FINED $25 FOR CAUSING DEATH OF HIS WIFE

Korean Court Declares American Minister Was Careless With Auto

Scoul, Korea, July 1.—The Rev. Eugene Bell, of Shelbyville, Kentucky, has appealed from the judgwas fined the equivalent of $25 criminal carelessness in accidentally a friend in an automobile accident The judgment stipulated that in de fault of payment Mr. Bell must stonary work, urged him to fight the case.

The accident occurred March 2s at an unguarded grade crossing when the Seoul express ran down the automobile which Mr. Bell was driving. Mrs. Bell and the Rev. Paul S. Crane, of Yazoo city, Mississippi, were instantly killed and the Rev. Robert Knox, of Galveston, Texas, a third passenger, was injured, finally losing an eye as a result.

Two Cakes Bring Concert From Boys Brigade Band

Six touring, cars carrying Low's Boys' Brigade Band, of Du Bois, arrived in Harrisburg last evening just as Bowman's picnic crowd was returning from Good Hope Mill. Miss Alice Musgrove said, "Here goes the two cakes to the band boys."

The boys had not as yet crossed the bridge to the Capitol City for their supper, so the cakes served to stave their hunger for the time being. The leader gallantly offered to come and serenade the girls the next day. Several selections were played in front of Bowman's store as a result of this chance meeting and songs by Clyde Allen.

In behalf of Bowman and Company, Arthur Benson thanked them by saying that "Bread cast on the water would return ten-fold and this, no doubt applied to cake." Charles Taylor responded for the band boys always take the cake wherever they go.

The Boy Brigade Band is on a 700-mile trip from Du Bois to Washing-ton, and are on their way home by the way of Williamsport.

Get the Printing Habit and Watch It Help You

Quite often we are reatures of habit, not inquite often we are creatures of habit, not infrequently to our disadvantage. Good habits are to be treasured bad habits spurned, says the moralist. One of the best busines habits you can acquire, says the business man, who has learned the lesson, is the printing habit. Le t attractive, earnest printing help you add to your earnings. It has done this for others and will get business for you. The catalog, the folder, the booklet, the window card, the circular, all these have been found valuable auxiliaries to the business man. We print them and print them right.

Mary Pickford's Little Niece Who Wants to Niece Who Wants to Be Like Her Famous Aunt DAYLIGHT SAVING

FRIDAY EVENING,

When our Mary Pickford of today has cast aside her gingham dress and little strands of gray compeeping through her yellow curls—if such can be imagined—she is going to be able to go down to the "movie" house, pay her quarter and see "Mary the Second" taking upher work where she herself left off. That is, all this will come true if the dreams of her little niece Mary, daughter of Miss Pickford's sister. Lottle, are anything like what regular dreams ought to be. The younger Mary, seen at her famous aun's home at Fremont place, Los Angeles, says she is just waiting to be as great an actress as Auntie Mary.

tion to Rider; Two Billion in Appropriations Before Him

By Associated Press. Washington, July 11. - President Wilson still had before him to-day appropriation bills passed recently y Congress and it seemed doubtful ed this week. The President was understood to feel that the measures, carrying appropriations of more than $2,000,000,000 deserved deliberate onsideration.

It was indicated at the White voting considerable attention to the

DOYLE'S DEDUCTION

[Boston Transcript]
A woman who had read "Sherlock Holmes" applied to Conan Doyle for help in a matter that puzzled her.
"My detective powers are quite at your service, madam," said the author good naturedly. "What is the trouble?"

Frequent and mysterious thefts have been occurring on our premises for a long time. There disappeared last week a motor horn, a box of golf balls, a left riding boot, a dictionary and a half dozen tin plates."

"The case is perfectly clear." said Sir Arthur. "You keep a goat."

Prominent Britishers Honored For Services During War

Three prominent Britishers who were recently honored by King George for their services to the Government during the World War. Sir William Bull, honorary secretary of the London Unionist M. P.'s Association and a member of parliament from Hammersmith since 1900. Sir Ernest Pearson, one of England's foremost engineers. Two of his foremost achievements are the construction of the Malta Dry Docks and Dreakwater and the improvement of the harbor of Valparalso, for the Chilean Government. Sir Clement Kinloch-Cooke, noted editor and author, who is a power in the Unionist faction in Parliament, where he is serving as representative from Davenport.

