GEORGE V. YACHTING

London—King George, always an enthusiastic sailor, has the royal yacht placed in commission and Sir Horace Brand has been appointed commander. As soon as normal yachting conditions return the yacht will be entered in the chief races. It may be noted that the ex-kaiser will never participate in British waters again.

Sailors' Park Successful

Mechanicsburg, Pa., June 19.—
Enthusiastic citizens of Mechanicsburg paraded the streets of the town last evening to create a sentiment in favor of the $25,000 soldiers' and Sailors' Memorjal Park project and to launch the campaign for funds which opens to-morrow.

The Singer band and soldiers in uniform led the demonstration, followed by Burgess J. J. Milleisen and siris carrying a huge American flag for contributions. The fire companies of the form and large trucks filled with a lot of happy children were features. Citizens in automobiles were in line in large numbers with flass greatly in evidence.

ASK FUNDS FOR ROAD

Carlisle, Pa., June 19.—Supervisors and residents of Lower Mifflin township are requesting the county commissioners for funds for improvement of a road in that section running north from Newville to the county line. They c'a's the road as a public nuisance and ask that the road be put on the State highway map or that the county and State cooperate in a plan for improvement. The commissioners have the request under advisement.
