

NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

DANCES DURING ENCAMPMENT

Social Affairs Scheduled at Mt. Gretna While Soldiers Undergo Training

Mount Gretna, Pa., July 9.—On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week dances will be held at Chautauque Inn. These dances are well attended by the young people, many motoring from Harrisburg.

Next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, a twilight service will be held at the Conewago Hotel. William Eckenrode, a well-known tenor, of York, and Mrs. Edgar A. Welmer, of Lebanon, will sing and act as chorists from one of the regiments at Camp Henderson, will conduct the services.

Dancing classes for children from 6 to 14, under the supervision of Mrs. Simeon Greer, will be held in Kaufman's Hall, Wednesday mornings from 10 to 11.30.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullings and Miss Dorothy Benit, of Philadelphia, Edward Moore and Richard Heagy, of Harrisburg, were guests at Pilgrim Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Burns are at Embury Hall. Miss Isabel Shreiner is the guest of Miss Dolores Segelbaum.

Mrs. Reuel Sides and children are the guests of Mrs. Annie Hubley at Tannenbaum cottage.

Mrs. E. F. Wurster and Luther, Edward and Virginia Wurster, of 1387 Market street, Harrisburg, are occupying a cottage on the Chautauque grounds.

Among those registered at the Hotel Conewago are the following Harrisburgers: Mr. and Mrs. John De Gray and sons Julian H. and Richard J.; Walter Johnston, Miss Anne Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Seely and S. B. Nisley.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Teats and Miss Dorothy Teats, of 2106 North Third street, Harrisburg, motored here for the fourth.

J. B. Patrick, of 817 North Second street, Harrisburg, is here for a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clement are at Melrose cottage for the month of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Bowman and children Walzer and Dorothy, are the guests of Mrs. Bowman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Walzer.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hamilton and Miss Frances Hamilton have opened the Fesse cottage in Otterbein avenue for the season.

Miss Marie Melville of Harrisburg, is guest at the Glenn O'ke cottage.

OLDEST COUPLE HARVEST WHEAT

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Spahr, Aged 83, Put Away Three Acres in Three Days

Wellsville, Pa., July 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Spahr, aged 83 years, living near Emigs Mill, harvested three acres of wheat in the old-fashioned way. Together they cradled, raked and bound the three acres of wheat unassisted.

They began the work the middle of last week, concluding it on Friday, July 4. This feat of harvesting an acre of wheat a day was accomplished by the remarkable couple during the hottest spell of the present summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Spahr are as active as many persons a score or more years younger.

DECLINES RE-ELECTION New Bloomfield, Pa., July 9.—The Rev. J. W. Weeter, pastor of the New Bloomfield Lutheran church and assistant principal of the local schools during the past several years, has declined to be a candidate for re-election.

He will teach during the summer at the local school. He has announced. All other teachers have been re-elected. The Rev. J. Thomas Fox, pastor of the New Bloomfield Reformed church, is the principal.

CENTER SCHOOLS LET New Bloomfield, Pa., July 9.—At a meeting of the Center township school board on Saturday the following schools were let for the winter term: Mansville, to Edward Gantt; Market's, to Miss Olive Gantt; Laurel Grove, to Miss Anna Bell; Airyview, to Frank Ferguson; Compa's, to John Myers; Jerico, to Miss Elizabeth Roth. Salaries range from $60 to $80 per month under the new code.

Suburban Notes ANNVILLE The Rev. R. S. Arndt, of Adams-town was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Davis, of New York City, are spending some time here the guests of the latter's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Bodenhorn, of Harrisburg, spent the weekend with relatives here.

Byrl Zimmerman is spending the week at Allentown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ferguson and daughter Olive of New York City, are guests at the home of John P. Saylor and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Martin left recently for their home in Mansburg, Ohio, after spending some time with friends here.

Mrs. Laura Kellar and daughter Anna, of Rheems, were guests of friends here for several days.

Mrs. Elizabeth Henry spent the weekend at Mount Gretna.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stieker of Philadelphia, are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boltz, of Maple street.

Miss Edith Lehman spent several days at Bethlehem.

$100 AND AUTO GIVEN SOLDIER

Seventy-Five Guests Attend Reception Tendered Corporal Chauncey Boyer

Mount Wolf, Pa., July 9.—Seventy-five guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Boyer, West Manchester township, on Sunday, for a reception and dinner tendered in honor of the former's son, Corporal Chauncey Boyer, who recently returned from overseas.

Visitors Spend Pleasant Days at Lewisberry Lewisberry, Pa., July 9.—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Nortenheim and daughter Caroline, Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. Nortenheim's father, W. S. Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Laird and son Wilbur, Steelton, were weekend guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Laird and Mr. and Mrs. Dean R. Hudson.

Mrs. A. M. Jenkins and daughter Clara Sylvester Jenkins, Red Lion, are guests of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Millard, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kirk.

