

KIWANIS CLUB CHANGES LUCK AT LUNCHEON

Ice Cream and Cigars Come Before Soup and Fish

The Penn-Harris was sidetracked to-day at noon by the wild and woolly Kiwanians who put on their weekly program backward and so bustled up the menage of the hostelry that the short-hand writers of Pennsylvania who were scheduled to meet also at noon got soggy-eyed and ran from the spot. Searching parties failed to discover them any where and their luncheon got cold waiting.

"The Kiwanis Club," announced President Baron Neffe, "will do everything backward to-day to change its luck," so they began with ice cream and cigars just as Henderson Gilbert entered, and finished with hot soup. "We will close the meeting now," proclaimed President Neffe, "by singing 'The Star Spangled Banner,' and recite the Kiwanis prayer," which is as follows:

Teach me that sixty seconds make a minute, one hundred cents a dollar and sixteen ounces a pound.

Help me to live that I can lie down at night to sleep, not toss, shave myself in the morning and look the man before me in the eye.

Grant that I may earn my meal ticket on the level and in earning it that I may measure my acts by the Golden Rule.

Deafen me to the jingle of the dirty dollar and the rustle of un-holy petticoats.

Blind me to the faults of the other fellows and open my eyes to my own shortcomings.

Guide my footsteps so that each evening at the dinner table when I look at my wife who has been a blessing to me, I shall have nothing to conceal.

Keep me young enough to laugh with little tots and sympathetic enough to be considerate of old age.

Then when comes the day of lowered shades, the soft footcandle and the cold bed, make the ceremony short and let the fellows say, "He was a good Kiwanian."

Guests of the occasion were M. A. Smith and J. A. McKee of McKee Glass Company, Jeanette, Pa., with Charles Boas, Gordon O'Neil and J. Edward Book, with E. J. Book, John Eby, with Sam Taylor, James E. Snyder, with "Jimmy" Lentz; E. S. Herman, Jr., with John Herman; Book Spahr, with Charles Beckley; Mr. Skimmer with I. E. Rubin; Mrs. Major Murdock and Bert Hastings with Harry Lovengard. Harrison Henry with Paul Furman; Dr. Batdorf with Dr. H. B. Rubin; and Harry T. Neale gave the silent boost, a lead pencil. "Bill" Rogers won the attendance prize, a suit of clothes contributed by Lou Baum.

A feature of the hot water table was the monster picnic at Hershey, August 28, and the club is discussing another big event, announced when it was held at its next meeting, he was to have been both at Hershey and detained out of town. Speakers this afternoon were Dr. H. B. Walter and Dr. George A. Gorgas.

WOODMEN INITIATE CLASS

Keystone Camp, No. 60, Woodmen of the World at its meeting in the camp hall, Monday night at 7:30, initiated a class of five new candidates. The local camp still maintains a lead in the membership drive of the name of Hershey, Lancaster and this city. Keystone Camp will hold its first annual picnic at Reservoir Park on July 17. Games, band concerts and other amusements are included on the program. A list of prizes is being prepared.

For Indigestion Take Bi-nesia

Costs Nothing If It Fails

Nearly everybody suffers at times after eating, from indigestion without suffering the most excruciating agony. Some people call this indigestion some dyspepsia, others gastritis; but no matter what you call it, no matter how many remedies or how many doctors you may have tried — instant and almost invariable relief may be obtained by taking in a little hot water a table-spoonful of a simple neutralizer, such as Bi-nesia. This instantly neutralizes the acid and stops fermentation, the cause of nine-tenths of all stomach trouble, and thus enables the stomach to proceed with digestion in a painless, normal manner. Care should be taken to insist on getting the genuine Bi-nesia, which, owing to its marvelous properties, is no sold by peddlars and tablet form by Geo. A. Gorgas and leading druggists everywhere under a hodge-podge of satisfaction or money back.

Printing Binding Designing

Photo-Engraving

It had been necessary several years ago to send to the larger cities for the reproduction of photographs so that your likeness could, under the skillful hand of the photo-engraver, be produced on paper. With the largest plant of this kind in Central Pennsylvania there is no need to look further for any class of cut you may need. We do all kinds of photo-engraving and do it right. We make cuts. Let us make yours.

