

Mechanicsburg School Board Fixes Salaries

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 10.—At a meeting of the Mechanicsburg School Board on Tuesday evening the annual election of officers was held, according to the school code, which resulted as follows: Guy H. Lucas, secretary, with salary of $125 a year, and M. E. Anderson, treasurer, with salary of $100 a year. Both were re-elected. The bond of the secretary was placed at $250 and that of the treasurer at $5,000. The depositary of the school funds was made the Mechanicsburg National Bank, and the bond made $10,000. Jesse B. Asper was elected tax collector for the year 1919, and his bond fixed at $6,000. The opening day of school was arranged for Monday, September 1. The terms of two directors, Guy H. Lucas and Harry Beitzel, expire this year and election for their successors will be held in November.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES
Marietta, July 10.—John L. Lewis, 82 years old, of Ironville, a retired farmer, died yesterday. He was a veteran of the Civil War, serving in Company B, Fifty-fifth Regiment. Several children and a sister survive.

Loaded Shell Explodes in Foundry Crucible

Chambersburg, Pa., July 10.—An unexploded shell among the scrap metal purchased by the C. E. Coe Company is believed to have been the cause of an explosion at the foundry of the company yesterday afternoon. The scrap metal was being melted in a large crucible when an explosion occurred, the hot metal being scattered in all directions. Jere Senseny, an employe, was caught beneath the shower of molten metal and severely burned about the head and back. He was rushed to the office of Dr. H. H. Dight, where his burns were dressed.

HOSPITAL NURSE RESIGNS
Chambersburg, Pa., July 10.—After having served in the capacity of head nurse at the Chambersburg Hospital for the past two months, Miss Mary Myers has resigned and has returned to her home at Welsh Run, near here. She will later go to Hagerstown, where she will resume her position at the Washington County Hospital. Her successor at the local hospital will be Miss Elizabeth Mitchell of the Women's Hospital, Philadelphia.

WEST SHORE

MUST NOT EXCEED 15 MILES SPEED

Marysville Borough Officials Will Enforce Regulation of Automobiles in Streets

Marysville, Pa., July 10.—Flooded with complaints of high rates of speed of automobiles and motor cycles through the town, Borough Council has taken action to break up the practice. The borough ordinance limiting automobile travel to 15 miles per hour passed some months ago, which has become almost a dead letter, will be strictly enforced, and all offenders will be taken before a Marysville justice of the peace. Borough constables, Burgess Amos M. Fisher and Street Commissioner Jacob Carmichael, will be depended on to strictly enforce the measure, commencing July 15. The constables and the burgess will be empowered to make arrests without warrant, but Commissioner Carmichael will have no other authority than to make information.

Personal and Social Items Along the West Shore

The Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Adams and daughter Mary Margaret Williams, are guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. R. R. Kohr on Third Street, New Cumberland. Earl Bates, of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bates, at New Cumberland. W. W. Higgins, of New York City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Reiff, on Third Street, New Cumberland. Miss Elizabeth Smaling and Heomer Miller, of New Cumberland, spent Tuesday at Zions View, York county. Grover Negley moved from New Cumberland to Lemoyne this week. Miss Anna Reiff and Miss Martha Yensel, of New Cumberland, have returned from Columbus, Ohio, where they attended the centenary celebration of the Methodist Church. Mrs. J. R. Rider and daughter, Louise, of Hagerstown, Md., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Heaverstock at New Cumberland. Miss Lillian Rhoads, who has been employed at the Army Reserve Depot, and her brother, John Rhoads, who returned recently from France, left yesterday for their home at Sanford, Fla.

PROF. DECKARD SECRETARY
Marysville, Pa., July 10.—Professor A. E. Deckard, principal of the Marysville schools, has been named secretary of the borough school board. He will succeed J. L. Hahn, who declined to be a candidate for re-election after a number of years' service. H. J. Deckard was re-elected treasurer. Teachers' salaries for the 1919-20 term have not yet been fixed by the board, while the Woodruff bill remains unsigned by Governor Spraul. Little business of any importance was transacted at the meeting of the board this week.

