

INTERESTING PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Girl Scouts Return After Camping Trip

Members of Sunflower Troop No. 1, Girl Scouts of Market Square Presbyterian Church, have returned to their homes in this city after a ten days' camping party at Williams Grove. Miss Helen Hawes, captain; Mrs. George Edward Hawes and Miss Mary Hawes were in charge of the party, including: Anna Wood, Elizabeth MacDonald, Evelyn Kapner, Aline Fischer, Mareaner Simms, Ida Myers, Helen Rodney, Nancy Kiefer, Harriet Witman, Elaine Hibler, Margaret Belknap, Elizabeth Murray, Mary Pollock, Anna Jane Bergstesser, Jane Cremonesi, Lucy Cremonesi, Mary Kluck, Gertrude Lantz, Helen McPhail, Flora Miller, Ella Nelson and Elnore Steele.

Dr. R. L. Perkins Has Reopened His Offices at 2001 N. Second St.

Consultation Hours: 2 to 4 P. M. 6 to 8 P. M.

Wedding Flowers Plant Decorations

If it has to do with flowers or anything that "grows," consult us— THE BERRYHILL Locust Street at Second

R. & G. Corsets P. N. Corsets

ANNOUNCEMENT La Rose Shop 1325 Derry Street Now Open Distinctive and Dainty Lingerie Hosiery Corsets Waists Silk and Muslin Underwear

Ladies' Specialty Shop 27 N. Second Street Next to Bolton House Choosing and Saving Unlimited in This Sale Fourth of July Week Clearance Special Reduction Sale of Cotton Dresses

Every Married Man Should Help With the Washing Use a Voss Free Next Week NEIDIG BROS., Ltd. 21 South Second Street

PRETTY FAVORS FOR EACH GUEST

Miss Gene Moses Happily Entertains Twelve Young Girls at Cards Last Evening

The twelve young girls who were the guests of Miss Gene Moses last evening at her home, 717 North Second street, had a merry time with cards, followed by delicious refreshments. The house was decorated in summer flowers of red, white and blue and the favors were beautiful little French boxes of pink, tied in blue ribbons and filled with nuts. Prizes for skilled card playing were awarded to Miss Mary Harris and Miss Dorothy Bushnell.

FROM LIBRARY CONVENTION State Librarian Thomas Lynch Montgomery, Robert P. Bliss, of the Library Extension Division; Miss Alice R. Eaton, Miss Rachel Hoffnagle and Miss Helen Alteman, of the City Library, are home from Asbury Park, where they attended the sessions of the American Librarian Association.

George T. Miller and Samuel I. Miller went home to Philadelphia this morning after a week's outing and visit in this vicinity.

FOUR SONS SERVE COUNTRY IN ARMY

Conrad Boys Guests of Honor at Dinner Given by Their Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Conrad, of Mechanicsburg, entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of their sons, who were recently discharged after serving in the Army. Harold Conrad, the youngest son, enlisted in September, 1917, and was overseas for three months. The next son, Chester Conrad, a member of Company E, 304th Engineers, was engaged in the heaviest battles of the war, including the battles of the Meuse, Argonne Forest and Grand Montagne, serving until the signing of the armistice when his company was put to work cleaning up the battlefields. Charles Conrad enlisted in the Medical Detachment in August, 1918, and was stationed at a base hospital at Camp Lee, Va. John Conrad enlisted at the same time as his brother Charles and was assigned to the same place, where he contracted influenza. The case was fatal and he died on October 6, 1918.

H. A. Riddle Presented With a Silver Service

On Saturday evening Colonel M. C. Kennedy entertained at a dinner of twenty covers at his home, Ragged Edge, Chambersburg, in celebration of the birthday anniversary of H. A. Riddle, who for thirty-eight years has been connected with the Cumberland Valley Railroad. Thirty years of that time were spent as general passenger agent of the company. At the close of the dinner the host spoke briefly of the life and service of Mr. Riddle. T. B. Kennedy then presented a solid silver service set to the guest of honor in behalf of his associates present, which was accepted with a few remarks of appreciation. W. K. Sharpe made a short address.

IRIS CLUB DANCE

The Iris Club dance, to be held this evening at Willa-Villa, with the Southerner orchestra playing for the dancing, promises to be most enjoyable. One of the big attractions of the event will be the beauty of the decorations, which transform the pavilion into a riot of color. Special cars will be on hand at 12.30 o'clock, when the dancing closes.

RETURNS ON SANTA BARBARA

Mrs. E. C. Wilson, of Bellevue Park, has received word of the safe arrival of her son, William E. Wilson, on the Santa Barbara, which docked at New York Sunday. He has been located in Germany with the Fourth Artillery.

