and dance; Bert and Rosedale in a hodge-podge of nonsense; Ben and Duffey, lively singers of lively songs, and the Five Princeton Girls, five distinct types of feminine loveliness in a pleasing offering which consists of singing, dancing, violin and piano playing.

Enormous crowds have been attending the Victoria theater this week where all People Like All Star Week is being celebrated.

The feature production for the first three days of this week is "Stolen Orders," a masterpiece of dramatic art. It tells the story of a man who has stolen war munition contracts. To-day is the last showing of this play. Tomorrow, Friday and Saturday—Anita Stewart and Earle Williams are co-starring in their first production, "A Rogue's Romance," an unusual film classic. Coupled with this attraction Tom Mix is being shown in "The Sheriff's Blunder."

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week Fannie Ward will be shown in one of the greatest screen dramas of the age entitled "Common Clay." This play which is being shown in all the large theaters at $2 a seat price.

Do you like stories of fellows who have done wrong and later repent. At the Colonial good, if not more, they accomplish than all the wrong they do. Earle Williams' latest screen success "A Rogue's Romance" playing today and to-morrow at the Colonial theater is just that type of a story. It wins a coronation.

Friday and Saturday, the advertisement in this paper says you will laugh one hour and do a great deal of good cheer in a dark room is even more ridiculous than expecting people to laugh during a funeral procession.

Therefore his new Arterial play, "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," shown at the Regent for the rest of the week is laid in bright cheerful interiors. The singing and dancing on sound constructive philosophy, not a preachy nature, but treated in a comedy-dramatic spirit. Fairbanks believes that the people of America like to laugh. He likes to laugh. Nervous system requires it. It is the object of his new picture to make him laugh, with the hope that it will bring a happy moment to those who know for the most part only sorrow and discontent.

An attractive cast appears in the support of Fairbanks, among whom are Marjorie Daw, and Edith Chapman.

The daring work of Calvert, the champion wire walker in his free exhibitions at Paxtang at Paxtang Park this week is a comment among those who have seen the show. Calvert's act is one that is seldom seen any where as an absolutely free attraction and should draw large crowds to Paxtang every evening. The vaudeville bill at the park theater

Ah, the fickleness of men and lions: us males are all alike. List to tale of Prince:
You should have known Prince in his prime before sorrow entered his life. There were those who would go into the menagerie in the old days and stand for hours before his cage, worshipping. He came from Nubia, where he used to lord it over the African desert and frighten pith-helmeted tourists out of their skins with his roaring. When the circus landed at the circus winter quarters, the cage cowed him for a while. Then his natural royalty surged up and he used to shake the building and send his fellow creatures into fits with his mighty voice.

He had jaws that could almost have bitten a steel rail in two and a side-whisker that would have knocked a champion's block off. And as for leonine manes! If he had been stuffed you would have said, "There ain't no such animal."
Then grief came a knocking at his door. It happened in winter. He had for years they had loved and roared together in their suite of barred bars. But last winter, Nellie died and Prince was inconsolable. He is an excellent show with Francis Earl and George Mullen in one of the classiest sketches of the season entitled "A Little of This and That." The act is elaborately staged and presented with a happy moment by the park audiences. Others on the park bill are Alexander and Fields, the Daley Brothers and the Martins.

LEMONEY BEATS NAUDAIN
Lemoney took Naudain into camp yesterday, 16-4, the home hitting before something fierce. Enswiler hit for the circuit and there were 12 other sound wallops off the Naudain flinger. Lemoney will play at Carlisle to-morrow evening. The club claims championship in the lower end of the county, and Carlisle holds it in the upper end. Yesterday's score:

Dauphin-Perry Notes
The Newport-Duncannon game, scheduled to be played at Duncannon on Saturday, has been transferred to Newport by reason of the fact that a Boy Scouts' Field Day is being held in Duncannon.

Considerable interest is being shown in the approaching game between Millersburg and Marysville, the two leaders, at Marysville on Saturday. Each team has won one game. A victory for Millersburg will place the Dauphin county team but one-half game from first place.

Announcement has been made by President E. Knauhs that a pennant has been offered to the team in first place at the end of the season by the Harrisburg Telegraph.
Four Marysville players are on the roster of the Commonwealth Travelers' team in the West End Twilight League, of Harrisburg. They include Killinger, catcher; Elsberger, pitcher; Gerdes, shortstop; J. Lightner, center field.
H. Wagner, crack outfielder of the Newport team, has been signed by the Motive Power contingent of the West End Twilight League.

NO REFEREE CHOSEN; WILLARD WANTS RICKARD; CHAMPION VERY POPULAR

Toledo, June 25.—Tex Rickard, promoter of the heavyweight championship contest between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey here July 4, last night held a meeting with Willard and Jack Kearns, manager of the challenger, and officials of the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control in an effort to solve the problem of selecting a referee to judge the contest. It was admitted that a deadlock had been reached.

They attribute the difficulty in naming the third man in the ring to the natural irritability which is always characteristic of athletes before an important contest.
Various reports were current last night that Willard had declared that he would accept Rickard as referee with no one else. Another report was to the effect that Kearns would insist upon either Jack Welch, of San Francisco, or Billy Brown, of New York. Willard is opposed to the plan of having two judges in addition to a referee.

Twenty-three hundred persons paid twenty-five cents each yesterday to visit the challenger's camp in anticipation of seeing him flatten out his sparring partners. Sergeant Willard, who was knocked out Monday, and the Jamaica Kid, another negro sparring mate, kept their chins out of harm's way. The big fellow standing erect and roaring like a young volcano. His eyes were bright again, his ribs disappearing.

John J. Reiser, known to the boxing fraternity as "John the barber," removed the last possible legal obstacle to the contest yesterday when he took his case against Dempsey into court at this time.
Willard says he will go to at top speed training until July 1 when he will appear. He is elated at the result of the examination made by Dr. W. A. Evans, of Chicago, who is he with the showing of the blood pressure tests. These reveal that Willard has the arterial elasticity that and youth of a man considerably under thirty years of age.

They show that his heart, lungs and other vital organs are functioning perfectly and that both nerves and muscles are under the control of the fighter's serene mind. The specialist examined Willard four years ago, just before the fight in which he defeated Jack Johnson for the championship of the world and his condition now, according to Dr. Evans, is better than at that time. Both camps are taking in a nice pot of money daily. The gate at the

Belgium to Receive First Reparations to Be Paid by Germany

Paris, June 25.—The council has signed a document giving formal approval to priority for Belgium in reparations to be paid by Germany to the amount of 2,500,000,000 francs. The council also confirmed the plan to wipe out the Belgian war debt through the substitution of German bonds for the Belgian obligations, the four great powers to take over the German bonds, subject to the approval of their respective legislative bodies. The bonds the powers propose to take over are of a special issue which the Peace Terms require Ger-
