PRUSSIANS SHOW RESENTMENT FOR GERMAN ALLIES

Say Teutons Have Deserted Them and Bartered Away Portions of States

Weimar, June 21.—General Groen-former Prussian war minister and cessor to Field Marshal Von Hin-of, former Prussian war minister and successor to Field Marshal Von Hin-denburg as chief of the German gen-eral staff, arrived here from Eastern Germany yeaterday and conferred with the members of the cabinet about the Polish situation and the entire eastern front. He reported that West Prussia, East Prussia and Silesia have determ-ined to form an independent state free from Prussia and Germany if any portions of those states are al-lowed to go to Poland. He said the inhabitants of the three states are al-lowed to go to Poland. He said the inhabitants of the three states are al-lowed to go to Poland. He said the inhabitants of the three states are bitter at Germany, claiming that she had "deserted them and swapped and bestowed away portions of those states for the sake of others." The government says it cannot see where any bartering enter into the situation since it got nothing in re-turn in dealing with the Allies. Fight-ing with the Poles is said to be cer-tain, forces of the independent Noske guards or the German imperial troops being the participants.

ATLANTIC CITY and the New Jersey Coast Resorts

Cool ocean breezes and the Tangy Salt Fragrance of the SEA! The great natural and unpatented tonic for summer time!

ATLANTIC CITY and all of the forty beaches on the Jersey Coast have it supreme. Miles of hard, glistening, ocean sand, where great foamy salt sea waves roll in and break continually. World famous Boardwalks, along which stretch a living throng of interesting people—a panorama of amusements, shops and things. Across the walks, facing the sea, splendid hotels; and everywhere, color, life, sport.

Cape May-Wildwood-Ocean City Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, Long Branch

All the New Jersey Coast resorts have a country-wide fame. They offer an embarrassment of riches in sports—surf-bathing, boating, sailing, fishing, golf; amusements of all sorts—in fascinating, gay life. Each has individual attractions peculiar to itself.

The United States Railroad Administration invites you to travel and offers Summer Excursion Fares. Ask your focal ticket agent to help you plan your trip; or, apply to the nearest Consolidated Ticket Office for descriptive booklet—"The New Jersey Seashore"—with lists of hotels; or write to the nearest Travel Bureau.