PENROSE AND VARE CALL ON THE GOVERNOR

Philadelphia Matters Under Discussion at Conferences; Registrar Appointments

Senator Edwin H. Vare and Sheriff Harry C. Ransley, of Philadelphia, dropped in to see Governor William C. Sproul to-day about the Philadelphia registration commission and legislative matters. Senator Boies Penrose saw the Governor about the same matters last night. Senator Penrose remained at his hotel during the day and did not see the other Philadelphia visitors.

It is regarded as probable that the election bills will be acted upon within a few days and that the registration commission will be named to-morrow. Names of Clinton Rogers Woodruff, Ignatius A. Quinn, George C. Fern and William Walsh are much heard of here for four of the five places.

Secretary of Internal Affairs Woodward and other State officials saw Senator Penrose to-day and it is understood that appointments were under discussion.

Franklin Spencer Edmunds, of Philadelphia, also saw the Governor, but his visit was in relative to community service growing out of the war.

The Governor spent only a short time at the Capitol, returning to the Executive Mansion, where he devoted himself to legislative bills, of which more than 600 are to be disposed of. Some may be announced to-night.

Governor Will Take No Part in Philadelphia Fight

Philadelphia, July 9. — Governor Sproul said to-day he will take no part in the Philadelphia mayoralty fight. The bitter contest in recent years is anticipated. The Governor, who is reported to have been approached by the various factions, said to-day: "Although I naturally would like to see a good Republican elected mayor of Philadelphia, I intend to take no part in the factional fight. I am attending strictly to my duties as Governor."

The presence of Senator Penrose in Harrisburg has created much interest in political circles. Yesterday the Senator's factional opponents in the Republican city committee opened a mayoralty campaign at a meeting during which Senator Vare, anti-Penrose leader, denounced as mongrel reformers who are taking an active interest in the selection of a mayoralty candidate. Leaders of the Town Meeting party and the Republican Alliance, anti-Vare organizations, to-day announced that a reply will be issued to Senator Vare's attack.

John Fox, Jr., Novelist, Dies of Pneumonia

By Associated Press. Knoxville, Tenn., July 9. —John Fox, Jr., well-known novelist, died at his home at Big Stone Gap, Va., yesterday, after a brief illness of pneumonia.

Mr. Fox was one of America's most popular writers of fiction, his novels dealing with life among the mountain peoples of the South, having a wide sale. His last book, considered to be "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," "The Kentuckians," and "The Heart of the Hills."

John William Fox, Jr., was born in Bourbon county, Kentucky, 56 years ago. He received his preparatory education at Transylvania University and later was awarded a degree by Harvard University. He left Kentucky when a young man and had spent most of his life at Big Stone Gap in the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains, from which he obtained much of the material and characters for his writings.

FIRST TRANSCONTINENTAL TRUCK TRAIN, ENROUTE FROM WASHINGTON TO PACIFIC COAST

After leaving Emmitsburg, Md., at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, the trucks participating in the transcontinental motor convoy of the Motor Transport Corps of the United States Army, arrived at Gettysburg yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. They arrived at Chambersburg about 6 o'clock and spent the night there.

The first trouble was experienced in Adams county, just one-half mile across the Maryland line, where the trucks found difficulty in crossing a small county bridge, and were able to proceed only by fording the stream. A committee of prominent citizens from Gettysburg met the trucks outside of the city and escorted them into it. Included on this committee, which was headed by Senator C. W. Beals, were R. C. Miller, J. Frank Hartman, W. F. Gilliland, I. P. Bingham, H. T. Weaver and Ken S. Lynch.

Included with the train which is made up of 60 trucks, are 235 men and 28 officers. Lieutenant Colonel C. W. McClure is in charge of this first transcontinental run, in which a very type of Army truck is participating.

Vance C. McCormick Home From Peace Conference

Vance C. McCormick, former Democratic national chairman, arrived in Harrisburg last evening from Paris where he had been attending the Peace Conference as chairman of the blockade council and member of the supreme economic blockade and the reparation councils. He spent the night at the summer home, Rose Garden, and will go to Washington to make final report of his activities in France.

Mr. McCormick expressed himself as highly pleased with the treaty of peace and said he doubted if Americans appreciated the important part President Wilson had played in the framing of it. "The Peace Conference represents not only a victory of right over might on the battlefield, but of truth, justice and mercy over the baser impulses of men," he said.