MISS SWENDEL IN THE WEST

Miss Hope L. Swengel, of 2131 North Second street, left yesterday afternoon on the Pennsylvania Limited for Chicago, where she will spend the week attending the national convention of the Alpha Chi Omega fraternity of which she is a member. After the convention Miss Swengel will go on to Kansas City, where she will visit relatives and friends for a month of six weeks.

Strength and Flavor Golden Roast Blend Coffee

Two of the most desirable qualities a coffee could possess. You know how tasteless some coffees are and how weak you've found some. But you won't experience either of these disappointing features if the coffee you use is Golden Roast Blend Coffee.

R. H. LYON Coffee Purveyor to the Penn-Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, Pa.

Attractive Musical Program at St. Paul's

An attractive feature of one of last Sunday's services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church was a musical program given by Miss Sara Lemor, violinist, and Miss Leonora Fry, harpist. The service was a Thanksgiving for Peace, and the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Floyd Appelton, preached on "Courage," dwelling on the strength necessary for the responsibilities that came with the return of peace.

Girls Enjoy Picnic at Paxtang Last Evening

Girls of the Traffic Department, division offices of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, enjoyed a picnic last evening at Paxtang Park. Informal stunts were enjoyed and a picnic lunch was served to these persons.

Little Janet Blacksmith Has a Birthday Party

Little Miss Janet Louise Blacksmith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Blacksmith, 224 Boas street, had the loveliest party yesterday from 6 to 9 o'clock in the evening at her home, in celebration of her fifth birthday.

TAYLOR FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Morris C. Taylor entertained at a family reunion at their home, 111 South street, Sunday. A varied program of pleasure was enjoyed during the day by the following people: Mr. and Mrs. B. Edward Taylor, H. Albert Taylor, B. Edward Taylor, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William S. Taylor, Miss Bessie Eckert, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Hefkin, Mrs. Hefkin, Blair Hefkin, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Taylor, Stewart Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Taylor.

GRADUATES AT ANN ARBOR

Miss Mary Elizabeth McCormick, of 2109 North Front street, was among the 1919 graduates of the University of Michigan last week, at Ann Arbor, Michigan. Miss McCormick received the degree of bachelor of science. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harris B. McCormick.

Dr. and Mrs. Aaron L. Bishop and family, of West Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. W. O. Bishop, 1631 North Second street.

Hazel Anson, of Baltimore, was honor guest to-day at a luncheon of eight covers given by Mrs. Elmer S. Black, of North Third street, whom she is visiting.

Miss Sara Elizabeth Walters, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her relatives Mr. and Mrs. John K. Owen of Penn street for two weeks.

Miss Sybil Gaines of Toronto, Canada, is a guest of her cousin, Miss Imogene Saylor of North Second street, expecting to remain for the month of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Long and sons Paul and Marvin Long, arrived last evening for a week's stay with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Long, of Green street.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Herre, of 228 Lewis street, Riverside, announce the birth of a son, Paul F. Herre, Jr., Wednesday, June 25, 1919. Mrs. Herre was formerly Miss Alice Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Stroup, of the Gernert Apartments, announce the birth of a son, Herbert Wilson Stroup, Jr., Saturday, June 28, 1919, at the Harrisburg Hospital. Mrs. Stroup was Miss Nadea Keefe of Mechanicsburg, prior to her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sheetz, 1515 Walnut street, city, announce the birth of a son, Claud Baum Sheetz, Wednesday, June 25, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Herman Marsh, of 225 State street, are leaving for Pen Mar for a summer's outing.

W. D. Beckley and Arch C. Lewis, of Bloomsburg, former Harrisburgers, are visiting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Leidy, 1246 Derry street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Westlake and son, Elliott Westlake, of Cincinnati, who resided at the Donaldson several years ago, passed through here yesterday, greeting old friends on the way to New York by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Mier G. Hilpert and children, Myra and Elsie Hilpert, of Toledo, Ohio, are in the city on a week's stay with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Brodie, of Penn street.

TECH INSTRUCTOR WED IN NEWVILLE

Miss Fannie H. Woodburn Becomes Bride of Francis Glen Wilson

A beautiful wedding was solemnized last evening in the historical Big Spring Presbyterian Church, Newville, one of the oldest churches in the Cumberland Valley, when Miss Fannie Henry Woodburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Woodburn, of Newville, and Francis Glen Wilson, of this city, Frank T. Wheeler, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Harry E. Ulrich, of the Bethany Presbyterian Church, Lancaster, a classmate of the bridegroom, officiating.

Hollyhocks, hydrangeas, daisies and verdant plants combined to transform the church into a summer bower. Prior to the ceremony, a recital was given. Miss Helen Brindle, of Carlisle, sang the "Wedding Song," by Mary Ross, and "O Perpetua," by Herman Goldstein, violinist, of this city, played Beethoven's "Minuet" and Drlia's "Souvenir." The Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" was used as the wedding march.