ADMITS HE WAS NOT ROBBED

Conscience stricken, Roland Whistler, 2215 Brookwood street, to-day admitted to Chief of Police Wetzel that he had not been robbed of $962 on May 23, as he had reported at that time. He had made the report, he said, so that an instalment house might extend the time of making payments on $750 worth of furniture that he had purchased.

He had had the money in a pocket of his trousers, he told the police, having withdrawn it from bank to make the furniture payment and payments on other accounts. The police were inclined at the time to doubt the story, since he is said to have reported that he had saved the money while he was in the Army, little more than a year ago.

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

SHE TELLS SUFFERERS HERE

It is the literary flavor and the artistry of style of "The Fledgling" by Charles Bernard Nordhoff (Houghton Mifflin Company) which makes it distinctive among war books. Certain chapters of the book were prired in the Atlantic while Lieutenant Nordhoff was still in France. At present he is with Captain James Norman Hall at Marthas Vireyard, where he is assisting in the writing of one of the most important books of the war, the official history of the "Lafayette Escadrille."

After forty thousand miles of trayel in the eastern hemisphere, and five years of war, Captain Louis Keene, author of "Crumps" (Houghtor Mifflin Company) has safely returned to this country.

The London Spectator says of "Golden Days" by Romilly Fedden, just announced by Houghton Mifflin Company: "A very jolly book that will delight anglers and many folks who have never wet a line. Mr. Fedden has as observant an eye for human character as for a fire sun, set, or the under-water tactics of a special property in the under-water tactics of a special property in the under-water tactics of a special property in the case of the splend of the relief that prompts men and women everywhere to tell of the relief tank Natonex gives.

"In me eager to tell my fine experience with Natonex, for I think the same that the price with Natonex, for I think experience with Natonex, f human character as for a fire sun-set, or the under-water tactics of a hooked Breton salmon."

"You mean that piece o' paper were "More Second" taking up her work where she herself left of the property of the work where she herself left of the property story built up of real experiences, and warm (and sometimes hot) with passionate feeling."

(The MacMillar Company, Publishers, New York. $1.75.)

"Prussianism and Pacifism": the two Wilhelms between the Revolu-tions of 1848 and 1918, by Poultrey tions of 1848 and 1918, by Poultrey Bigelow, author of "History of the German Struggle for Liberty 1806-1848," "Prussian Memories," "Genseric," etc. G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York, publishers, $1.50.

The author sketches the past seventy years of Hohenzollern glory and shame—beginning with the flight from Berlin of the first Wilhelm when Crown Prince (1848) and closing with an escape equally rehelm when Crown Prince (1848) and closing with an escape equally remarkable by his grandson (1918) to Ameronger. Though the German presses have issued endless material in the field the author covers, he says, "Experience leads me to think that much of interest has been wilfully colored, if not wholly surpressed through official influence."

BATS ARE WELCOME New Orleans, La. — "Malaria can be eliminated. The mosquito alone is responsible. The surest method of ridding the earth of mosquitoes is propagating the bat."

These are the words of Dr. Charles A. R. Campbell, mosquito exterminator and protector of the bat, He is the originator of the only municipal bat roost in the world, at San Antonio, Texas, which will accommodate 250,000 bats, and already has about 35,000 guests.

35.900 guests.

Through the efforts of Dr. Camphell the city of San Antonio passed, June 8. 1914, an ordinance prohibiting the killing of bats, and on March 10, 1317, Texas passed the first law in the world which protects the bat.

Since the erection of the municipal bat roost at San Antonio, and the original bat roost built by Dr. Camphell at Mitchell Lake, mainria has practically disappeared from the territory.

KNEW THEY'D NEED ONE

There rushed into the police station a youngster very much out of breath, who gasped out to an officer:
"You're—wanted —down—down—in our street—an'—an' bring an ambulance?"
"What's the trouble?" demanded the policeman, "And why bring an ambulance?"
"Because," the kiddie explained when he had recovered his breath, "mother's found the lady that pinched our doormat!"—Sydney Bulletin.
