Enola Railroad Yards Are Operating to Full Capacity

Enola, Pa., July 15.—Despite the fact that the summer months are seemingly slack for railroading in normal times the local freight yards of the Pennsy are operating to ca-pacity. Never in the history of the yards has so much freight been handled in summer, other than dur-ing the war, than this yar. Early in the spring many men were laid off during the retrenchment period, but shortly afterward business in-creased to such an extent that most of these men were taken back. The shops are also making full time.