The attractive bride wore a simple gown of white Georgette crepe and a veil caught with pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses. Mrs. G. Chester Hall, of Mount Holly Springs, was matron of honor. Her frock was of orchid gandy and her arm bouquet was of gladiolas and snapdragons.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Edward Stratford, of Camp Hill, a sister of the bride; Mrs. Joseph Woodburn, of Baltimore; Miss Laura Sumatner, of Allentown; and Miss Kathleen Riley, of Carlisle. Their dainty frocks of pink gandy and bouquets of gladiolas added a pleasing touch to the scene.

John A. F. Hall, of this city, was best man and the groomers were Samer Scott, S. Leiby, Percy L. Grubb, James Campbell and E. Merrill Vest, all of Harrisburg.

Reception at Home Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Woodburn home, attended by many local and out-of-town guests.

The bride is one of Newville's most popular girls. She is a graduate of Shipensburg State Normal School and has been engaged in the teaching profession in Carlisle. The bridegroom is a son of John W. Wilson, of this city, a graduate of Dickinson College, class of 1914, and has been connected with the faculty of Technical High School as a teacher of natural science for the past few years. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben left last evening on an extensive wedding trip, to include Asbury Park, New York City and other points of interest in the East.

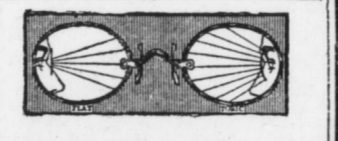

Among the guests from this city who attended the event were: Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Fager, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Goodyear, Mr. and Mrs. George Mumma, Mrs. Agnes Cunningham, Mrs. George M. Blair, Miss Anna M. Saul, Miss Maude Hofer, John W. Wilson and Alfred Jenkins.

Mrs. Edward M. Green has gone home to Huntington after visiting her sisters, the Misses Wittenmayer, at 2141 North Front street.

Miss Estelle Jones and Miss Bertha May Jones, of Hartford, Conn., are in the city for a brief visit among old friends on the way to Old Point Comfort, Va.

KEEFE CORSET AND HOSIERY SHOP 107A N 2nd St.

Agency for Mrs. Irene and Successo back lace Corsets

Don't Risk Ruining Your Eyes

Improperly fitted glasses ruin many eyes. It pays to get High Grade Glasses. Our Scientific examinations insures you protection. We use no guess work methods. We know how to test eyes.

CONSULT US Gohl, Rinkenbach & Roush OPTOMETRISTS AND OPTICIANS No. 22 N. 4th St. HARRISBURG, PA. Where Glasses Are Made Right

Attending Summer School For Missions at Wilson

The summer school for missions at Wilson College opened last evening with the following people from this city and vicinity present: Miss Esther Atticks, Miss M. Ruth Baker, Miss Lois Fair, Miss Mildred Farman, Miss Anne R. Kelker, Miss Martha J. Means, Miss Ida M. Stewart, Miss Ruth Tack, Mrs. A. E. Fasnacht and Miss Mabel Seip, of this city; Miss Marguerite Garrett, of Mechanicsburg, and Miss Blanche G. Urey, of Lemoyne.

EXLER-SMITH WEDDING

The wedding of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Smith and John Edward Fyler, which took place Monday afternoon in the manse of the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirteenth and Vernon streets, the Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Snuckey officiating, was followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shuler, 1944 State street, the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Fyler, after a short wedding journey, will reside in Harrisburg.

Dr. and Mrs. George C. Potts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Koch, Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Rhoades were among the guests at Doubling Gap over Sunday.

Miss Elsie Deane and her sister Miss Carroll M. Deane went home to Brooklyn today after a week's visit among old friends in the West End. Thomas Fairland and Miss Laura Fairland, of Baltimore, are guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis F. Hauser, of Penn street.

Mrs. Charles Borden went home to Youngstown, Ohio, this morning after a week's stay among old friends in this city and York.

Peter Denniston and James H. Denniston, of Richmond, Va., are shopping for a few days with relatives on Market street.

COFFEE PEANUTS THE IMPERIAL TEA CO 213 CHESTNUT ST.

BE SURE YOU ARE RIGHT THEN GO AHEAD

That's our motto. Before we fit you with glasses, we examine your eyes critically, using the advanced methods employed by leading eyesight specialists in colleges and hospitals.

R. D. PRATT Eyesight Specialist 26 N. THIRD ST. Over Schleissner's Store.

Willard Oenslager Leaves on Western Geological Trip

Willard Oenslager, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Oenslager, left the city to become a member of a party of twenty-four Harvard students who will take a six weeks' geological trip in Southwestern Montana, just north of Yellowstone Park. Professor Woodworth, of Harvard, is in charge of the party under the direction of the Harvard Summer School of Geology. The young men will walk about six hundred miles at about 12,000 feet above sea level and at the completion of the trip the students will take an examination to be counted toward their degree enabling them to be graduated in January, 1920.

