DECLARES JURIES SHOULD NOT ACT IN INSANITY CASES

Dr. McDonald Points Out Why Thaw Case Dragged Along

Philadelphia, June 21.—Sanity of prisoners should not be determined by juries in the opinion of Dr. C. F. MacDonald, New York, who spoke here yesterday before the convention of the American Medical Psychological Association. He suggested that juries in murder cases where the question of sanity is raised, should merely pass upon the facts as to whether a prisoner did or did not commit the crime charged. If a verdict of guilty is rendered, he said, a board of qualified alienists should then determine the "sanity plea" aspect of the case and report to the court which would then be in a position to decide what sentence should be imposed.

Shipping Board Takes Over Engineering School

Pittsburgh, Pa., June 21.—The School of Turbine Engineering which was established at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, last November, has been taken over by the United States shipping board and will continue indefinitely at the Pittsburgh institution. This school was formed to educate naval officers, who had been chief engineers on tramp steamers having reciprocating engines to fill a similar position on the new ships with engines of the turbine type that were being turned out by the shipping board, for the new merchant marine. Lieut. Commander E. H. Henderson is in command of the school. Detachments of naval officers report weekly to the Carnegie Institute of Technology to take the five week's course. Upon the successful completion of the work, they are granted a chief engineers' license. They then enter the merchant marine as chief engineers on the new ships.

If It Isn't a Reo It Isn't a "Speed Wagon"

RIVALS ARE COPYING not only the general features of design, but even the very term by which we designate the light, speedy Reo Motor Truck. REO ENGINEERS developed this special type of motor truck—and in the Reo advertising we created the term. WE SAID "GENERAL" features. Note the distinction! For that is as far as the imitators go. IF IT ISN'T a Reo then, it isn't a "Speed Wagon." THEY CANNOT IMITATE REO in the fundamental features—motor, transmission, axles, steering and control system—without actually counterfeiting the Reo. AND EVEN THEN, there would still be lacking that quality which you have come to know as Reo. AND IF IT IS A REO—then you can be certain it is the best motor truck of that type, because it was the pioneer and therefore represents the ripest practical experience. SO DON'T BE MISLED by the term "Speed Wagon" for legitimately that belongs to Reo exclusively. THIS REO WAS RIGHT from the very first—that is why it has enjoyed such a tremendous success—that is why it is being so generally imitated now.
