MUSICIANS WED IN CHURCH AT NOON

MR. AND MRS. VESPER C. SMITH

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place at noon to-day in the Maclay Street Church of God, when Miss Ethyl Margaret Dissinger and Vesper Carson Smith were united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. William S. Houck in the presence of many friends of the couple, under a bower of roses and laurel.

Following a trip to Baltimore, Washington and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home at 524 Maclay street, where they will receive their friends after July 15.

The bride, a daughter of James M. Dissinger, of Maclay street, is a gifted musician of the West End and has been connected with the revenue accounting department of the Bell Telephone Company. Mr. Smith is widely known also in musical circles as a member of the old Eighth Regiment band. He is a son of Mrs. Amanda J. Smith, 1727 North Fourth street, and an assistant stockman at Lucknow.

HARPER-MACKEY NUPTIALS TODAY

Early Morning Ceremony For Miss Esther Mackey and Truman Leroy Harper

The first June bride of to-day was Miss Esther Mackey, daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Mackey, 241 North Fourteenth street whose marriage to Truman Leroy Harper of this city, took place at 9 o'clock this morning in the Fourth Street Church of God, with the Rev. Dr. William N. Yates, officiating.

Professor Swartz, the church organist, played the "Bridal Chorus" and the Mendelssohn wedding march for the bridal party and during the ceremony, Mrs. Ernest Keys sang softly, "O, Promise Me."

The bride was attired in a dainty frock of white Georgette crepe headed with satin girdle and a large hat of white crepe and lace. Her bouquet was of bride roses and fern tied with white tulle.

Miss Marian Harper, the bridegroom's sister, as maid of honor, wore a pretty frock of palest pink Georgette with picture hat of white crepe and carried roses and sweet peas. Henry Bruce was best man.

A wedding breakfast at the Penn-Harris was enjoyed before the newlyweds took the train for Niagara Falls where part of the honeymoon will be spent prior to a sight seeing trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Harper will make their home for the present at 241 North 24th street.

The bride, who was graduated with the Central High School class of 1913 and has been a bookkeeper for the Bell Telephone Company since that time, Mr. Harper, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harper, 323 South 18th street has recently been discharged from the United States Army. He was with the 108th Field Artillery, Keystone Division, in France and Belgium and is now a clerk for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Marysville.

Miss Katherine Vanderloo, a trained nurse in the Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C., arrived to-day to spend a short vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vanderloo, 319 North Second street. Miss Selma Poetz, of South Carolina, will be the guest of Miss Vanderloo during her visit home.