Two Former Harrisburgers Enter Into Partnership

There is general interest in local railroad circles over an announcement in the Philadelphia Public Ledger regarding two former P. R. R. representatives in Harrisburg. In Richard Spillane's business column in the Ledger appears this item:

"Anthony L. Geyelin and Thomas Graham have formed the corporation of Geyelin and Co., and started in business as freight forwarders and customs house and marine insurance brokers, with offices at 108 South Fourth street. They deserve well of the public, for they have served their country well. "Mr. Geyelin used to be with the Pennsylvania Railroad. When we entered the war he was sent to France, where he became a major of engineers and chief railroad transportation officer. One job he had to do, which was a herculean task, was framing the plan and writing the book of rules of our transportation service in France. "Mr. Graham also was in the army. When he left the service he was cap-

PACKARD COMPANY PLANS WAREHOUSES

From a small runabout to a mammoth 5 1/2-ton truck, the big windows in front will reveal a complete line of Packard motor vehicles. The entrance to the rear portion will be on the left of the show room and will pass by a small checking station where cars coming in for repairs may be classified.

The office of the manager will be between the show space and the garage part, as will also the offices for the stenographers and Mr. Harrington's assistants. Behind the manager's office is located the garage for quick service, such as tire repairs and carburetor adjustments. The other part of the rear is for more lengthy repairs and is thoroughly equipped with a complete machine shop. A second story may be added in the spring if conditions warrant it. The cost is estimated at around $100,000. The building will be a duplicate of the ones in Cleveland and Buffalo and will give Packard owners in Harrisburg the same service at present afforded those two cities.

Although the building is expected to be completed by the first of November, the present office at 109 Market street will not be given over, but continued principally as a show room for limousines and all other types of close bodies. The building will be refurnished. The opening of the new building will increase the force and will result in bringing nine new men with their families to Harrisburg.

GERMAN OFFICERS KILL THEMSELVES

By Associated Press. GENEVA, July 9. —Suicides among the German officers are increasing alarmingly, especially in Prussia, where the number of suicides is thirty-eight per cent more than before it became known that former Emperor William was to be placed on trial by the Allies, according to Munich newspapers. The wives of officers are also reported to be taking their own lives. The increase in the number of suicides is attributed, not only to patriotic despair, but to the loss of the officers' past social position.

Heavy Penalties For Burning Motor Vehicles

Two bills affecting automobiles were among those announced as approved by Governor Sproul to-day. One declares it a felony punishable by fine of not over $100 and imprisonment up to five years for any person to set fire to or attempt to fire a motor vehicle with intent to destroy property or to obtain insurance.

The other empowers the State Highway Commissioner to revoke the registration of any person authorized to operate a motor vehicle upon presentation of a certificate from the Public Service Commission that the vehicle has been run as a common carrier without authority from the Commission. Power is also given to rescind such revocation upon proper notice from the Commission, a fee to be $5 payable to the State and to be used for road maintenance.

Divorce Calendar Is Cleared Up by Court

With the hearing of evidence in about half a dozen divorce cases to-day, Judges Kunkel and McCarrall disposed of the last actions which were listed for hearing during the week of June 23, and which had been continued until this week. In courtroom No. 3 to-day the case of John R. vs. Jeannette S. Blamer was heard. Blamer named R. T. Wheeler as co-respondent in the proceeding, but Mrs. Blamer contested the case and denied the charges. Judge McCarrall ordered the attorneys to place it on the argument list.

Other cases which were heard include: Charles vs. Thomas I. Garland, Matilda M. vs. John M. Mettinger, Roger M. vs. Lillian M. Fayman. A divorce decree was signed in the case of Mary E. vs. Simon J. Deserion was alleged in the action.

DECLINES WAR DECORATION

Chicago, July 9. —James Hamilton Lewis, former United States senator from Illinois, who recently received the Legion of Honor conferred by Belgium for war services, announced to-day that he had written the king of Belgium, declining the honor. "The law passed by Congress allowing decorations for military service on the battlefields cannot apply to me, as my service to Belgium, though done at the front during the battle of the Marne, was of the character entitling me to decoration," said Mr. Lewis.
