PAXTANG Vaudeville — Two shows every evening. A big feature of the bill appearing at the Majestic this week is a male quartet who, with their good selection of songs, and excellent harmony, score a tremendous hit. Smith and Austin furnish just the kind of entertainment theatergoers like in their nonsensical offering entitled "A Foolish Revue."

J. Edward Lessig and Company present an amusing comedy playlet entitled "We, Us and Company." Johnson and Crane are a good looking young couple who can sing and dance, and Norman Thelma holds the interest of the audience with his remarkable equilibrium feats.

George Choo's latest musical success, "Oh, Mike," with nine clever entertainers will be the headline of the last three days. Some other acts listed are Marguerite Padula, singing comedienne; Gordon and Delmar in a fast comedy variety turn entitled "A Vaudeville Review"; the Ferrari Girls in a spectacular song and dance offering, and the Burns Brothers in an equilibriumistic novelty.

To-day is the last opportunity for Harrisburgers to see Pauline Frederick in her latest release, so late, in fact, that Philadelphia and New York motion picture patrons have not had the opportunity of seeing it, entitled "The Fear Woman." This picture contains a wonderful lesson besides its wonderful amusement qualities.

To-morrow, Friday and Saturday, Harold Lockwood (America's matinee idol), the actor who draws more women to motion picture theaters than any other single actor, will be shown in his latest screen classic release, entitled "A Man of Honor," the Ferrari Girls in a spectacular song and dance offering, and the Burns Brothers in an equilibriumistic novelty.

Headliner for last half of week is FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE A musical comedy with nine talented people.

pirates and everything. To-day is positively the last showing of the superpicture "Woman at the Victoria." This picture has played to enormous audiences during its initial run here and in all probability many more people will see it to-day.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, charming Theda Bara, star of numerous productions which have been well received in Harrisburg will be shown in her latest production "Woman There Was." This is considered the record breaker of all her former successes. Come early in order to obtain a seat of honor. The Mack-Sennett Bathing Girls will be here in their colossal comedy production "Yankee Doodle in Berlin."

To-day and to-morrow the Regent presents Enid Bennett in "The Law of Men." Miss Bennett is seen as a young orphan who desires to make her way in the world as a sculptress and finds that the road is beset with many temptations and many difficulties despite its seemingly smooth appearance. A loving patron of the arts tries to help her, and prevails upon her to go to a distant town where he attacks her. The next morning he is found dead. The murder is a mystery, and the unraveling of it reveals unexpected twists and turns and makes a most effective story. A real courtroom with the real clerks, bailiffs and other employees is used in the big trial scene.

"Fatty" Arbuckle to-day for the last time as a Sheriff in his latest comedy "A Desert Hero." This is the funniest Arbuckle comedy ever presented and added to contain many situations that thrill.

Charlie Chaplin "expresses himself" in the new esthetic dances, "Sunnyside," which are quite a thing in the most artistic circles, in "Sunnyside," his third million dollar picture, production which will be shown here even in the big trial scene.

The manner in which the beautiful and scantily draped young girls which are engaged in this sort of dance is quite Chinese. Such a thing as riding a cow is almost never attempted in the country of the boy and girl who take the cows out to pasture and bring them back at night. But, Charlie attempts this when he tries to induce a cow to leave the church in which the boss has been breaking up meetings. Landing in a ditch on his head, the little comedian goes into a state of coma wherein he "sees things."

This is said to be the funniest and best Chaplin picture ever presented and while you have seen all the other Chaplin pictures, you surely will not miss this one.

Gillett's Monkeys are making a great hit with the audiences at the Paxtang Park Theater this week. The picture is so funny that you don't care for money and dogs. There is something strangely human about the picture, and the antics are an interesting study as well as humorously amusing.

Chaplin, the xylophonist, just as big a favorite at Paxtang as ever, while Mason and Gwynne present a big dance sketch of rare quality.

