FINDS NUDE MAN TIED TO BRIDGE Night Clan at Mt. Union Said to Have Punished Foreigner For Misbehavior

Mount Union, Pa., July 2.—It came to light to-day that at 2.10 o'clock, Saturday morning, Patrolman Rockwood discovered an unusual occurrence for this section. Hearing cries on the bridge leading across the Juniata north of Mount Union, the patrolman hurried to the bridge and there discovered a large touring car and nearby a married foreigner of Mount Union, in a partially nude state, tied to the bridge. He was covered with blood and an investigation revealed that he had received a horse-whipping. After a severe questioning it was discov-

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN-DOWN PEOPLE The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits over-time. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest, excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

WELCOME —to the Beaches and Breakers of the New Jersey Coast!

To the inland dweller, summer days by the sea are most desirable. They mean, not only just the needed climatic change, but a complete get away from the scenes and activities of everyday life.

There are forty such resorts on the coast of New Jersey, from Atlantic City and Cape May north to Sandy Hook and New York Bay—Wildwood, Ocean City, Beach Haven, Asbury Park and Ocean Grove, Long Branch—many of them world-famous, each just a little different from the other; all of them with a single purpose—to make summer days by the sea Play Days, and helpful days of delight to the millions who live inland.

There's room and a welcome for all! Accommodations to meet any purse. The United States Railroad Administration invites you to travel and offers Summer Excursion fares. Ask your local ticket agent to help you plan your trip; or, apply to the nearest Consolidated Ticket Office for descriptive booklet—"The New Jersey Seashore"—with a list of hotels; or write to the nearest Travel Bureau.

JOHN LUCCA LOST HIS $3,000 ROLL Celebrated Too Strenuously When Saloons Went Out of Business at Mount Union

Mount Union, Pa., July 2.—John Lucca, a foreigner, celebrated the closing of the saloons on Monday by getting on a real drunk, at which time he lost $3,000. It appears he invited his neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Manbeck, to drink with him, and they say they left him dead drunk. When questioned by the burgess they appeared to know nothing about the money except that Lucca flashed the money at the opening of the party.

Little Girl Dragged 200 Yards by Cow

Wellsville, Pa., July 2.—Mabel, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William March, of near Emig's Mill, was seriously injured on Monday by being dragged several hundred yards by a cow. The little girl had gone to the pasture to bring the cow in for the night. A rope which had been tied to the animal's horns had a loop at the other end and as the girl freed the cow from the stake to which it had been tied, the cow started to run away. The girl's right foot caught in the loop and she was dragged more than 200 yards over a rough field and along the road. She was only freed when the rope tore. The girl was found by her mother, lying along the roadside unconscious, and suffering from abrasions and contusions all about her body.

Two Perry County Soldiers Reported Killed in Action

New Bloomfield, Pa., July 2.—Official news of the death of two Perry county men with the United States forces during the past war, have been received this week, including that of Harry C. Arndt, of Newport, whose name was carried on yesterday's casualty list. Arndt was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Arndt, was one of the first Newport youths to enter the United States service, he having enlisted on April 28, 1917, and which he was sent to Camp Ruskoff, Texas, for training, after which he went overseas with Company Two, Twenty-eighth Infantry. He was wounded at Chateau-Thierry on July 22, 1918, and returned to his company on September 22, being previously being reported killed in action on April 5 of last year, but this was later shown to be incorrect when relatives received letters from him, written from a hospital in which he was recovering from wounds. Arndt was 19 years old.

Another youth was Private Walter A. Smith, Company H, One Hundred and Tenth Infantry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith, of town of Chateau-Thierry. He was killed in action on August 20 of last year. Previous notice had been received by relatives last month that he had been reported killed in action. He enlisted with the Pennsylvania National Guard shortly after the declaration of war.
