After playing two games on Saturday afternoon, writes the correspondent, the Naudain team faided from the City Junior League on account of Swatara team signing up "Red" Foland, Galahad's backstop, and not giving them a fair deal, at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets.

After Swatara had taken the first game, 4 to 3, the dispute came in the second game when the Swataras put Foland in as a backstop and a row started when "Andy" Botts called a man out at second, who appeared to be safe.

After the game the Naudain management refused to play any more contests in the City Junior League.

Open Hearth could not overhaul the General Office team on Saturday, Wrightstone being on the job with all kinds of stuff sufficient to keep the Open Hearth raps to a puny 3, of which Catcher Yost made a brace himself. With the score handcuffed, General Office had advantage of some sweet pitching, too, by O'Connell, and a couple timely

Promises Fat Purse to Sammy Schiff if He Fights Gilley Tonight

Fights Gilley Tonight

Max Waxman, manager of Young Gilly writes to-day on the eye of this fighter's appearance at Barrett's Steelton show, from his home in Baltimore as follows: To the Telegraph sports editor "Please explain to Harrisburg and Steelton that Young Mahorey was compelled to break his agreement to meet Sammy Schiff because he was seriouly hurt' in his bout with Joe Marks. When this happened I immediately begun action to get Young Gilley to take his place, and the public knows now that Schiff refused to meet him. Why? Had Gilley been a set-up Schiff would have taken him on, but he knew that Gilley had a reputation.

Now if this is not the case I promise that Gilley, win or lose with Tim Droney, will take Sammy Schiff on in the same ring, Monday night; and if he does not stop him I will hand Schiff my part of the original purse.

Young Gilley wors the southern lightweight championship from Kid Whitten in a twenty round battle staged in Baltimore two years ago. Ridge has met and held his own with Bennie Leonard, Freddie Welch and others. Gilley also fought a draw with Jimmie McCabe, who just beat Jack Britton.

Quantities of sparkling, delicious home-made root beer always on hand! Cool glasses of fizzy, snappy root beer—and as much as you want! Doesn't that sound good?

greased lightning, his fielding being of the big league brand, and the Banks was surely on the map. An odd coincidence was to see "Pop" Banks at first base and his eldest son. C. Banks, back of the bat. In the ninth another Banks was called into pinch hit, so it appears the Monarchs certainly bank on this family to help.

The one-run which upset the Monarchs came in the fifth. After Levan, who batted for McKeever, flied out to left field, T. Euker hit to right field for a single. Knight hit to Carpenter, who fumbled, permitting Knight to reach first base safely. On a fielder's choice knocked by Stricker, Knight was thrown out at second, but the West End twirler succeeded in getting safely on first.
Stricker stole second, and while the Monarch's pitcher was winding up to make his delivery. T. Euker stole home and was called safe after the catcher had dropped the ball. During an argument by Carpenter, Stricker attempted to steal second, but was caught for the third out. Summary:

pitcher, W. Euker. Stolen bases, Carpenter, W. Euker. Bell. Stricker. Passed balls, C. Banks, Time, 1.40. Umpire, Jackson. Scorer, McCahan. And the best part of it, is you can have this delicious root beer right at home—and all the time. All you need is a 25c bottle of Hires Household Extract, sugar, and a yeast cake. It's easy to make—the directions are clear, and behold, you have 40 pints or 80 glasses of sparkling, wholesome root beer at a cost of less than 1c a glass!

A cool, refreshing glass when you are tired and feeling sort of "low," wholesome, delicious glasses for the children when they come home, a sparkling, tempting glass when company comes—you can have homemade root beer all the time, for every occasion.

Get out all those old bottles which have been collecting down the cellar if you havent good strong corks for them, you can buy some Hires specially designed air-tight bottle stoppers from the same grocer from whom you buy your bottle of Hires Household Extract.

STEEL COMPANY'S FAST BRIDGE DEPT. TEAM

is elated over the match.

