CALF BREAKS MAN'S RIB Gettysburg, Pa., July 5.—Kicked by a calf, James H. McCullough, of Greenmount, had a rib broken. The man is a huckster who travels over part of the county buying produce and young cattle and was out on business when the accident occurred.
He had one calf in the crate in the wagon and was putting another one he had just purchased in the crate when the first one kicked him in the breast, breaking the rib.

Washington, July 5.—Federal supervision of the packing, sale, and distribution of meat products was declared by the Department of Agriculture to be only solution for the present situation in which meat prices to the consumer are so high that he is denying himself and in which prices of livestock, especially beef and lambs, are so low that the producer is losing money.

The department emphasized that "save food" signs should now be disregarded as to meat, especially beef and wheat products. White Hemp Hats Children's Trimmed Hats
