Since the Wartime Prohibition went into effect July 1, the town has been very quiet. No arrests have been made by John Noon and David Stager, two special police, and the borough council have laid both of them off. A few of the saloons have remained open. One proprietor claims that since the law has gone in effect it does not pay him to keep open to sell beer and contemplates closing.

NOTHING BETTER IN SIGHT

In an Irish courthouse an old man was called into the witness box, and, being infirm and just a little near-sighted, he went too far in more than one sense. Instead of going up the stairs that led to the box he mounted those that led to the bench. The judge good-humoredly said:

"If it is a judge you want to be, my good man?"

"Ah, sure, yer worship," was the reply; "I'm an old man now, an' maybe it's all I'm fit for."—London Globe.

Dutch Resent Query on Escape Yarn of Prince

Paris, July 11.—The Council of Five received a reply from Holland in answer to the Council's note regarding the reported escape from the Island of Wierngen of the former German Crown Prince. The Dutch note, in what were said to be rather curt terms, pointed out that the rumor of the escape was unfounded and expressed surprise at the warning given by the Council.

The Dutch government, the reply added, is conscious of its internal obligation and must be left free to exercise its sovereignty as it sees fit.