The Rev. E. A. Deavor, a retired Methodist minister, of York, delivered a sermon and gave communion in the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bell and children and Private and Mrs. Raymond Stinson, of Steelton, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stonieser.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ottmyer and daughters, Leon and Grace, motor guests of Mrs. Ella M. Sutton.

Miss Rena Frankeberger, an art teacher at Williamsport, is spending a vacation at the Frankeberger home.

Mrs. S. W. Purvis, son Robert and daughters, Helen and Ruth, of Philadelphia, are spending a vacation of two months at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hammond.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beidel and daughters, Leon and Grace, motor guests of Sunday to Centerville, where they visited Mrs. Beidel's father, who is critically ill at the home of a daughter.

Banquet in Honor of Newport Returned Soldiers Newport, Pa., July 9.—Thirty-six persons were in attendance on Monday night at a banquet of Nu chapter, Phi Epsilon Kappa fraternity, of Newport, held in Noll's Cafe in honor of members recently returned from overseas service with American forces.

The guests of honor were H. H. Frank, H. B. Light, George Kell and Harry Zeiders. A number of out-of-town guests were in attendance. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Newport Orchestra.

CAPTAIN RUPP HOME Marietta, Pa., July 9.—Captain Milnor Rupp, who recently returned from overseas, having been stationed in Amsterdam for some time, visited his family in East Marietta today. He spent more than a year overseas.

NEW SECRETARY CHOSEN Columbia, Pa., July 9.—J. William Pinkerton has been chosen as the new secretary of the Pennsylvania Railroad Y. M. C. A. in Columbia, by the board of managers, to succeed George C. K. Sample, who resigned and will go on the retired list.

CAPT. SHILLOTT HOME Columbia, Pa., July 9.—Captain Charles J. Shillott, who served in the Medical Corps of the American Army, overseas, has been honorably discharged from the service and has purchased a home and will resume the practice which he relinquished to enter the service.

SCHOOL SALARIES INCREASED Columbia, Pa., July 9.—On Monday evening the school board voted an increase in salaries to all officers and teachers, the latter being made to conform with the new law increasing salaries. The borough superintendent was given an increase of $250, making his salary $2,750.

MRS. MAGGIE LEER DIES York Springs, Pa., July 9.—Mrs. Maggie Leer, of New Chester, died Sunday afternoon, from tuberculosis, from which she had suffered for some time. She was 25 years old and is survived by her husband and parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kline, and several sisters and brothers.

WEST SHORE GIRL PASSENGER HURT IN FLIGHT

Miss Gertrude Watts Bride of Terrell Stubblefield

New Cumberland, July 9.—On Monday evening a wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Watts when their daughter, Miss Gertrude Watts, was married to Terrell Stubblefield, of Mayfield, Kentucky. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. V. T. Rue, pastor of Baughman Memorial Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate family.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white Georgette and carried bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Fred Nagle, of Middle-town. Mr. Nagle was best man. Mrs. Stubblefield is a graduate of a business college at Harrisburg and was employed as stenographer at the office of the Harrisburg Storage Company.

Miss Gertrude is employed with the Firestone Rubber Company at Akron, Ohio, where they will make their home.

Marysville Business to Close For Union Picnic Marysville, Pa., July 9.—Special cars to-morrow morning will carry a large crowd of persons to Paxton Park, where the annual union picnic of the Marysville Sunday schools will be held. Practically every business place in the borough will be closed.

An interesting program of events has been arranged for the occasion. A feature of the afternoon will be a Sunday school league game between the Reformed and Methodist teams.

VICTIM OF DROWNING BURIED New Cumberland, Pa., July 9.—Funeral services for the late George Boyer, the young man who was drowned in the Yellow Breeches creek on Saturday, were held from the Church of God yesterday morning, conducted by the Rev. W. H. Heiges, assisted by the Rev. S. N. Good, of Penbrook. Several hymns were sung by members of the choir.

The Sunday school class of which the young man was a member, acted as pallbearers. Burial was made at Camp Hill Cemetery.

WEEKLY BAND CONCERTS New Cumberland, Pa., July 9.—New Cumberland band will give weekly concerts in Market Square at the expense of the Susquehanna Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

BARN IS BURNED A barn belonging to Marvin Stonefield, of Shiremanstown, burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. The loss, which was around $500, was partially covered by insurance. Tools, farm implements and fodder burned with the barn. The fire is supposed to have been started by boys playing with matches.

Scrap of Civilians and Soldiers at Carlisle Over Carlisle, Pa., July 9.—Slightly strained relations between local men and those stationed at the War Department Hospital here were adjusted when Norman Clevish and Private Drake, of the hospital, shook hands at a hearing held over the trouble which occurred one week ago, when Clevish was badly cut.

All of those implicated were discharged by Justice Eckels and the men shook hands amid the cheers of friends of both who were at the hearing.