MOTOR FROM ILLINOIS

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Beecher and daughter, Miss Elaine Beecher, of Hammond, Ill., motored here a few days ago, and are guests of Mrs. Beecher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Gibson, 1525 North Second street. Mr. Beecher, a former Harrisburger, is a construction engineer with the United Gas interests. They will visit Philadelphia and Atlantic City before returning home.

SPANISH

Why not, during the summer months fit yourself for a lucrative position? A full year of college or university Spanish in 6 weeks. Summer Session Opens July 7 Bulletins at desks of Y. W. C. A. or Y. M. C. A.

Studebaker Building Second & State Sts. Mrs. Melvin Menges.

Dinner Tuesday Eve., July 1 Stouffer's Restaurant 4 N. Court St. 5 to 7.30 50c

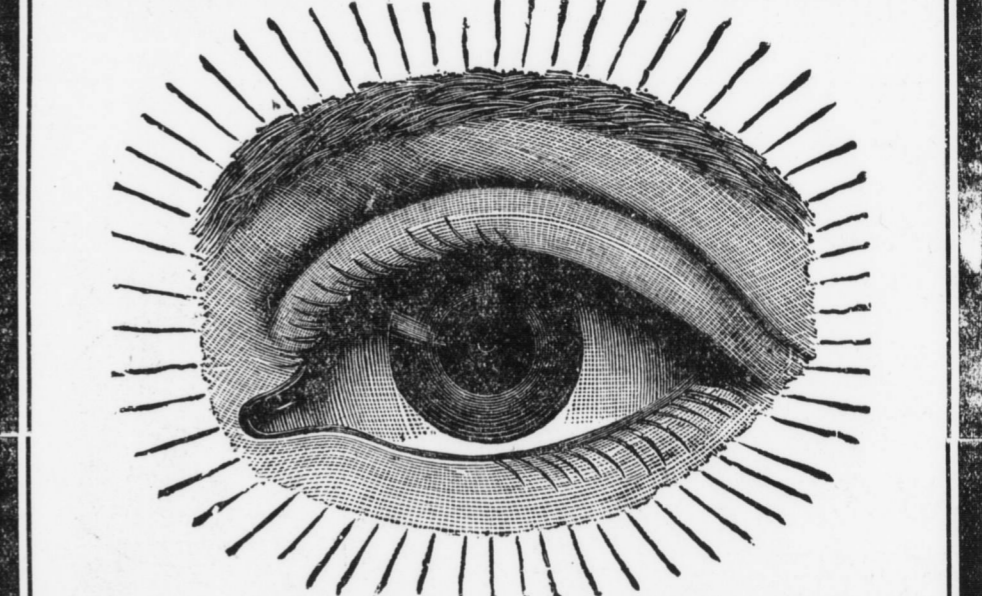

Chicken Macaroni Soup Deviled Crab - Scalloped Chicken Baked Beans - Roast Beef Masked or Browned Potatoes Stewed Peas - Boiled Cabbage - Salad Ice Cream, Pie or Pudding Coffee, Tea or Cocoa

Does Your Home Need Painting Inside?

Interior painting is a specialty with us. It goes along with the interior decorating of the home. It is one of the features of beautifying the home which many people neglect, but to which we give special attention. Right now we are in position to do interior painting promptly and would suggest that you consult with us so that we will know your requirements and can give you estimate on the work.

THE BLAKE SHOP Interior Decorations 225 North Second St.

Belsinger's July Optical Sale

We have been in business in Harrisburg five years, the last six months of which we have been located in our new home in the Penn-Harris Hotel Building on Third Street. In order to acquaint more people with our business and to stimulate our business for the month of July, we have arranged for the

Most Important Optical Sale in Our History This $3.00 Offer Begins Tomorrow

$3 As an introductory offer for this sale we will give you good glasses with large flat, spherical lenses and comfortable aluminum frames with flat side cable temples, the kind that are comfortable on the ears. This is an extraordinary offer and while we make this offer for the month of July, it is on condition that the quantity of glasses we have will hold out, therefore, we urge you to take advantage of this immediately.

Remember All Our Work Is Guaranteed To Be Satisfactory Our reputation for high class optical work is back of this big sale-offer the same as it is at any other time.

20 Per Cent. Reduction on All Glasses

During this sale we will give 20 per cent off all deep curved lenses, Crookes' tinted lenses, cement bifocal for far and near vision. And on all prescription lenses and on every frame and mounting in our store. And also on sun glasses.

This Big Sale Begins Tomorrow Morning

Make all your plans accordingly and come as early in the day as possible so as to be served without waiting.

J. S. Belsinger PENN-HARRIS HOTEL BUILDING, 39 N. THIRD STREET HARRISBURG, PA.