WILL INSTALL OFFICERS
Marysville, Pa., July 10.—Bushler Lodge, No. 269, Knights of Pythias, will install a newly-elected corps of officers at its meeting in the castle hall in Lincoln street on Friday night. The installation will be in charge of J. G. Eppley.

HOME-COMING PLANS
New Cumberland, Pa., July 10.—A general committee will meet at the hosehouse this evening at 8.30 to make final arrangements for the home celebration of returned soldiers, to be held September 6.

SCHOOL BOARD OFFICERS
New Cumberland, Pa., July 10.—Tuesday evening the school board reorganized and the following officers were elected: President, B. F. Garver; vice-president, Dr. J. F. Good; secretary, M. A. Hoff; treasurer, G. B. Osler; janitor, John Leaf.

SPECIAL MISSION FOR COL. STEESE

Mount Holly Springs Officer Ordered by Chief of Staff to Go to Europe

COL. JAMES G. STEESE

Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 10.—This morning Col. Jas. G. Steese, of Mount Holly Springs, left his home at that place for Hoboken, N. J., where he will report for transportation to the commanding officer of the American Expeditionary Forces for the purpose of carrying out verbal instructions of the Secretary of War. The order of General Peyton C. March, chief of staff of the United States Army, directing Colonel Steese to proceed to Europe, practically gives him carte blanche in carrying out his instructions, and reads as follows: "Colonel James G. Steese, General Staff, will proceed, on or about July 10, 1919, to Hoboken, N. J., and report to the commanding General, Port of Embarkation for transportation to France, and upon his arrival in France, will report to the commanding general, American Expeditionary Forces, for temporary duty, for the purpose of carrying out the verbal instructions of the Secretary of War, and under his completion of this duty, will return to his present station in this city. Colonel Steese is authorized to perform such travel as may be necessary to visit places in Europe which the instructions of the Secretary of War require." Colonel Steese, who is a son of James A. Steese, the Chief of the Bureau of Mediation of the Department of Labor and Industry of Pennsylvania, is a graduate of Dickinson College, and also of West Point, where he attained high rank among his classmates. He is well known throughout the Cumberland Valley and also in Harrisburg. Several times he attempted to be assigned to foreign service, but each time other orders prevented this ambition being achieved. He was finally detailed for work on the general staff, and from this post he will go to France on a special mission, sailing from Hoboken on Saturday morning.

Brave Woman Fires at Thieves Robbing Hencoop

Danville, Pa., July 10.—Mrs. Charles C. Hale did not hide her head when she heard robbers at work in her hencoop, where she has 56 fine Rhode Island Red pullets, early yesterday. Instead, she kept watch until she heard voices. Then she fired two shots from her shotgun. There was a scream, the sound of scurrying, and the robbers fled. Mrs. Hale found three bullets outside the coop, and believes that they were dropped by the thieves in taking flight. Mrs. Hale is an expert shot and fears nothing. Her neighbors declare that the thieves selected the wrong place if they hoped to be successful.

$285,018 Trust Earns $500,000 in Ten Years

New York, July 10.—A trust fund of $285,018 in Standard Oil stocks, left to Mrs. Grace O'Day McPherson by her father, Daniel O'Day, earned $500,000 in ten years, according to an accounting filed in Surrogate's Court here. The trust fund now amounts to $787,551, notwithstanding the fact that Mrs. McPherson had drawn from it an income amounting to $163,450 in the decade preceding her death last April. Mrs. McPherson left no will.

PFOUTZ-SCHAAL WEDDING
Chambersburg, Pa., July 10.—Daniel C. Pfoutz and Miss Beulah Schaal were married at the parsonage of St. John's Reformed Church here by the pastor, the Rev. T. A. Alspach. Mrs. Pfoutz is a graduate of the Chambersburg High School, class of 1915, and has been employed as secretary at the office of the garage conducted by her uncle, John D. Schaal. The couple went on a wedding trip to Detroit and Lake Erie.

CENTER SCHOOLS LET
New Bloomfield, Pa., July 10.—At a meeting of the Center township school board on Saturday the following schools were let for the winter term: Mansville, to Edward Bealor; Markel, to Miss Olive Gant; Center, to Miss Beula Davies; Laurel Grove, to Miss Anna Bell; Airyview, to Frank Ferguson; Comp's, to John Myers; Jerico, to Miss Elizabeth Roth. Salaries range from $60 to $80 per month under the new code.