HAGERSTOWN LICENSES Hagerstown, Md., July 9.—Pennsylvania couples secured marriage licenses in this city as follows: Paul Himmelright, Westchester, and Lillian Shafer, Harrisburg; Edward H. Bucher and Lois J. Harrison, both of Harrisburg;

John M. B. Gressinger, Lemoyne, and Myrtle M. Mentzer, Harrisburg; Percy Edward Pasie, Scotland, and Olive Statler, Williamson; Harry C. Weiland and Mary A. Felix, both of Sunbury;

William A. Underwood, Roanoke, Va., and Naomi G. Ross, Harrisburg; Doris C. Jones and Mary A. Pauley, both of Lewistown.

TRUCK TRAIN SPENT NIGHT Chambersburg, July 9.—On its way from Washington to San Francisco, the Army trans-continental motor truck train with Companies E and F, of the Ninth Hundred and Thirty-third Train, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Charles McClure, spent the night here, arriving about 5 o'clock and parking on the Second street show lot.

There are fifty big motor cars and numerous smaller ones, with over 200 men and officers, Knight of Columbus and "Y" cars, ambulances, etc.

SUGAR SHORTAGE REPORTED Hagerstown, Md., July 9.—The demand created by war-time production for sugar being used in iced tea, lemonade and other homemade soft drinks is blamed by local merchants as being one of the chief reasons for the near sugar famine here.

GIRL PASSENGER HURT IN FLIGHT

Miss Catharine Becker, of York, Rides in Stinson Circus Plane

York, Pa., July 9.—In making her first flight in an airplane, piloted by Lieutenant George Shaw, of Stinson's Flying Circus, Miss Catharine G. Becker, of York, had a thrilling experience yesterday morning, when the pilot found it necessary to make a forced landing, owing to slight motor trouble. The plane side-swiped a tree, tore off several of its branches, crumpling a wing of the ship, and then collided, nose-end, with a fence, crashing through the obstruction. The plane was badly wrecked. Lieutenant Shaw escaped practically unhurt, while Miss Becker received a badly contused nose and a cut under the left eye.

CIVIC CLUB REORGANIZES Marietta, Pa., July 9.—At the reorganization meeting of the Newport Civic Club, Mrs. J. Emery Fleisher was named honorary president. Other officers elected were: Mrs. William Dorwart, president; Mrs. S. W. Light, first vice-president; Mrs. Hannah McKee, second vice-president; Mrs. Delphine Pennell, secretary; Mrs. H. A. Moore, treasurer.

JOSEPH M. STAFFORD BURIED Marietta, Pa., July 9.—Funeral services of Joseph M. Stafford were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and was attended by people from Lancaster, Columbia, Harrisburg and other places. Burial was made in the Bethel Cemetery, Fairview street.

BELLANS FOR INDIGESTION 6 BELLANS Hot water Sure Relief

BELLANS FOR INDIGESTION

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

Woolen Mills. A platform will be erected.

"Roughing it" in the National Parks

"Roughing it de-luxe" expresses what a summer outing may be in the National Parks of the West.

All the joys of the wilderness, within easy reach of modern hotels and railroad trains.

Here you can camp out—climb mountains—go fishing—and hit the trail—in a region of peaks and canyons, glaciers and geysers, Indians and bears, deep woods and ice-fed lakes. Around the corner are modern resort hotels and miles of auto boulevards. Summer excursion fares.

Ask the booklets you want. They describe Yellowstone, Glacier, Rocky Mountain, Mt. Rainier, Crater Lake, Yosemite, Sequoia, Hawaii, Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Zion, Mesa Verde and Hot Springs of Arkansas.

Ask the local ticket agent to help plan your trip, or apply to nearest Consolidated Ticket Office, or address Travel Bureau, U. S. R. R. Administration, 646 Transportation Bldg., Chicago, 143 Liberty St., New York; 602 Healey Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

UNITED STATES RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION

Shell's Schlusman's Advance Notice

This is extraordinary news for every woman, miss and junior who desires high class apparel.

Our Semi-Annual Clearance Sale Will Begin On Friday, July 11

This movement is in pursuance of our policy to clear all lines in season so that two things may be accomplished satisfactorily.

First, we readjust our stocks to make room for new incoming merchandise.

Second, we give our clientele the benefit of the savings they may derive from these garments when they are most needed and most desirable.

This advance notice is given so that you will make preparations accordingly and plan your shopping so you will be able to attend this sale as early as possible on Friday.

We have gone over our entire stock and have marked down to clearance sale prices all broken lines of merchandise, irrespective of value, former price, or difficulty in duplicating. All the merchandise involved is our own regular stock and is in every way the high standard which we maintain throughout the year.

None of this merchandise will be reserved or laid aside, none will be sent C. O. D. and none will be charged.

This ruling is necessary on account of the great reductions and also because we wish to clear broken lines and will not fill in any of the gaps.

There Will Also Be A Clearance Sale Of Men's and Young Men's Suits

Beginning, Friday July 11

Advertisement for 'How much?' featuring a large '13' and '100% for one man—none at all for another.'

See Thursday's Papers

NOT AN ADVERTISEMENT FOR ANY PARTICULAR CIGARETTE

It may even make you like your present cigarette better