

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE BOY SCOUTS

TROOP 22 WILL LEAVE FOR CAMP

Going to Mt. Holly Springs on Monday Morning Next

Well, here we are again in the Scout page, after what we must confess, a pretty long absence. Well, I will tell you why it was. You know now the farmers and truckers plant asparagus. They bury the roots deep in the ground and cover it over. Then they get to the top in order to see the sun again. That's about the way it has been with us here—simply covered with work. Since school has closed the scoutmaster has certainly rubbed it in on us, and about the only spare time we had we used in reading what the other Troops were doing. Now we are coming to the end and you will hear from us often.

We have our Troop newspaper which is edited once a week. The different patrols taking turns. This contains most of the troop news and also news of the community in general. At each regular meeting after rollcall and inspection, the "Troop 22 Rattler," as it is called, is read by a member of the patrol who has it in charge that week, and to the fellows who are not able to be there, I'll say that this is certainly a great feature of the meeting. Last week, Volume 3, edited by the Pine Tree patrol contained five pages. Some fun! At our next meeting as Scouts of the cubs will receive as Scouts with two transfers and one application—making six more Scouts. Starting June 1, the old record book in the troop room was started anew. Now in order for a fellow to be eligible for annual camping he must average a gain of 22 points per month. Every boy in on his toes. Wouldn't it be a body is to see the other fellow start off to camp and you not be allowed to go alone.

Now here is something I almost forgot. On Monday, June 20, we start for Mt. Holly Springs. Everybody report at the troop room at 8 a. m., rain or shine.

We are going 100 per cent, and oh, what's the use. We will see each other down there and then—well it's only two more days. Oh, boy! We all hope by the time we are in print the Germans will be in print. We have hunted up enough ink to sign that paper, and we can all rejoice together. Yours, SWEIGART, Scribe.

Plan Peace Celebration by Boy Scout Troops

It now is absolutely certain that we will hold our peace and celebration within a very few days, and the signing of peace terms must not catch us unprepared for the biggest demonstration of scouting every put across in Harrisburg. We must be prepared. There is quite a large quantity of combustible material on hand at the storage depot, but if the celebration is to be a success we must want it to be, the boys must collect all the material possible.

The medals and bars for the Victory Loan are here, and will be distributed on Monday, June 24, in uniform if possible. The boys will meet us there and the parade will form. The only signal for this celebration will be the blowing of whistles and the ringing of bells, so when the noise begins, we must know that your place is with the rest of the Scouts on State street.

New Scout Troop Was Organized; 15 Members

Harrisburg is the proud possessor of a new troop of Scouts—Troop 23, of the Bellevue Park Association, which was officially organized May 1, 1919. We have in all fifteen members, and our officers are as follows: Scoutmaster, Frank G. Fahnestock, Jr.; assistant, Harold Norby; scribe, R. Doehne; treasurer, G. W. Spahr; first patrol leader, G. V. Doehne; second patrol leader, Paul Hess.

Our scoutmaster who is first lieutenant in the P. R. Militia, is giving us many drills, necessary for perfect marching. After we were fully organized, we visited Troop 8 and learned many useful things.

Splendid Way To Reduce Your Weight

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the effect of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, sagging, flabby figure and forty-pitch waist "give us away."

CAMP HACOBOSCAM

One of the best things at camp are the cats, and the cooks are among the most popular people in the camp. The way food disappears at camp meals is certainly surprising. One small Scout said he "loaded up" before he left home, thinking that perhaps he wouldn't get enough to eat. He confessed to Camp Director Rees that he was sorry because he couldn't begin to do justice to the first meal in camp. One case of homesickness (it always happens)—but this fellow was a Wolf Cub and it was his first time away from home.

Troop 11 Takes Hike Through Clark's Valley

Last Thursday Troop 11 went on another overnight hike up in Clark's Valley for two nights at Mr. Bailey's farm, before we left the truck came and got our baggage to take up for us; we ate lunch at Byers' grove about midway between Dauphin and our destination, while we were there some people from Harrisburg came to picnic and some of the children went in the water. One of them was trying to carry a small baby across and they both fell in, so Edward Hawes went in and rescued them.