FARMER'S NECK BROKEN
Milton, Pa., July 10.—Samuel A. Ravert, Jr., 28 years old, of White Deer, near here, was jolted off a load of hay upon which he was riding, and his head struck a stone alongside the road. He died of a broken neck. He is survived by his wife and four children.

KISS COST HIM $300
Washington, Pa., July 10.—The price of a kiss was fixed at $300 by Judge J. A. McIlwain when he sentenced Israel Schaefer, a merchant of Bentleyville, convicted last week of simple assault upon Helen Check, a young girl who worked in his store. Schaefer testified that he kissed her advances to the girl by kissing her.

REDUCE PRICES HALF
By Associated Press.
Rome, Wednesday, July 9.—The Chamber of Labor has issued a manifesto saying that, having received guarantees that the prices of necessities will be reduced 50 per cent, it invites the people to return to work.

GOVERNOR ASKS BRIEFS BE FILED

Rushed in Consideration of Bills He Can't See the Visitors

Owing to the pressure of business caused by the numerous bills to be acted upon Governor William C. Sprout has been compelled to decline hearings on legislation in his hands and has requested that people interested in bills file briefs. The Governor has over 500 bills to dispose of in a little over two weeks. Numerous requests for hearings have been made and much correspondence is being received. The Governor will spend only a few hours a day at his office, devoting the rest of the time to considering bills and discussing them with the Attorney General, legislators and fiscal officers in charge of finances and appropriations and heads of departments.

The Attorney General's Department has sent to the Governor statements on almost every bill outside of appropriation bills in his hands and are being studied. As fast as the bills are approved they are being prepared for printing in the form of pamphlet laws. To Issue Code—The State Game and Fish Commissions are arranging to issue a codification of the laws relative to such activities with the changes made by this Legislature as soon as the Governor finds acting on the bills. Scores of inquiries are being received here every day as to what alterations in seasons and provisions have been made and some of them have come from remote counties.

Warden Visits—John Francis, warden of the western penitentiary, was among visitors to the Capitol. Details Here—Several of the advance details of the Reserve Militia passed through Harrisburg today on their way to Mt. Gretna. They visited the Capitol.

Quarantine Off—The State Live Stock Sanitary Board has released Adams, Berks, Carbon, Lebanon, Monroe and Philadelphia counties from the hog cholera quarantine order. Even are still subject to the quarantine. Ruling on Fines—In an opinion to the State Game Commission, Deputy Attorney General W. I. Swoope holds that fines collected for violation of the game bounty act must be paid to the county wherein the offense was committed. He says there is no authority to pay them to the Game Commission.

Centre Loses—Courties of Bradford, Bucks, Butler, Clearfield, Clinton, Delaware, Fayette, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Luzerne, Somerset, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tioga, Westmoreland, Wyoming and York have notified Highway Commissioner L. S. Sadler that they will agree to maintain detours and road improvements are under way on State highways. Centre county commissioners refused to make such an agreement. The bids for improvements in that county have been rejected.

BONE CAUSES CHILD'S DEATH
Hagerstown, Md., July 10.—Thurman Shirley, aged 19 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Shirley, died as the result of a piece of a chicken bone lodging in his throat. An operation failed to relieve the child. The child swallowed the bone about a week ago and physicians exhausted every means to save its life, finally resorting to an operation, but in vain.

BOY'S NECK BROKEN
Hagerstown, Md., July 10.—Edwin N. Keller, aged 6 years, son of Albert Keller, a farmer living near South Mountain, was killed while helping his father at the barn while hauling in wheat. The boy was sitting on the saddle horse of the team and fell to the ground, his neck being broken. It is thought that he was kicked by one of the horses. He died soon after being picked up by his father.

ELKS TO HOLD PICNIC
Members of the entertainment committee of the Harrisburg Elks are busy on the program for the second picnic. It will be held at Whitehouse Club, along the Susquehanna, near Middletown, Thursday, July 24. There will be music, athletic sports, swimming, fishing, and a number of special features.

Want To Keep Your Hair Perpetually Curly?

