

ARMY GETS BIG PRICES FOR AUTOS

Used Machines Are Selling Higher Than the Original Cost Abroad

By Associated Press. London, June 30.—American Army motor transport in England is not cost the United States Government anything for machines, according to figures prepared at Army headquarters here. Astonishing prices have been paid here for machines the Army has placed on auction, touring cars in scores of instances bringing more than the original cost, even though they have been rather hard usage for months. The Army purchased a number of cars of a light popular type for $450 each and these have sold for as high as $1,000 after being used eight months. Another machine, the average purchasing price for which was $1,085, has brought as much as $1,890 at the auction sales. "The prices bid for touring cars has been absolutely amazing," Major J. C. Weller, head of the motor transport unit in the Quartermaster Department here, told the Associated Press, "a great deal higher than we would have dared ask on straight sales."

Altogether, the Army had 592 touring cars, trucks, ambulances, motorcycles and bicycles for its work of transporting about 1,000,000 men through England. Only a dozen of these have been reserved to be used in the final clearing out of headquarters in London. Good prices have been obtained for the trucks and ambulances, exceptionally good prices when compared with what second-hand motors bring in the United States, but the greatest demand has been for the touring cars, motorcycles and bicycles.

England never did build such vehicles in quantity and during the war none were built for private use. Now the demand is so great that actual values have been almost discarded entirely.

Some observers place this demand in the same category with the insatiable desire of women for the finest of finery at unprecedented prices which even then the shops cannot supply, or other luxurious demands of people who would hardly have thought of such things before the war.

The Four Haley Sisters, an excellent girl quartet, is one of the features of the Majestic bill the first of the week. Their repertoire consists of popular melodies, and this alone will make the act a favorite with local theatergoers, for after all it is the music that is sung as only a professional knows how to sing them, that one likes to hear. Another comedy skit, offered by Grew and Pates, entitled: "His Master's Voice." Other acts on the bill are June and Irene Melva, two pretty girls playing high class and popular selections on the xylophone; Emily Darrell, dainty comedienne, in her latest comedy idea, "Late for Rehearsal," and the Busch Brothers in a bounding pad novelty.

It is estimated there are at least 5,000 motion picture fans in Harrisburg alone who follow every new release of the "Spark Divine." Alice Joyce e. For the benefit of this 5,000 people the Colonial management desires to announce that to-day and to-morrow this popular screen artist is being featured in her latest screen vehicle, entitled: "The Spark Divine," a picture that carries an appeal to every girl in Harrisburg.

Wednesday and Thursday, Viola Dana, the girl from gay Paree, will be featured in "Some Bride."

She was a young girl tired of everyday life, so she desired pleasure. The pleasure she sought led her to a dance hall. Later she was caught in a sweeping police raid. The desk sergeant claimed everyone caught in the raid were degenerates. She stood up for her rights and won. But the winning of her rights and the famous Harvard Prize Play, which is now showing at Stanley's Victoria theater, one of the greatest motion pictures ever shown in Harrisburg at regular motion picture prices.

Critics allege the courtroom scene alone is worth more than the admission price. Did you ever see one woman wear $250,000 worth of clothes? Kitty Gordon screen star does this in her latest production, which is coming to the Victoria theater, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

If you want to make an excursion in time, just climb into a seat at the Regent Theater to-day or to-morrow, you'll find yourself back in the "Puppy Love" at the Regent and all the world before you. Lila Lee is the star of "Puppy Love" which is guaranteed to transport you into the past. Miss Lee is torn ruthlessly from his side, the hood carrier who has inherited wealth. She is pretty and full of the joy of life. Her sweetheart is romantic also. At the time when their "love" has become a tremendous passion, she is torn ruthlessly from his side and sent away to a town which is overrun with old maids.

Anyone who knows Jess Willard, the champion heavyweight pugilist, has a hard time picturing him in the "Challenge of Chance" as a regular, knock-em-down film hero, but he is just the same in "The Challenge of Chance." Jess Willard is 6 feet 6 inches and weighs 250 pounds, and when he hops in front of the camera for some show work that he made Doug Fairbanks, Bill Hart, Bill Farnum, red-blooded picture heroes, he gives a pretty good account of himself.

There is a snappy story cavorting around the star. It tells a wild tale of a man who comes to a Mexican village. Centered in the fracas is a girl, who owns a string of rare horses, a good-for-nothing horse trader, and a forbidding lot of Mexicans.

Arline Pretty, a Harrisburg girl, is the pugilist's leading woman and appears to fulfill all the requirements of a movie star.

This production which was shown to capacity audiences at the Park Theater at the Regent Theater, N. Y. last week, will be Thursday, the Fourth and Saturday.

This week's bill at the Paxtang Park Theater will have as a feature a vaudeville act, "The Show Flash of Mirth, Music and Melody that is sure to tickle the hearts of the vaudeville fans. The act is typically Scotch in wit and melody that is sure to be a good guarantee for their ability to entertain. The Fedgies' Japs, said to be Japan's foremost aerialists will also be a feature of the week's bill at Paxtang. This act is one of the acrobatic sensations of the season. John Healy, a wild colored parson of minstrel fame with his quaint stories and songs will be heard on the park bill this week as will Martin and Walters in their lippant farce, "I Can Prove It," and Nelson's Rats and Cats, one of the most unique animal acts on the stage.