To-morrow evening the park management will have another big fireworks display at Paxtang. The pyrotechnic program will consist of an elaborate display of aerial stuff as well as numerous set pieces. The display will take place on the lawn at the rear of the park theater immediately after the performance in the park theater is finished.

Learn of Soldier-Son's Funeral From Red Cross

One of the great services rendered by the Red Cross in France is the communication service, and John A. Rohrer, 1842 Boas street, hears witness to this fact. A short while ago Mr. Rohrer received a letter from one of the women in charge of this section telling him of the burial of his son in Luxembourg. J. Roscoe Rohrer, Eleventh Infantry, Fifth Regular Division, died on April 8 from a fractured skull. His regiment held services for him and gave him a military funeral. The letter received by his father was written from Walferdange, about twenty kilometers from the City of Luxembourg, where the Fifth Division headquarters was located.

Hill Residents Will Discuss School Problem

Members of the School Board will attend the meeting to-morrow night of residents of Allison Hill, to be held at the Mt. Pleasant Fire Company house, Thirtieth and Howard streets, to discuss the proposed site for a high school at Italian park. In case the fire company rooms are too small it is likely the meeting will be held at the baseball field at Seventeenth and Chestnut streets.

All the directors have been invited to be present at the public meeting, and some of them have already announced their intention to attend and join in the discussion with the Hill people.

William M. Hoerner is completing arrangements for a meeting of all speakers or presiding officers have been selected yet, but these will be announced to-morrow.

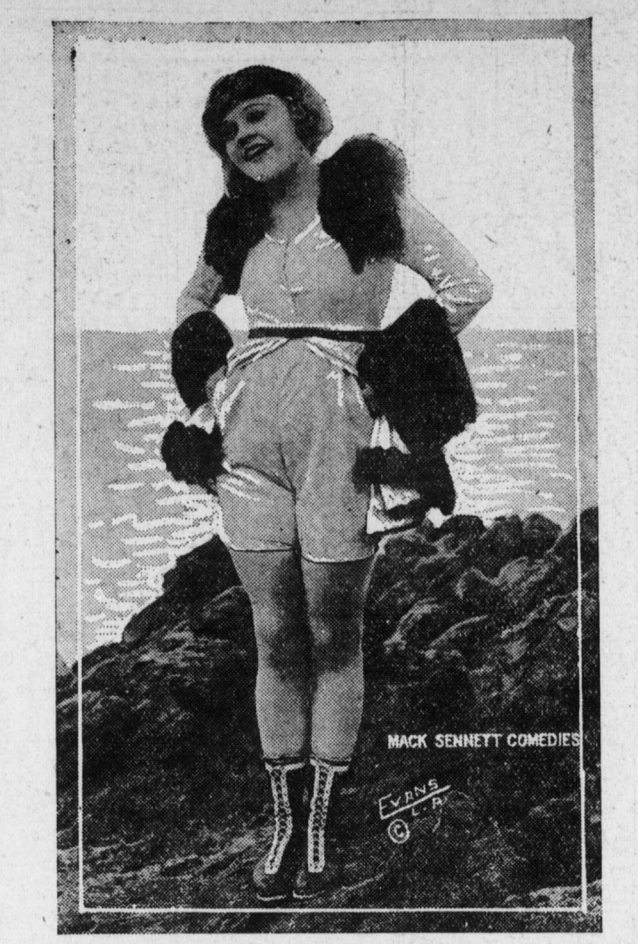

Residents of the Hill district, now that the School Board has purchased the site uptown, are anxious to know what provision will be made for the boys and girls who reside so far from that locale, so a walk and will be compelled to use public cars to go to school.

