WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 1919

He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.—Micah 6:8.

"PASSING THE BUCK"

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH, the son-in-law of the late Colonel Roosevelt, and a prominent Ohio member of Congress, discussed the Knox resolution while making an inspection of the Hog Island shipyard with a party of his colleagues. He declared the League of Nations question to be a National and not a party concern.

cannot be disregarded without invoking the wrath of the people. So it is that an art commission might be created to relieve the City Council of the responsibility involved in the placing of public memorials and the acceptance or rejection of bequests providing for the placing of fountains, statuary or any such thing.

A TREELESS CITY

WE WANT every citizen of Harrisburg who has a modicum of love for the city to read the following editorial comment on the treeless condition of a great park in New York City and then apply this general criticism of the New York Times to the indifference of our own authorities to the proper planting and care of trees in Harrisburg.

THAT THIRD TERM

CONSIDERABLE number of newspaper writers and political observers have assumed from President Wilson's recent utterances in France that he has taken himself out of the race for next year's Democratic nomination.

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committeeman

Unless it is found necessary to recall the Philadelphia charter bill from the Governor for purposes of amendment the final scenes in the protracted procedure to give the State metropolis a new charter were enacted yesterday afternoon in the Legislature.

Excuse Lacks Common Sense

[From the New York Tribune] The War Department has arranged to sell 5,000,000 yards of denim at prices ranging from 20 to 28 1/2 cents a yard, whereas it paid from 23 to 34 1/2 cents.

Washington the Farmer

[From the London Telegraph] George Washington's practical interest in agricultural affairs is known to historians, and has often been illustrated by letters which have appeared in the auction room.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

AFTER YOU'VE WALKED TO YOUR OFFICE ON A HOT SULTRY MORNING

-AND YOU GO HOME MORE DEAD THAN ALIVE

AND YOU SPEND THE DAY

MOPPING YOUR PERSPIRING BROW AND SIPPING COLD DRINKS

-AND THEN YOU PEEL OFF

AND HOPING FOR A FRESH BREEZE AT THE WINDOW

BUT THE WIND IS HOT AND WITHERING

-AND HOP INTO THE TUB—OH-H-H-H-BOY! AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

Evening Chat

Friends of Frank Bell, formerly of this city and now a member of the board of lecturership of the Christian Science Church, will be interested to know that he will spend the coming winter in South Africa.

No Wonder Germany Quit

NUMBER EIGHT

THERE was an old soldier, a man with about twenty years service and a very fine shot, in one of my companies in France.

Washington the Farmer

[From the London Telegraph] George Washington's practical interest in agricultural affairs is known to historians, and has often been illustrated by letters which have appeared in the auction room.

LABOR NOTES

Philadelphia carpenters will vote on the proposition that the wage scale on May 1 shall be 87 1/2 cents an hour.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

—John J. Coyle, former Senator from Schuylkill, was among visitors to the Capital yesterday for a time.

DO YOU KNOW

—That Harrisburg used to have a large horse and cattle trade and still has the railroad facilities for it?

The Industrial Titan of America

A Great Story of Pennsylvania's Wonderful Resources, by John Oliver La Gorce

Reprinted From National Geographic Magazine With Special Permission

(Continued.) One of the largest groups of factories in America is that which comprises the complex classified under the general head: Westinghouse Industries. One of these mammoth plants fabricates the airbrake, to which the world owes a great debt. It has equipped some three million cars and perhaps a hundred thousand locomotives with this life-preserving device.