On Thursday evening, July third, the park management will offer their first fireworks display of the season. This being the night before the serious Fourth, Manager Davis has arranged for a pyrotechnical display that will merit the occasion. During the past two seasons war restrictions made it impossible to get much good material for fireworks but this season there is no ban on fireworks and the park manager is going to buy some real ones. The display will be given on the hill at the rear of the park theater immediately after the performance in the theater is over.

Changes Made in the Omsk Cabinet

By Associated Press. Tokio, June 30.—Official advices from Omsk indicate that the following changes have recently taken place in the cabinet of the provisional government: The Ministers of Interior, Justice and Public Instruction, A. Gattenberg, S. Stankevitch and Professor Sapogenikoff, have resigned and have been succeeded, respectively, by the Vice-Minister of the Interior, Mr. Peplialoff, of the Cadet party, former member of the Duma; Professor Tallberg and the Vice-Minister of Public Instruction, Mr. Preobrajensky. As all these men were already serving in the provisional government, the changes do not indicate any modifications in the policy followed by the cabinet.

By an order of the Omsk government, General Ivanoff-Rinoff has been recalled from Vladivostok. He commanded the Siberian armies of the eastern provinces.

Says New Minister Will Be Independent of Church Supporter

New York, June 30.—According to the Rev. Dr. Earle B. Cross, of the National Committee of Northern Baptist Laymen, the day of the minister who had to bow three times or his church approaching, is soon going to be a thing of the past. The new minister is going to be independent. Business men who used the church as a cloak are going to learn that they can't get away with their old high handed methods. They who go to church on Sunday and worship the amighty dollar the rest of the week are not going to be able to dictate to the clergyman, order him to tone down his sermons and not to mention things which are distasteful to them.

"Spirituality is an amulet worn by people who are afraid of God," declared Dr. Cross. "Spirituality is an idol of men who have created God in their own image. True spirituality has calloused hands, sweats, has a healthy appetite, laughs, plays and gives every man a square deal. When in these tragedy-sobered days a spiritual leader speaks from the pulpit, worship puts off its ripples and kneels in contrition, respectable sins blush for shame, and million-dollar thieves with fancy alibis get up and leave the room."

Movie Theaters Make Rio de Janeiro Street Resemble U. S. City

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, June 30.—A North American arriving in Rio de Janeiro and traversing the main street of the city, Avenida Rio Branco, can with little mental effort imagine himself in New York, Boston, San Francisco or almost any city of the United States, owing to the extensive use of American-made moving picture films, which have in the last three years become exceedingly popular, to the exclusion of European-made films.

Moving picture theaters or cinematographs as they are known here, line both sides of the avenida in the section where it passes through the heart of the downtown district. Large posters with the names and pictures of North American stars are to be seen in almost every direction. The Brazilians have their favorites, know their respective qualities and can, in fact, converse as knowingly of the North American moving picture world as can the enthusiasts of the United States.

Krupp Tells Workers Orders Are Lost by Strikes of the Men

Essen, June 30.—Krupp's works here have had issued a statement to their workers drawing attention to the fact that by their strikes and the consequent unrest in Germany, important orders have been lost. A case has been cited of a contract with a great Dutch concern which was broken and went to England, despite the much lower price quoted by Germany, because the Dutch mistrusted the ability of Krupp's to carry out the contract. Similarly steel deliveries for the Norwegian state railroad were given to an American firm. This also at a far higher price.

Sunday Racing at Berlin Takes on New Spurt in Gate Receipts

By Associated Press. Berlin, June 30.—Sunday racing at Grunewald established a new record with 22,000 marks gate receipts, while the betting sheds handled 5,500,000 marks, the latter sum being increased to seven millions through advanced downtown betting.

Archangel Puts on Businesslike Front

By Associated Press. Archangel, June 30.—Six months ago Archangel was a gay, war-time capital, with hundreds of Russian soldiers in its streets and very few of them at the front. To-day it is becoming sober, businesslike and engaged in only one pursuit—fighting the Bolsheviks.

The change came about in the winter. Last autumn the Russian military forces were small and the civilian and promade-the-streets officer class made merry while Americans and British and French fought their battles at the front. But all the time, the people were being trained and trained. There was doubt in nearly every mind about the ability of the newly-trained Russians to fight. Late in the winter, when the Bolshevik offensive was at its height, Russian mobilized troops were thrown into the line. They made good, and from that moment, with only a few little setbacks now and then, the Russians have been keeping up the pace.

For six months they relied upon strangers to fight for them, but from the moment they began to find themselves the Russians developed a morale that has brought about countless changes, not only at the front, but behind the lines, in once easy-going Archangel.

Coal Shortage Next Winter Is Probable

By Associated Press. Chicago, June 30.—Government coal production figures point to "the greatest coal shortage in history" next winter, unless production is stimulated immediately 25 per cent or more, according to a statement made public by F. S. Peabody, chairman of the National Coal Association's special committee dealing with the prospective shortage. "The information gathered by the committee is that at the present rate of production and industrial plant out of every eight in the United States will have to shut down next winter for lack of coal," said the statement.