Perpetually wavy, curly hair is now within the means of every woman to possess. One need only get a few ounces of plain liquid silmerine from her druggist and apply a little of it occasionally with a clean tooth brush. This quickly dries in the most beautiful and natural looking waves and creases imaginable. Wind and weather do not affect the curls, and where a heated iron has been used. Liquid silmerine is so pure and harmless there is not the slightest danger of spotting the scalp or streaking the hair, and it leaves no sticky or greasy trace. It will also be appreciated as a beneficial dressing, as it keeps the hair soft, silky and lustrous.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours. Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two drops of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints, do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished where the suffering severe cases where the suffering of an agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless. Allenru relieves at once, immediately after you start to take it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels. It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Deep relief often comes in two days, and when in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days. Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru has conquered this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed George A. Gorjag to guarantee it in every instance.

Minister's Baby Swallows Red Cross Membership Pin

Chambersburg, Pa., July 10.—Because of the intense pain which he had been suffering for some time, Mark Alspach, 14-months-old son of the Rev. T. A. Alspach, pastor of St. John's Reformed Church, here, was taken to the Chambersburg Hospital where an X-ray photograph of his abdomen was taken. The photograph revealed the cause of the pain, when it was found that a Red Cross membership pin, which the tot had inadvertently swallowed, had lodged in the abdomen.

HAGERSTOWN LICENSES
Hagerstown, Md., July 10.—Marriage licenses were issued here to the following couples from Pennsylvania: John H. Fralick and Esther Miller, both of Harrisburg; Bruce N. Snyder, Millstone, and Lucy Irene Blake, Syvan.

Geo. H. Albright Francis Simonetti
Albright & Simonetti
Successors to the
Ryder Hardware Co.
1218 N. THIRD STREET
We have purchased and taken possession of the Ryder Hardware Store with the determination to give the most accommodating and satisfactory service in catering to your needs in our various lines.
We carry a complete stock of Shelf and Builder's Hardware, Glass, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Housefurnishing Goods, etc., and are the exclusive agency for Sherwin-Williams paints, for Harrisburg and vicinity.
If it's anything in Hardware kindly give us a call—Your patronage will be appreciated
Very truly,
ALBRIGHT & SIMONETTI

United States Tires are Good Tires
A Triumph of Toughness
And yet, the 'Royal Cord' possesses amazing buoyancy and life.
That's the secret of this famous tire's success.
Hardihood that means many extra miles, combined with the luxury of easier riding.
Let us put 'Royal Cords' on your car. They are the utmost in equipment—the finest tires in the world.
We know United States Tires are good tires. That's why we sell them.
Black & Sons Motor Co. B. S. Brubaker & Sons — Grantham.
Mack's Garage W. I. Hoffman — Lisburn.
Cadillac Hinton Co. West Shore Tire Repair Co. — Lemoyne.
The Fishman Garage Co., Inc. W. I. Hoffman — Lisburn.
C. S. Gelsinger — Paxtang — Harrisburg. James F. Roddy — West Fairview.
B. F. Hoffman Garage, 7th & Camp St. West Shore Garage — Wormleysburg.
Keystone Sales Co. Hershey Garage — Hershey.
Geo. W. Myers. C. B. Care — Linglestown.
Rex Garage & Supply Co. C. W. Fox — Picketown.
Harrisburg Harness & Saddlery Co. Retberg Bros. — Steelton.
J. P. Kessler — Enola. A. M. Schaffer — Hanoverdale — Union Deposit
Keystone Vulcanizing Works, 1332 N. 3rd St. Harrisburg Auto Co., 4th & Kelker Sts.

COMING!
Number 8
The Greatest Event of the Year For Men and Boys
Watch This Space Every Day

TRIANGLE PEPPERMINTS
Wintergreen Clove Cinnamon
After every smoke eat Triangle Peppermints; they will freshen and sweeten the mouth and relieve that nervous tension between smokes.
Pure Triangle Mints are made from the finest 'XXXX' sugar and the purest super oil of mint.
Fresh Careful wrapping in tinfoil lined with wax paper assures lasting freshness and true flavor.
5¢ Everywhere
"Wonderfully Good"