BOY SCOUT PLANS AT MILLERSBURG

Scout Executive Virgin, of Harrisburg, Helping to Organize Several Troops

Millersburg, Pa., June 27.—Under the leadership of Scout Executive Virgin, of Harrisburg, plans were completed for an active Boy Scout organization in Millersburg. Committees from the Methodist, Lutheran, Reformed and Evangelical churches were present and promised to organize a troop in their respective churches. The local council composed of thirty leading business and professional men elected the following officers: President, A. G. Bashear; vice-presidents, C. P. Polk, Dr. D. E. Hottenstein and J. F. Adams; secretary, M. L. Burser; treasurer, J. A. Brubaker; executive committee, E. Nimmons, L. M. Shepp, the Rev. L. E. Bair, Warren L. Mark, a retired manufacturer was selected as Scout executive. Mr. Mark has arranged to spend a week or ten days at the camp of the Harrisburg Scouts at Mount Holly Springs.

Troop No. 1 has a membership of 15 boys, with the Rev. J. H. Barnes, scoutmaster. This troop holds its meetings in the Methodist church. Troop No. 2 has a membership of 21 boys, C. W. Rubendall, is scoutmaster; the Rev. M. L. Burger and Lee L. Lehman, assistant scoutmasters. Troop No. 3, Marlin L. Weaver, scoutmaster, the Rev. J. H. Musser, man and Frank Link, assistant scoutmasters, has a membership of 20. Troop No. 4 will be organized from the boys of the Reformed church. The Rev. L. E. Bair will be the scoutmaster.

A committee has been appointed to consider plans for a swimming pool, but the river and creek do not provide very inviting pools on account of the coal dirt.

LINEMAN SERIOUSLY HURT
Liverpool, Pa., June 27.—S. H. Bair, lineman of the Juniata Public Service Company, was seriously injured while repairing damage on the line at Newport. While suspended on the electric pole the strap by which he was held broke and he fell to the ground, a distance of 20 feet, breaking and dislocating his arm, cutting a hole in his head and sustaining internal injuries. He was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital.

PECORD, RICKARD AND BIDDLE ARE BOUT OFFICIALS

Toledo Boxing Commission Wins Referee For Big Bout on Fourth of July

Toledo, Ohio, June 27.—Ollie Pecord, official referee of the Toledo Boxing Commission, will be the third man in the ring when Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey meet in their heavyweight championship contest, here July Fourth. Tex Rickard and Major A. J. Drexel Biddle, a wealthy sportsman, of Philadelphia, were selected to serve with Pecord as judges of the contest. Jack Skelly, a veteran ring official, of Yonkers, N. Y., was chosen alternate referee, and W. Warren Barbour, of New York, official timekeeper.

Announcement of the appointment of these officials was made by Promoter Rickard to-day upon the receipt of a telegram from Adam Empey, secretary of the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, which undertook the task of making the selections.

The announcement that Rickard and Biddle had been named judges and alternate referee, respectively, was regarded as certain that Bill Brown, of New York, and Jack Welch, of San Francisco, would be the two main event referees.

The selection of Pecord is regarded as a concession to the Toledo Boxing Commission, under whose license the Willard-Dempsey match will be staged. He will be in complete charge of the boxers while they are in the ring. If the contest results in a knockout, he will have sole charge of the counting. If the contest goes the twelve-round limit, the two judges will attempt to decide the winner and if they fail to agree, Pecord will cast the deciding vote.

The appointment of Rickard as a judge was one of the demands of Champion Jess Willard, Rickard said to-day.

Hamaker Damage Suit in Perry Court to Be Retried
New Bloomfield, Pa., June 27.—The trial of the suit of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Hamaker, of that township, for damages from Watts township for the death, through alleged negligence, of their two daughters several years ago, is scheduled for trial at the August session of Perry county court.

Considerable interest has been maintained in this case throughout the proceedings. The two daughters were killed when an oil wagon slid over a steep embankment in Watts township and it was alleged that the supervisors had neglected to provide a guard rail of sufficient strength. Perry county court, after hearing the case, awarded damages of $55 for each of the deaths and the case was appealed to the Superior Court after a retrial had been refused in Perry county court. The Superior Court held that the award was so grossly unjust that a new trial should be held.

SAYS GERMANS WILL GET PARIS

Chautauqua Lecturer Forecasts German Victory in 1929

Mount Wolf, June 27.—More than 1,000 persons yesterday attended the afternoon and evening sessions, which marked the formal opening of the York Haven, Mount Wolf and Manchester Community Chautauqua, which is to continue until next Monday, inclusive. The 600 seats were well occupied at the opening session yesterday afternoon, while last night every one of them were taken, a number being obliged to stand. The Del Mar quartet, composed of four talented musicians, gave a vocal and instrumental concert at the evening session. Harold Fever, of the English Intelligence Department, concluded the first evening's entertainment with a lecture, dealing on the great World's War.

He said in part, "Germany is not satisfied and the war is not over," and further predicted that Germany would enter Paris in 1929. Fever was attached to the British Admiralty as a spy in Germany during the war.

He claims to be the only man able to get photographs of the Krupp plant without being detected and during his lecture he showed numerous pictures which had been taken by him at the risk of his life. He replaced Harwood Spicer, of London, Eng., on the program, the latter being unable to get passports to come to the United States. Fever also told how the Germans prepared for the war by teaching the boys and girls to dig trenches and how Germany would control the world, and said that the children are being taught the same thing to-day.
