YOUNGER WILHELM ESCAPES TO GERMANY FROM DUTCH EXILE; POWERS WARNED OF PURPOSE

American Officials Advised That Ex-Kaiser May Try

SON NOT LOOKED ON AS RADICAL

Former Hun Prince Unlikely to Lead Revolt at Home

By Associated Press. Paris, June 26.—Frederick William Hohenzollern, Teutons Choose Herman Muelthe former German Crown Prince, has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany. The news of the flight of the former kaiser's son reached the French capital this morning and was promptly bulletined by the newspapers.

Stirs Peace Circles

News of the escape of the ex-crown prince caused a considerable stir in Peace Conference circles. While it is not felt that he is a figure around which the reactionaries and monarchists would gather enthusiastically, nevertheless his act is regarded as an event of considerable significance in view of other German recalcitrancy.

Washington, June 26.-Confiden tial reports that the former German crown prince and also probably the former emperor would attempt the former emperor would attempt to re-enter Germany after the signing of the Peace Treaty, were received recently by government officials here. This became known today after an Associated Press dispatch telling of the escape of the crown prince had been received.

Details of Escape Lacking

Details of the manner in which the escape was effected were lacking, but the fact that the former prince had succeeded in crossing the border into Germany seemed well established.

Denies Intention

This generally was accepted by the public as an official announcement of the crown prince's intention to renounce his rights to the succession. Later, however, the crown prince denied any such intention in an interview given to the Associated Press correspondent at Oosterland, Holland, on December 3, 1918. At that time the crown prince said:

"I have not renounced anything have not renounced anything ments whatever.

"However," he continued, "should ments whatever.

"However." he continued, "should the German government decide to form a republic similar to that of the United States or France, I should be perfectly content to return to Germany as a simple citizen ready to do anything to assist my country. I should even be happy to work as a laborer in a factory.

"At present everything appears chaotic in Germany, but I hope things will right themselves.

Proof of Reuniciation

Despite this categorical statement, the semiofficial Wolff Bureau of Berlin, three days later, issued what was said to be the exact text of the crown prince's renunciation of his rights to the throne.

This document read:
"I renunce formally and definite.

the crown prince's renunciation of his rights to the throne.

This document read:

"I renounce formally and definitely all rights to the crown of Prussia and the imperial crown, which would have fallen to me by the renunciation of the emperor king, or for other reasons.

"Given by my authority and signed by my hand; done at Wieringen, December 1, 1918.

Holds Proof of Statement

The ex-crown prince has given numerous interviews to various correspondents since his arrival in Holland and has complained in some instances of having been misquoted. As regards the Associated Press interview mentioned, however, the correspondent who obtained it holds an autographed letter from the excrown prince in which the latter states that in this interview was quoted correctly in every particular.

Germany Must Pay For Fleet

By Associated Press.

Paris, June 26.—Germany has been notified in a note sent to-day by the Allies that they possess the right to punish the persons responsible for the destruction of the German ships and to collect reparation for the loss.

The sinking of the fleet is denounced as a violation of the armistice and a deliberate breach in advance of the con-ditions of peace. When the investigations have been completed, the note states, the Allies will exact "the necessary

Germany has chosen its envoys to sign the Allied peace terms. They are therman Mueller, the foreign minister, and Dr. Bell, the colonial minister. They are to leave Berlin on Friday for Versailles. It is likely the treaty will be signed at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

The Council of Three apparently is satisfied with the semiofficial assurances that the German delegates will be on hand, although it was said early to-day that if Germany was not heard from by to-night an ultimatum giving a certain number of hours in which to get its plenipotentiaries to Versailles would be sent forthwith to Berlin.

Paul Dutasta, secretary of the Peace Conference, went to Versailles this morning seeking information and was informed orally by Dr. Haniel Von Haimhausen that the German signatories might arrive by Saturday, but that he was unable to speak authoritatively.

Later information from the German capital gave what was regarded as definite assurance that the peace ambassadors had been chosen and would leave for Versailles on Friday to attach Germanny's official acceptance to the solemn covenant. London, dispatches indicate that disorders are increasing in Berlin. Many of the streets are barricaded and there have been serious engagements between government troops and mobs.

The Salvation Army headquarters at 456 Verbeke street was a point of no little interest to-day when the tiny baby boy who wants to become a mem-ber of some kind folks' family was on ber of some kind folks' family was on view, snuggled close to his mother's breast. Mr. and Mrs. Captain Neilson have not announced the name of the mother, but the fact, is that she finds herself unable to take care of her wee small boy and wishes some good person to adopt him. The youngster is four months old, of dark eyes and hair and seems to be very good tempered, says Mrs. Neilson. A number of persons called this afternoon and it is believed there will be no difficulty in finding the baby a comfortable home.

HAUGHTY HUN IS

FINED 1,000 MARKS

By Associated Press.

Coblenz, June 26.— Captain Bachhauser, assigned by the German army to duty in Coblens, was fined 1,000 marks yesterday for refusing to salute an American lieutenant. The captain contended the war was over and that, anyway, the regulations did not call for his saluting an officer of lower rank. This is the first instance of an action of this kind since a definite turn was taken in the peace situation.

American officers say that after the Treaty of Peace is signed the regulation issued last December compelling German officers to salute will probably not be enforced. Civilians generally have seemed relieved as a result of the action of the German Assembly at Weimar in reference to Hints have come from Germany within the past few days that the military caste there would not be averse to bringing about a military situation within the former empire that would embarrass the Allies in putting the Peace Treaty into effect, and it seem not improbable that the move made by the excrown prince is connected with some such plan.

Interned by Holland
The former crown prince made his way into Holland shortly after the signing of the armistice last November and was interned there by the Dutch government, taking uphis residence on the Island of Wieringen, in the Zeyder Zee.

Two days before the armistice was signed, a decree issued by the German Imperial Chancelor. Prince Max of Baden, announcing a decision of the former German emperor to abdicate, stated:

"The Imperial Chancelor will remain in office until the questions connected with the abdication of the kaiser, the renouncing by the crown prince of the throne of the German empire and of Prussia and the setting up of the regency have been in the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Amsterdam reports. Because of the widespread interest in Germany's action in signing the Peace Treaty, it was decided to have bells rung and whistles blown to announce it. A number of Harrisburg boys are still in service overseas. As soon as the pact is signed and the war officially ended, the demobilization of all the forces overseas, except in the smal, army of occupation, will be completed and the boys sent home.

Mayor Keister requested that no whistles be blown or bells rung until the time given in the notice to the various industrial p'ants and fire companies.
