Eighty Glasses of Sparkling Root Beer Less Than 1c a Glass

A long, cool drink, deliciously fizzy, snappy, and wholesome!

You can have it whenever you want it, and you can drink as much as you want, because it is so very wholesome—just the juices of roots, herbs, bark, and berries—sixteen in all—winter-green, sarsaparilla, birch-bark, pilsenswa and other splendid natural flavors—not a substitute nor artificial flavor among them.

Gather up your bottles—all those old ones that are cluttering up the cellar. Now look for corks—if you haven't any good ones, it will be best to get Hires specially designed bottle stoppers—they're air-tight, and your grocer carries them.

Get one bottle of Hires Household Extract, costing but 25c, four pounds of sugar, and one yeast cake. Mix these ingredients as directed.

Now you've forty bottles of sparkling root beer. Eighty whole glasses!

Just think! A nice cool glass when you're a bit fagged. A treat for the kiddies. A refreshing drink for summer evening times.

You'll want it around most all the time, because all sorts of folks, kiddies to grown-ups, like home-made Root Beer.

Heal Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching, torturing skin. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied, and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress.

OFFICIALS HERE ON INSPECTION OF READING LINES

Start at Lebanon, Stop in This City; Look Over Yards at Rutherford

With the probability of an early return of the railroads to private ownership extensive inspections are being made on all lines. Conditions are being recorded along with the work in the way of repairs, improvements and equipment.

The officials will be held in the grange hall at Green Park at eight o'clock next Thursday evening.

James M. Barnett, well-known lawyer, of New Bloomfield, will give a reading of the will of the late John S. Eby, of Newport, former Perry County representative in the Legislature, which will be the principal speaker of the occasion.

WELCOME HOME FOR SOLDIERS

Landsburg, Pa., June 26.—Plans for the welcoming home of returned soldiers of Spring and Tyrone townships and Landsburg borough, are now being made by a large committee of citizens of the district.

Reading officials were here yesterday. They came from Lebanon where an extensive inspection was made. The officials went by automobile to various points near Lebanon to locate a water supply in order that the present supply may be increased.

Friendship Men Have Big Plans For Tonight's Session

Business of importance is on the calendar for to-night's meeting of the Friendship and Co-operative Club. The meeting will be held at Eagle's Hill, Sixth and Cumberland streets, starting at 8.15. It will be the first session in two months and probably the last until September.

Railroad Notes

Passenger Engineer John Curry reports a big garden crop at his home in New Cumberland.

Some big doings at the meeting of the Friendship and Co-operative Club to-night.

Members of the 414th Telegraph Battalion with Maj. M. A. Laucks of this city and other Harrisburg employees of the Reading will arrive in New York on Saturday.

The bell system of calling flagmen of passenger trains when train stops at Tyrone is working satisfactorily. It has been in operation at the Lancaster station for some time and does away with the necessity of calling by engine whistle.

All bridges on the Reading are being given a thorough inspection.

The row shops of the Cornwall railroad at Lebanon are completed and running full time on repairs.

Reports show good time for all passenger trains on the main line of the Pennsylvania. Philadelphia division records at a high standard there being very few delays. Wrecks on the Middle division have caused tieups.

Pennsylvania railroad officials report a scarcity of ice and sugar economy.

Efficiency tests on the Juniata division of the Pennsylvania show 100 per cent.

On Wednesday a total of 5,597 cars were moved over the Middle division.

A cylinder head on a passenger engine blew out yesterday afternoon at the Pennsylvania station, delaying the 3.45 train eastbound for a very short time.

The Pennsy has established a new camp for workmen at Landsburg. Extensive track improvements are being made at this point.

New turntables will be constructed at Renovo, East Altoona and Pitsburgh to accommodate the new type of freight engines now being used on the Pennsy.

Effective June 1, after 51 years continuous and faithful service Charles L. Kimball, assistant general passenger agent, Pennsylvania lines, Chicago, Ill., was placed on the pension list. He is succeeded by F. W. Conner transferred from Pittsburgh.

Effective June 29, the Pennsylvania Railroad will place in effect its summer schedule to Atlantic City. Three trains will be added via the Delaware river bridge route and five steam and 14 electric trains via Market street wharf, Philadelphia, making a total of 45 trains between Philadelphia and Atlantic City via that company's three routes.

ROBBERS HELD FOR COURT

Lewisport, Pa., June 26.—Four meat thieves who operated in Juniata, Mifflin and Snyder counties, stealing hams from farmers and selling them at Lewisport, Burnham and other places from an automobile they stole near Duncan, have been held for court in the sum of $1,000 bail each. They are also accused of having threatened Chief of Police McKinley, of Burnham, with a revolver and of having made gunfight with Mifflin county officers who arrested them. The men are Harry Seifred, Banks Seifred, Isaac Seifred and Reed Rhodes, the three former of McAllisterville, the latter of near Reedsville.