Most of the time we played baseball and went in swimming, but went on one hike through the mountains, up to the lumber camp, which is a very interesting place. And we hunted for an old Indian spring that a farmer told us about. The Indians had put large stoneware jars in the ground, and several cherry trees on the farm. The second evening we were there they brought a freezer of ice cream which tasted mighty good. We also had lots of milk during the day whenever we wanted it. There were 22 along and we had a great hike. C. L. REBUCK, Scribe.

TROOP 16 MEETS SCOUT ASSISTANT

Mr. Phillips Welcomed by 48 Members; Plan Big Hike

Forty-eight fellows were present at our joint meeting last Friday night to welcome Assistant Scoutmaster Phillips. Mr. Phillips was a member of the 79th Division and saw a lot of service in the Argonne Forest. His account of his experiences deserved the careful attention that it received. After the meeting the refreshment committee, headed by Assistant Scoutmaster Wieland, served lemonade and pretzels, and say it was some thirty minutes, but they weren't able to drink all the lemonade. That's the first time anything was ever left at an affair at our troop. The pretzels, two cans of them, lasted about fifteen minutes. Dr. Hazen, our deputy commissioner, came in for a few minutes when the meeting was about over and the kitchen police were in the act of cleaning up. We hope to have him soon again. Two Scout and one Cub applications were received and dues. We had to get help to carry the money home. The camping bug has bitten sixteen and Pack Two pretty hard. Headed by Foose, Scouts Saunders, Houston and Buller, and Cubs Cresco, Adams and Charles R. Book are spending two weeks at the Scout camp at Mount Holy. Then Wilbur Criswell is in charge of an overnight hike to the Hut this week. His party will consist of Scouts Friedrich, Weitzel, Grand, and Cleon Criswell. Last night the Cubs had a supper hike to Spooky Hollow and to-night if the peace parade doesn't interfere we are going to Eberly's Mills for supper. Meet at the Square at 6 o'clock with a lunch and fourteen cents carfare. CHISWELL AND CUNKLE, Scribes.

Wolf Patrol of Troop 13 Wins in Contest

The Wolf Patrol, of Troop 13 won the interpatrol contest which was a competition among the five patrols. This contest had been going on for fifteen weeks. The Scoutmaster presented Scout stars as prizes to the winners. The Cobra Patrol, which came in second, was given enough staves for half the patrol. Last April, when W. H. German was made commissioner the first troop he visited was Troop 13. That night he offered a prize to the patrol who by June 15, could win the highest number of points in taking tests. This contest has been won by the Cobra Patrol, which had only one more point than the Wolf Patrol. A Scout ax was the prize.

Troop 13 has a new assistant scoutmaster, Boyd Cocklin, who has seen overseas service in the Signal Corps. He will instruct our Scouts in troop signaling and map making, and a team will be instructed in signaling for exhibition competition work. CHAS. KRAUSE, Scribe.

Troop 20 Holds Second Anniversary Reception

On June 6, Troop 20 held its second anniversary. Scout Commissioner German and Deputy Commissioner Foose, and the Rev. Dr. Fyles were present and gave short addresses, after which refreshments were served.

The following Thursday the troop gathered wood for the Victory Fire. We expected to see a large pile, but our expectations failed to materialize. Honest, Scouts, I don't believe there was enough there to make a bonfire like we used to make on the common when we were kids. We took two large automobile truck loads there which swelled the pile considerably, but a dozen more truck loads wouldn't be any too much for the fire.

Troop 14 ON HIKE

The regular meeting of Troop 14, Zion Lutheran Church, on Friday night, was in charge of Scoutmaster Burgeon and Assistant Lowery. Camp was discussed and several hikes were planned. After the business was concluded the Morse and Semaphore codes were practiced.

TROOP 19 REORGANIZED

Troop 19, at Grace Methodist Church, is in process of reorganization. Mr. John Miller has accepted the position as Scoutmaster and tonight Dr. Hazen, Deputy Commissioner, and Field Executive Huntsberger will be present to assist in reorganizing. Grace Methodist Church has a large number of boys in its Sunday school and Troop 19 should develop into one of the largest troops in the city.

What a pity she doesn't know Resinol would clear her skin. "She would be a pretty girl, if it wasn't for that pimply, blotchy complexion!" But the regular use of Resinol Soap, aided at first by a little Resinol Ointment, would probably make it clear, fresh and charming. If a poor skin is your handicap, begin using the Resinol treatment and see how quickly it improves.
