Fashion smiles on Sports' togs

There are two distinct types of sport apparel to consider in deciding your purchase, and your choice depends on whether you indulge heavily in sports—or not at all. "Now bathing," said one small boy, "is taking a bath in a tub. When you go in at the river, I call that swimming." "But swimming," insisted the other, "is when you make your hands and feet go at the same time."

But whether you swim or bathe, you need only wear sports clothes to be smart. You may choose a serviceable two-piece jersey bathing suit or a lovely costume of satin or taffeta, a simple linen suit for golfing or a bright hued affair or tricolette to gleam against the green of the club lawn. Perhaps, a riding habit for a canter in the saddle of your favorite horse or a leather coat for all-weather purposes at the wheel of your steed of steel. Our sport apparel for all the varied sports achieves both service and beauty.
