

GIFTS HIDDEN AMONG FLOWERS

Recent Bride Finds Useful Articles For Tea Table Concealed on Lawn

Mrs. David F. Young and Mrs. Warren Byron Keim entertained on Saturday afternoon at "The Farm," North Bowman avenue, Camp Hill, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hobson Smith, whose wedding was a recent event. Mrs. Smith, prior to her marriage, was Miss Mabel Wolbert. After an afternoon spent out-of-doors when the bride and groom were showered with gifts, the bride and groom were seated at a picnic supper. At the close of the meal, a search among the flowers revealed hidden gifts which were showered on the young couple. Each article proved to be something intended for the bride's tea table and she received many assurances from the other guests that the next afternoon call would be timed for 5 o'clock, or tea time. Among those who enjoyed the event were a number of Mrs. Smith's former High School instructors and associates, including: Miss Grace Tatnal, Miss Grace Rhoads, Miss Edith Tatnal, Miss Mary Orth, Miss M. Katharine McNiff, Miss Katherine M. Zieders, Miss Mary Richardson, Miss Sara Richardson, Miss Lorena G. Evans, Miss Edna M. Caton, Miss Rachel Zook, Miss Martha Trace, Miss Elizabeth M. Garner, Miss Frances Hamilton, Miss Elizabeth M. Craighead, Miss Edna M. Caton, Miss Maria G. DeLone, Miss Jessie C. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Austin N. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Bertram W. Saul, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Zook, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kiehl, Mrs. Howard Goodman, David Beecher, David Young Keim, Mr. and Mrs. David F. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Byron Keim.

Members of D. S. Society Enjoy Outing at Perdix

Members of the D. S. Society, class of 1920, of Central High school, entertained the 1919 girls, on Friday, at the Smyser cottage, Perdix. The morning was spent on the veranda with knitting and dancing and in the afternoon on returning from a long hike, the girls enjoyed a refreshing swim. Mrs. Smyser and Mrs. Markley chaperoned the party and the hostesses were: The Misses Helen Sotestine, Cordelia Morran, Frances Caton, Eve Irving, Margaret Schwab, Anna Porter, Mary Rodney, Winifred Tripper, Ruth Marks, Beatrice Bogar, Ethel Zeigler, Mary Bevan, Mildred Rowe, Dora Billel, Sylvia Gingrich and Mildred Krieder. The guests included the Misses Jean Lippett, Sarah Caton, Esther Jean Louise Furman, Merle Smith, Ruth Langdon, Violet Hollinger, Marguerite Ambrose, Mary Lewis, Margaret Graeff, Mildred Donnoy, Gladys Shop, Dorothy Corning, Fernie Stanford, Christina Long, Betty Brown and Ruth McCauley. Other guests present, not club members, were Miss Zoltan Warner and Miss Sara Markley.

Miss Pratt's Pupils Present Fine Program

The piano recital held Saturday by the pupils of Miss Jeanne Pratt in Fahnstock Hall again proved the ability of that well-known teacher to develop the musical individuality of the student. Worthy of special mention was the playing of Lester Mather and William Bretz. The latter is already known to the music public in Harrisburg. In Lester Mather Miss Pratt presents a student of rare musical ability. He excels in technical equipment, depth of expression and polished execution, and his talent is such that he deserves to rank among the best musicians of the city. All the pupils played with uniformly excellent finish and musical feeling, and the recital as a whole was a delightful and inspiring entertainment.

Miss Dunlap Leaves to Take New Position

Miss Helen E. Dunlap, who was graduated from Smith College, Northampton, Mass., last Tuesday, left to-day for Peekskill, N. Y., to assume the duties of a new position as chemist in the Research Laboratory of the Fleischman Company. Miss Dunlap majored in chemistry throughout her entire college course, receiving high honors in the subject.

Members of National Woman's Party Celebrate Birthday Anniversary Saturday

Evidently the National Woman's party believes that "all work and no play" is not a good thing, for, after their strenuous labors of the past three weeks, the local members decided to take a little holiday Saturday evening to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mabel Cronise Jones, president of the Central Pennsylvania Suffrage Association. A procession of automobiles, gaily decorated with the well-known purple, gold and white of the National Woman's party, left the Penn-Harris Hotel at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and proceeded to Williams Grove, where the occupants partook of an excellent supper, amid much merriment. Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, chairman of the ratification committee, at whose request the happy resolution was introduced into the Senate, was the hostess. Her guests included Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sharon MacDonald, Mrs. Harry D. Montgomery, Mrs. Charles M. Rhodes, all of Harrisburg; Mrs. John D. Davenport, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Maxwell Chapman, of Scranton; Mrs. Ella Riesel, of York; Mrs. Archibald Harmon, of Philadelphia; Miss Kate C. Heffelfinger, of Shamokin; Miss Olive Beale, of Washington, and Mrs. W. D. Christine, of Scranton. The party was in the nature of a victory celebration and many congratulations were exchanged over the successful journey of the suffrage resolution through the Legislature. Warm appreciation was expressed of the support of Governor Sprout and Senator Penrose. Reminiscences of past work, including deputations to President Wilson, processions and jail experiences were a feature of the evening. The party broke up with smiling anticipation of the approaching enfranchisement and all of the party members and congratulations on the part of the one man present. The suffrage resolution will be voted on in the House on Tuesday morning and at 4:30 in the afternoon an automobile procession will be held in honor of the event. Mrs. J. Sharon MacDonald is grand marshal of the parade and is inviting the Governor and all of the members of the Legislature who have supported the suffrage measure to take part. Automobiles decorated in the suffrage colors will be at the Capitol entrance at 4:30 for the members of the Legislature and cars for other suffragists will start from Locust street between First and Third streets. It is expected that the Governor will lead the procession in the first car with Bishop Darlington, Miss Mary H. Ingham, chairman of the Pennsylvania branch of the National Woman's party, and other suffrage leaders. The procession will not last over an hour, as the women appreciate the difficulty that the Governor and members of the Legislature have in taking much time, even on so great an occasion, from their duties these last days of the session.

