

Says Trial of Former Kaiser Would Disgrace the German People Berlin, July 14.—Dr. Ernest von Dryander, former chaplain of the German court, asserts in a statement he has caused to be published that no greater disgrace could be heaped on the sixty million people than the demand that the former Emperor William should be delivered up to the allies. Dr. von Dryander received the Order of the Black Eagle from the Emperor last year.

War Turns Students to Study of Science
 Pittsburgh, July 14.—Statistics published today by the summer school of the University of Pittsburgh verify the early predictions of educators that the nation's war experiences would turn hundreds of students to the study of sciences in the college curricula. Pitt authorities announce that at least one-third of the total enrollment of the summer school is composed of students specializing in chemistry, physics and biology. Many high school teachers from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia are spending their summer vacation at Pittsburgh in the study of physics and chemistry to meet the demand for those subjects which the opening of the high schools in the fall will bring about.

TALK SAVES FROM ROBBERS
 Baxter Springs, Kan., July 14.—Jack Welch of Picher, Okla., a prominent business man, says the next time he comes here he will come down in the daytime, and will walk down the middle of the street. The other evening he came here on business and while walking under a large tree near the Methodist church a man stepped out, and pointing a revolver at him, said: "Stick 'em up or I'll kill you." Noticing the hand holding the revolver was shaking, Mr. Welch said: "You wouldn't kill a man for a dollar or two, would you?" After a short conversation the robber fled without searching his victim.
