The great circle and arrive over New Foundland.

The giant British dirigible R-34 is the first lighter-than-air machine to attempt a trans-Atlantic flight. The airship, the largest of its kind in the world, measures 634 feet from nose to stern and carries three boats below the gas bag. She is commanded by Major G. H. Scott, of the Royal Air Force. The craft is equipped with a wireless system as powerful as that of the great ocean liners.

Among the crew of twenty-three men is Lieutenant Commander Zaching to a wireless dispatch from the large tracts of land being according to a wireless dispatch from the large of the summer. When the plant is 'nished it will consist of twelve berths, three of which are for vessels up to 800 feet in length. Among the crew of twenty-three men is Lieutenant Commander Zachary Lansdowne, staff commander of the American naval air forces in France, who is making the voyage as as representative of the United States Navy.

It has been estimated that the has arranged for the members of the President's official family to go aboard the battleship Pennsylvania, flagship of the Atlantic fleet, which is to meet the Presidential ship outside New York harbor and escort her to port.

MAKING OVER A CLIMATE

The latest suggestion toward making over" a climate deals with Zachary Lansdowne, American flight commander, just before he stepped into the gondola.

Mincola, N. Y., July 2.—"We are ready to receive the R-34 any time she arrives," said Colonel Archie she arrives," said Colonel Archie she arrives," said Colonel Archie she arrives, "said Colonel Archie hurst flying field.

"We anticipate the twelve anchors, built of steel and concrete and arranged in a circle, will prove sufficiently strong to keep the dirigible ciently strong to keep the dirigible from getting away from us while from getting away from us while she is at Roosevelt field," continued Colonel Miler.

East Fortane, July 2.—The diriguist could be closed, although at an expense which Canada might not care to assume just at this time. Whether the seasons would be so greatly changed is another matter, not conclusively settled by theoretical probabilities.—Christian Science Monitor.
