Market Review Local Union Is Big Success

Name

Local Union Is Big Success One big success was the first an-nual banquet last night of Railroad Shopmen's Local Union, No. 584, sheet metal workers, plumbers and pipefitters. It was held at Penn-Harris Hotel and was attended by 200 members. The toastmaster was H. A. Bixler, secretary-treasurer of System Federation No. 90, and a charter member of the local organ-ization. In his opening address Toastmas-ter Bixler showed a big healthy or-ganization. Much good was accom-plished during the year and the membership almost to a man have been quite active in building up the organization. Other speakers in-cluded: Noah M. Jones, president System Federation No. 90; J. M. Burns, general organizer of the In-ternational Alliance; W. B. McNear, president of the local federation; A. C. Myer, president of district council; M. Callen, president Cen-tral Labor Union of Harrisburg; W. L. Blake, of Pittsburgh; secretary-treasurer of district council; H. E. Ellenberger, president Philadelphia and Reading Railroad System Fed-Sent on request for HT-400