BRIDE OF WEEK IN THE RITZ-CARLTON

MISS CLARABELLE CLASTER

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Claster and family of Second and Briggs street, are leaving to-morrow for New York city to remain for the week. On Thursday evening, June 26 at 7 o'clock the marriage of their charming young daughter, Miss Clarabelle Claster to Clifford F. Solomon of New York, will take place in the crystal room of the Ritz-Carlton, with the Rev. Dr. Edward Lissman, of New York officiating in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and guests. The tall pillars of the room will be garlanded with greenery and white roses and the ceremonies will take place under a shell canopy of smilax, roses, orange blossoms and tiny electric lights. The bride, who will be given away by her father, has chosen a wedding gown of white chiffon over silver cloth with overdress of pearls and crystals. Her tulle veil, falling from a coronet of pearls and orange blossoms is bordered with lace and orange blossoms, extending into a graceful train. She will carry a shower bouquet of gardenias, roses and Victory blossoms. Miss Sylvia Claster, who will be maid of honor for her sister, is to wear a charming frock of creamy Chantilly lace with picture hat of Nile-green trimmed in ostrich and carry a French bouquet of orchids and ferns.

To Scatter Flowers Little Miss Mildred Claster, the flower girl, is wearing pink chiffon with a pink bonnet and will carry a basket of summer flowers to scatter before the bride. The best man is to be Eugene Mendelson, of New York. The wedding music will be played by the Ritz-Carlton Orchestra and after the ceremonies there will be a dinner and reception. The honeymoon will be spent with a boat trip to Canada, Maine and Point Comfort, the bride wearing for the journey a handsome suit of navy blue duvetyne with fringe and Turkish turban of navy blue metallic cloth. Later they will occupy apartments in New York, where Mr. Solomon is engaged in business. Miss Claster is a graduate of the Central High School, class of 1916, and completed her education at the Marcum School, Bryn Mawr. Mr. Solomon is a graduate of New York University and recently received his discharge from the Army, after serving with the famous Twenty-seventh Division.

THE GLARE OF THE SUN

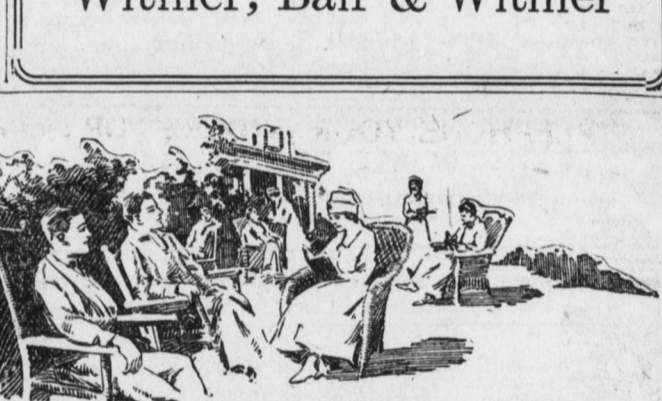

The glare of the sun is very hard on the eyes. Often a strong ray of light flashed on the eyes will cause severe and almost blinding eyeache. The glare of the sun on glass, water or some bright object will bring on distressing headache. Properly fitted lenses will prevent such consequences. I can make them up in your regular prescription. You will find them very beneficial for motoring, boating, traveling or working in strong sunlight or artificial light.

ANNOUNCEMENT

This Store Will Close at one o'clock Saturdays during July and August, with the exception of Saturday, July 5th, when it will be closed all day.

I had originally planned to inaugurate my summer schedule of closing at one o'clock on Saturday, July 5th. Then it occurred to me how much it would mean to my salesforce to have a full three days' vacation, Friday, the Fourth, Saturday the fifth and Sunday the sixth. It means a complete rest and relaxation with an opportunity to go to the shore or the mountains. I'm sure my patrons will agree with me that it's a fine idea to give my staff a full day's vacation Saturday, July fifth.

With the exception of Saturday, July fifth, however, my shop will close Saturdays during July and August at one o'clock. Please bear this in mind and plan to do your Saturday shopping during the cooler morning hours.

My shop will be open all day during the other days of the week. This includes Thursday.

To sum up: Closed Saturday afternoons during July and August, except Saturday, July fifth, when we'll be closed all day. Open all day Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday during July and August, except, of course, Friday, the glorious Fourth.
