacher there. Mr. Smith, an expert accountant who is holding a State position on Capitol Hill, is an alumnus of the Shippensburg Normal school and the University of Pennsylvania.
The guests at to-day's festivities included: Miss Linnie V. Hess, Mrs. John Hess, Mrs. J.