Gilly and Young Bulldog Silar, of York, the One Hundred and Twelfth Infantry representative of the Twenty-eighth Division, have been in Steelton under Barrett's care training since Saturday, and wound up their training last evening and are in great condition. Silar is matched in the other star bout on the card with Frankie Erne, of Lancaster, who is known by every local eport as a past master of boxing, but the aggressive Silar, who is touted as a second Terry McGovern, is confident that the pace he sets will be too fast for Erne.

Droney and Erne will motor to Steelton about noontime o-day with their manager, Charlie Rieker, the Lancaster brewer. Two other bouts will complete the bill. Paul Wagner, the York youngsters, who recently knocked out Lew Mutzell, of Lancaster, will meet Billy Morton, Harrisburg's reliable lightweight. Morton recently knocked out Ralph Leedy, of this city, and is expeced to overcome Wagner's cleverness with his punch.

The opener will be between Young Wampler, another York boy, who served with Silar overseens, and Walter Kuhnert, a real Steelton scrapper, who works in the machine apop of the Bethlehem Steel Works.

Barrett says the hall where he now holds forth is twice as large as his former arena, and practically open air. No buildings surround it, and windows encircle the entire building. Seats are on sale at Fairlamb's, Florence House and Baldwin Hotel. In Steelton. Barrett would like Sammy Schiff to come to the fight to-night to have the local boxering articles to meet the winner of the Gilly and Droney match. Either boy will make 133 pounds, the real lightweight limit for Schiff. Steelton will be Silar and Gilly's future home.

Strawberry Shortcake

Quartet Hall, Front and Washington streets, in Steelton, will be the scene of more real fighting to-night than has ever been the luck of the local fans to witness in one ring hereabouts, promises Joe Barrett, the veteran promoter, who recently fought a draw with the jinx. To help his old manager overthrow this jinx, Kid Williams, the Baltimore tiger, ex-bantamweight champion of the world, assures Barrett he will positively be on hand to-night to advise Young Gilly, of Baltimore, the southern lightweight champion, in his ten-round battle with Tim Droney, the fighting harp of Lancaster. Barrett says every man on his card will positively appear, as he has selected none but those who have been known to fulfill their contract. There will be no substitutes this time, he pledges.

YANKEE BOXERS
FIGHT THIS WEEK

Australians Expected to Show Quality at Tuesday's Big Games Abroad

By Associated Press.

Paris, June 23.—Duke Mullins, who fitted Jack Johnson for his fight with Tommy Burns, is training the Australian boxers who have entered the interallied games, which begin on June 24. He has some likely heavyweights with him, among them being Captain Gordon Coghill, champion of the National Club of London in 1910; and who fought Eddie McGority in Australian whosers, in Amiror of the British army; Harold, the amateur champion of the National Club of London in 1910; and who fought Eddie McGority in Australian whe filt of Correct in Australian wrestlers are headed by Anspach, winner of the British military medal for gallantry in action, and others, and Lieut. Matty Smith, a native of America, will lead the lightweight division.

The Australian wrestlers are headed by Billy Miske, heavyweight champion of Australia and Alfred Taylor, British representative at the Olympic games at Stockholm, will compete as a lightweight. In the opinion of the Australian boxers, the American expeditionary force boxing rules which will govern the interallied contests, will do much follows: "I have just returned from the West and find the clippings describing my match with Dr. Roller and it hurts me to think that Harrisburg feels this way about it. I certainly am not satisfied with what happened, ror with Doctor Roller, for he promised me that very night a return match, and I have heard nothing from him. I think I should have that and appear as a guarantee to the fans of Harrisburg that I am just as clean as Roller. He is recognized as an American, but I can prove that I am the same, and could show that I have dore my duty during the war more than Roller, having been presented a gold medal for alt the things I did.

My western record will show all about that and now that I am in the east again I would like to wrestle Roller for a return at Harrisburg under any conditions he desires. I am ready for him any time."
