"Keep Young Gilly in Steelton, under your personal direction; don't be afraid to match him with any one in the world at the lightweight limit," is the main contents of a letter to Joe Barrett, from Max Waxman, the Baltimore sporting man.

Gilly is a seasoned boxer, having met the best in the game, and only losing seven decisions out of 107. He has never been knocked off his feet. Waxman says he has no love for a boxer who refuses to meet a substitute in his class, but after learning of Gilly's ability, he does not blame Sammy Schiff for refusing to meet Gilly in place of Mahoney. Barrett surmises that Schiff and his Steelton, when Gilly meets Tim Droney, the tough Lancaster lightweight in a ten-round bout, if for nothing more than to see just how good the Southerner is. Gilly may be all that is claimed of him, but no doubt at the pace Droney has been going of late, proved by his RESORTS

Mount Union's New Park to Be Opened Saturday

Mount Union, Pa., June 19.— Mount Union borough authorities will open the borough park on Saturday next. The new park is situ-ated in North Mount Union along ated in North Mount Union along the Juniata river and will make an ideal place for picnics, boating and bathing. The park at present con-tains five acres and there is some agitation in the town to buy an ad-dition to the present plot which will give enough grounds for a ball ground and for athletic purposes. Should this be done Mount Union will have an ideal recreation park.

ALFONSO TO STAY HOME London — British sportsmen are keenly disappointed by an official an-nouncement that King Alfonso will not appear at the Ascot races. His horses will participate, but the king himself will be unable to leave Spain.

Washington, June 19.—Arrangements have been completed for taking moving pictures of the Willard-Dempsey fight from an observation balloon.

When Willard and Dempsey step into the ring at Toledo, July 4, they will find an Army observation balloon soaring far above them. The movie camera will be busy every minute of the fight, making a complete set of pictures from start to finish.

There were more than one hundred suits in the reduced groups — Suits of which there were only one, two or three of a size. Broken sizes accumulate in all stocks and judicious stock-keeping prompts their clearance at any sacrifice.

So out go these good suits at reductions that promise uncommon savings.

The Materials include Scotch Mixtures, Cheviots, Cassimeres, Worsteds and Homespuns in greys, tans and browns principally.

The models include two-button waist lines, three-button sacks with patch pockets and one and two-button waist lines with long roll lapels in conservative and semiconservative styles.
