Approval Expected.—Approval of the bill increasing the salaries of the judges of Pennsylvania is ex-pected at the Capitol within a few days, as it is known that Governor William C. Sproul took the measure with him when he left the city. To-day ends the session quarter of the year and as the judges are paid quarterly it is figured out by people at the Capitol that if the Governor intends to make the act applicable he will dispose of it so that there will be a start of the new salaries with a quarter. port. July Clothing Reductions

When you stop to think of it you can readily see why so many people would come Here to take advantage of these low prices on such "good clothes" as this "Live Store" is offering; who would want to leave an opportunity slip by when they could save so much money on

Hart Schaffner & Marx, Kuppenheimer and Society Brand Clothes

Or who would prefer to go to an ordinary store for clothes of "unknown" make, "nameless brands," just clothes, that nobody knows a thing about except that they're sold for so much money, very often at a great deal more than they should be, when they can come to a "Big" clothing store that sells more Dependable Clothes than all the other clothing stores in Harrisburg-?

Look at the advantages in price concessions we must get from the manufacturers in buying such large quantities — You get the benefit in every way when you spend your money at this "Live Store" ask your friends, they'll tell you of the greater values and better service which have made this store famous; we are talked of everywhere for square dealing and honest representation.

There is nothing sensational about our price reductions but one thing sure they are "genuine reductions" on "our own stock" - We don't believe in buying a lot of odds and ends, misfits or clothes that have accumulated with manufacturers after they have been hawked around the country trying to find a buyer, we don't take what's left - We buy early - get the best at the lowest prices - we can guarantee everything we sell because we buy right.
