Tokio, June 30 .- For the first time

n the history of Japan the people have cheered their monarchs. Popular celebrations were held in Tokic to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the removal of the imperial capital from Kioto to Tokio and the thirtieth anniversary of the establishment of Tokio as a municipality.

For two days the people of the metropolis gave themselves up to en-thusiastic rejoicings. The city was gay with festoons, flags and magnificent evergreen arches,

Emperor Yoshihito with his consort and Crown Prince Hirohito drove through the packed streets in oper coaches and bowed in acknowledgement of the respectful "banzai" of the multitude.

Rome, June 30.—Testifying to the States, the Chile for the United States, the Chilean ambassador to Italy, Signor Enrique Villégas, remained in the United States embassy during the Fiume demonstrations here in order to assure Thomas Nelson Page, the American ambassador, that Chile wanted to show her staunch loyalty to America.

The American embassy had been guarded during the demonstrations by 500 Italian troops so that access to the building was extremely difficult. Signor Villegas succeeded in gaining admission past the military guard and assured the American ambassador of his country's and his personal friendship for America.

Next day the Cuban minister, Signor Antonio Martin Rivero, called at the embassy to pay his repects and to state that he had been prevented from visiting the American ambassador while the demonstrations were in progress. WROTE MOTHER EACH WEEK coaches and bowed in acknowledgement of the respectful "banzai" of the multitude.

Breaks Precedent

In the past the Emperor of Japan has rarely made his appearance in the public streets and has always been received in silent homage. The recent ovation after the western idea is regarded as a democratic approach of the emperor to his people. In other words, Japan is responding to the democratic spirit abroad in the world.

The municipality presented to the emperor and empress several historic documents and pictures concerning the capital. The pavilion used for the principal ceremonies in Ueno Park was specially erected in pure old Japanese style, the roof being thatched with the bark of cryptomeria and the outer walls being covered with green cryptomeria leaves. The walls inside were beautifully decorated with gold dust and covered with screens and curtains having designs of flowers and birds. A procession reconstructing the ancient daimyo corteges and lanterns and flag processions were included in the celebration which was commemorated also, by the issuing of a special postage stamp.

Every house, from richest to poorest bore in front an exquisite paper lantern surmounted by a spray of cherry blossom flowers.
