DONEGAL CHURCH ANNUAL REUNION

Tablet to Members Who Died in World War Unveiled at Session of Association

Lancaster, Pa., June 19.—At old Donegal Church, in northern Lancaster county, to-day is being held the annual reunion of the sons and daughters of the famous Donegal Valley and their descendants as well. The pilgrimage to this shrine of Presbyterianism, made historic through its two centuries of achievement and dissemination of culture locally, as well as through the distinguished persons directly connected therewith during the past two centuries, is made each returning season by probably larger and larger numbers of people. To this mecca come the pilgrims from all parts of Lancaster county, from the Mason and Dixon line, from the Middle Atlantic seaboard and New England.

Gang of Robbers Steals Meat in Mifflin County

Lewisport, Pa., June 19.—Police authorities here are seeking four men who they think are carrying out a series of robberies. Juniata, Snyder, Perry and Mifflin counties have been losing heavy in cured meats, which seems to be the main article sought by the robbers. The gang stole an automobile either in Juniata or Perry county on Saturday, June 7, with Pennsylvania license tag No. 237403. On June 11 a smokehouse at the home of C. D. Sheaffer, near Middleburg, was robbed of eight hams and some other articles. Abram Spiekler, a farmer residing near Belleville, Mifflin county, lost 563 pounds of cured meat from his smokehouse and some people passing along the State road shortly before daybreak that morning, say they saw an auto standing at the gate.

BURGESS COOK CHARGES LAXITY

Duncannon Councilmen Are Called "Useless Ornaments" For Neglect of Duties

Duncannon, Pa., June 19.—Certain members of Duncannon borough council are scored by Burgess Franklin E. Cook, for their laxity in attending sessions of Council. In a statement issued by the chief executive they are termed "useless ornaments" and the chief of the fire department warned that if he ever gets word that all of the councilmen plan to be present at the same time, that "it might be a good thing to have the hose and plugs in readiness in case of fire in the town hall."