MACK-SENNETT BATHING BEAUTIES IN PERSON TO SHOW IN HARRISBURG

The Victoria theater will next week when the curtain will rise showing the beautiful Mack-Sennett bathing beauties, that is, in person. These girls are loaned to the Victoria theater through the courtesy of Mr. Sennett, the noted California producer of film comedies. "Yankee Doodle in Berlin," the much talked of Mack-Sennett feature production, will be the headline at the same time, and that is the occasion of the mermaids' debut. This is regarded as the greatest film burlesque on the world war. It is in five parts and shows the beauty of the girls, their refreshing youth and grace and the charm of their picturesque performance can be imagined by those who have seen them in the celebrated two-reelers that have made the girls famous and Mr. Sennett one of the three most important producers of animated pictures in the whole world.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE NEGRO SOLDIER To the Editor of the Telegraph: After listening carefully to one of our brave colored soldiers who served in the cause of his country in this terrible conflict that was going on to make the world safe for democracy, after I returned to my home I began to think to myself and wonder if God is pleased with this old world of ours and how long our race would have to suffer injustice, segregation and discrimination. Now our dear boys (we call them dear because they are brave and true-hearted Americans) have shown by their manly courage when this country was calling for volunteers that they are true-hearted men. They offered their service, they wanted to show to the world that they were men with hearts and brain and were willing to lay down their young lives for their country.

They learned that colored men had not been accepted for the Army as yet. However, as time went on, the draft law was passed. There was no question to color when it came their turn to be called to serve this country. The Negro did not hesitate, but willingly and bravely marched to his country's call. When we thought of our Negro boys, those brave sons of Ham, we sisters, wives, mothers and sweethearts did what we could at home. We saved food, did Red Cross work, bought Liberty Bonds, and prayed for the return of our American troops with honors. With all this are right thinking people of America going to allow our heroes to be treated unfairly? Will America, this great land of the free, allow one of our great and noble heroes to have lost their lives in vain? No, they bled and died to help make this world safe for democracy; a safe place for all men, all races, regardless of creed or color.

Now let us see to it that the same thing they were fighting for in France exists over here in America. I would say that America should be proud of its Negro soldiers. I am proud because I belong to a race that never had or has no rulers or tyrants. We have been trodden upon, deprived of many privileges, but yet with all of this we are true to our country, true because this is the country of our birth. I believe that God in his own time will so put it into the hearts of our Americans to give the Negro his rights, treat him fairly and give him a chance. Don't despise him because of the color of his skin; God made him; he is human. Let him live, give him his rights, he deserves it.

LOUISA VIRGINIA JOHNSON.

Direct Taxation Here Is 2,000 Per Cent. More Than Before the War Broke Out

Washington, July 9.—The war deficiency of the United States which the taxpayers of the country must pay is $22,000,000,000, Senator Smoot, Utah, Republican member of the Senate finance committee, stated in the Senate. The total war deficit, he said, is $32,000,000,000, but that amount includes approximately $10,000,000,000 which the United States has loaned its Allies in the war.

Senator Smoot submitted the figures to the Senate after Senator Gerry administration whip in the Senate and a Democratic member of the finance committee, had read figures relating to the present financial condition of the Federal Government showing that approximately 50 per cent. of the war expenditures of the United States were met by direct taxation.

"The rate of taxation in the United States now is 2000 per cent. greater than it was before the war," said Senator Smoot. "In Great Britain taxes increased 1000 per cent. during the war, and in France the authorities taxed the people all the could stand."

Germany Returning to Peace Financial System

By Associated Press. Berlin, Tuesday, July 8.—Germany is to return quickly to a peace time financial system, said Matthias Erzberger, vice chancellor, and minister of finance, speaking at Weimar before the German National assembly to-day. Among other things the payment of grants to unemployed men will be reduced, it was indicated during his address.

"The empire's needs must be divided henceforth between home needs and indemnities," he said.

"The year's expenditures confronting us will amount to about 17,500,000,000 marks. After citing the returns to the empire from taxation measures prior to and during the war and estimating the revenue to be derived from new tax bills, Herr Erzberger said: "There still remains a sum of over 10,000,000,000 marks to be covered."
