Former German Chancellor Willing to Assume Some Responsibility

By Associated Press. Berlin, Saturday, June 28.—Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German chancellor, has formally asked the Allied and associated powers to place him on trial instead of the former emperor.

The request of the former chancellor was made on June 25 in a communication to Premier Clemenceau president of the conference. Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, it is said, desired to take this step May 20, but refrained at that time on the expressed wish of the German government.

WILL TRY KAISER ON MORAL GROUND

Allies to Ask Holland to See That He Does Not Escape

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, June 30.—The Allied and associated powers will not ask for the extradition of the former Emperor, the Paris correspondent of the Telegraph learns, but will ask the Dutch government in the name of the League of Nations to see that Herr Hohenzollern does not escape the moral consequences.

It is expected that as a member of the League, he adds, Holland, will inform the former Emperor that he must appear before an international court to leave the country. A highly placed French authority or international law expert told the correspondent that the proceedings against the former emperor would be on moral grounds and the sentence would be of a moral character entirely.

SHE KNEW HUSBAND NEEDED A HELPER

Mrs. William Vaughan, 6642 Greenway avenue, Phila., knew that her husband needed a helper and found just the right aid for him. "He suffered gastritis and catarrh and had a sour acid stomach. He had an ugly, brassy taste in the mouth and would spit up mucous. He bought Tanlac because of my urging. Now he's feeling a lot better. Since taking Tanlac all the nasty symptoms have been corrected. We are never without Tanlac."
